SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 26.—This was the land of wonderful apportunity back in the middle of the last century.

Four local merchants with $75,000 capital planned a great railroad across the continent that has given to them, their descendants and stockholders, hundreds of millions.

From these fields and mountains those that came for gold have taken nearly two thousand million dollars.

GREAT was the City of Sacramento in its beginning, when the gold rush came in. Gen. Sutter's big general store was booming, gold seekers were killing and eating the fifteen thousand cattle and stealing the horses scattered over his 65,000 acres.

Eighteen miles from here in 1848 James Marshall, New England carpenter, working for a sawmill thought the little yellow specks looked like gold. They were gold, and it brought in from all over the world adventurous men and women of courage who laid the foundation of California's greatness.

The morale is not lacking. Marshall who found the gold and Sutter, who owned the 65,000 acres where great dredges are digging up the gold today, both died poor and broken hearted.

THERE are in California better kinds of gold than the yellow metal of the alluvial wash and the hard rock mine.

There is black gold, oil in the ground. For every million dollars worth of her gold, California has twenty billions worth of oil.

There is white gold, the mountain torrents, changed into electric power a mine of wealth inexhaustible as long as the sun lifts the waters of the Pa-

Free Booklet On Floor Coverings

Proper floor coverings are highly important from every point of view.

The floor covering you choose must be attractive to look at, as well as made of good materials.

The floor itself, being a permanent part of the house, should be of durable materials, well laid, and suitable to the purpose for which each particular room is used.

Experts of the federal government have made a thorough study of the subject of floors and floor coverings. The results of their scientific investigations are embodied in a non-technical booklet of great value to home builders and housekeepers.

This is a free government publication. Our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy for any reader who fills out and mails the coupon below, enclosing two cents in stamps for return postage. Write your name and address clearly.

TAX CUT BILL BECOMES LAW WITH COOLIDGE STROKE OF PEN

President Removes 2,350,000 "Little Fellows" From Roll.

EVERYBODY HAPPY

Greatest Slash in Income Taxes Since World War.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—President Coolidge signed the $387,000,000 tax reduction bill shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

The stroke of his pen automatically removed some 2,350,000 "little fellows" from the tax rolls, and cut approximately in half the taxes upon all other classes of income taxpayers.

A small company witnessed the ceremony of signing, consisting of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Budget Director Lord, Senator Smoot (R.) of Utah, Senator Simmons (D.) of North Carolina, Representative Green (R.) of Iowa and Representative Garner (D.) of Texas, the pilots of the bill through congress, and Representative Tilson of Connecticut, house Republican floor leader.

Forms Are Mailed.

With the president's signature, the bill automatically became law, and the machinery of the treasury, already set, started whirring to get out the necessary forms and information to the millions of citizens who will make returns between now and March 15, when the first installment of 1925 taxes is due. In some sections collectors of internal revenue have already been supplied with the forms, as it has been apparent for several days that the bill was in its final form. Instructions were telegraphed to the collectors to release the forms today.

The air mail service will be used in some instances to speed the forms and necessary information for the 1925 returns.

The slash in income taxes legalized today is the greatest cut since the war, and will be felt in every line of business and industry in the country.

Bi-Partisan Measure.

Passage of the bill and its acceptance by the president was accomplished in the shortest period in history

ARREST LOOMS IN NESBITT DEATH AT TROY

Officials Promise Developments in Murder of Woman.

NEW EVIDENCE

Victim's Battered Body Was Found in Bathtub.

TROY, Feb. 26.—That the Troy murder mystery is near solution was indicated today when County Prosecutor L. E. Harvey completed arrangements to reconvene the Miami county grand jury so that an immediate indictment could be returned.

"The grand jurors can be brought into session in two hours," Harvey said. "The jury has not been recalled to probe the murder of Mrs. Frances Drake Nesbitt but to be in readiness for an immediate indictment."

The sheriff has notified jurors to be in readiness for duty.

TROY, Feb. 26.—An arrest will be made in the Troy murder mystery before tomorrow morning.

This was the information imparted today by an official who has been closely identified with every phase of the investigation into circumstances surrounding the murder last Friday of Mrs. Frances Drake Nesbitt, 26, Ohio State university co-ed, whose battered body was found in the bathtub of her home here.

No warrant has yet been issued, the officials said.

Husband Assists Police.

New evidence uncovered during the last 24 hours was what caused Coroner Hance to withhold his verdict at the completion of his official inquiry Wednesday, he said.

ONE MAN HURT AS INTERURBAN IS DERAILED BY LANDSLIDE

Three Rocks Freed From Penn Avenue Hill by Rains.

TRACKS BLOCKED

Service is Resumed Three Hours After Crash.

Motorman Clarence L. Allison, 45, of Elm street, was slightly injured, while service over a section of the main line was crippled for nearly three hours as a result of an interurban car crashing into a rock and landslide east of the "Red Steps" on the Pennsylvania avenue tracks of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company at 5:13 o'clock this morning.

No Passengers on Car.

Conductor Harvey Allison, aged about 45, a brother of the motorman, escaped unhurt.

There were no passengers on the car, known as run No. 2, which was en route from the car barn to the Broadway terminal for the first trip to Beaver.

The car, derailed by the impact, swung over the "dead strip" between the eastbound and westbound tracks, thus blocking the entire right-of-way.

No. 1 interurban run, which left the barn a few minutes ahead of Allison's car, cleared the slide point before three boulders, one of them weighing two tons, loosened by rain and thawing, rolled down the hillside. Two other cars, one on the Grandview and another on the Pleasant Heights division, were also downtown. No Ches-

The seven remaining scouts were given less than five merits.

The candidates were examined in seven subjects. The court of honor plans monthly meetings.

"OBEY THE LAW, OR YOUR LICENSE WILL BE REVOKED," IS MAYOR BENEDUM'S ULTIMATUM TO 15 EAST LIVERPOOL POOLROOM OPERATORS

"Obey the law, or your license will be revoked" was Mayor Ralph Benedum's ultimatum to approximately 15 East Liverpool poolroom operators, who attended a conference at the city hall this morning.

Pea pool, high pill, poker, blackjack and other games of chance are tabooed, the mayor warned.

Violators' permits will be revoked for a period of two weeks for the first offense, and for the balance of the year, in the event of a second offense.

Service-Safety Director J. W. Moore declared the city is not attempting to impose a hardship upon the pool room owners, but expects to ban gambling. "If you can't stop gambling on the part of your patrons, get out of the business," was Moore's advice to the proprietors.

The conference was called by the mayor, following the receipt of complaints from patrons of the establishments. They claimed to have lost money in gambling games. Three arrests of poolroom operators have been made by the police since the beginning of the year.

Seek Co-operation.

"We have called you men here this morning," said the mayor, "to ask your co-operation in halting gambling in poolrooms. There have been numerous offenses in the past but we are going to forget about the past and start with a clean slate for the future. We are going to put you men on the honor roll and ask that you co-operate with the police in stopping gambling.

"Pea pool will not be tolerated. Neither will the game known as the high pill. Some of you men have been conducting this game, taking a "drag" out of each pot. This game, if worked properly, will net the proprietor $50 an hour, but it must stop.

"We have received some complaints that some of you men are permitting games of poker, blackjack and similar card games in your basements or back rooms, which are not accessible. This will not be allowed.

"You are also warned about permitting loafing about your place—men who will not work and never spend a cent with you. The poolroom loafer must go, or we will jail them. Men under the age of 18 years are not permitted in poolrooms at any time, and this order is to be enforced.

Clean Up Places, Is Advice.

"We want you fellows to make money and plenty of it so long as it was done within the law. Clean up your places and stop the gambling. We will play no favorites; all will be treated alike.

"Our police force is small but we intend to keep a lookout in the future. If we suspect violations and our police cannot catch you, we will hire plainclothes men—some of your trusted patrons—to secure the necessary evidence. If we learn through one of these secret operatives that there is a violation, your licenses will be suspended for two weeks. During that time your tables will be kept dark and you will lose your profits. For a second offense, I will revoke your license for the balance of the year.

"It's now up to you, men, for the future. We expect you to be law-abiding citizens, and if you don't you can expect to be penalized."

"We are not going to let anything which has happened in the past influence us in the future," said Director Moore. "From now on we will trust that no gambling will be permitted in your places. We want your co-operation in bringing about better law observance."

Complaints from Wives.

Chief of Police McDermott declared that the favorite pastime in the poolrooms had been the "high-pill" game.

"Recently complaints have come to be from wives whose husbands have gambled away money with which they intended to pay their gas bill, their grocery bill, or rent in such games as these," said the chief. "One man on his way home after pay day lost his two weeks' wages, we have been told. The poor man who needs his money for his family has been the sufferer."

All but one operator in the city attended the meeting and this one had a valid excuse given the mayor last night.

WHEELING, W. VA., FOLKS SAVE MONEY BY DOING TRADING IN OHIO

WHEELING, W. Va.—Bridgeport, O., just across the Ohio river, is the foil city for Wheelingites who would escape West Virginia taxation.

Thousands of dollars of Wheeling money are deposited in Bridgeport banks. Recent failure of one of the institutions is said to have affected financially quite a number of local citizens and enterprises. The fact that the stockholders in the institution will lose their investments and may be forced to pay in an amount equal to their stock holdings may make the situation more serious.

Scores of Wheeling residents who want to escape high auto license costs in West Virginia seek Ohio licenses under West Virginia addresses, it is stated authoritatively. A license for a Ford costs $4 in Ohio; in West Virginia the charge is $13. The West Virginia rate is higher for other machines.

Bridgeport served for years as a source of Wheeling's booze supply. After West Virginia went dry, the largest bar in the world was established by Samuel Ungerleider, now a member of the New York stock exchange with brokerage offices throughout the Central West, to cater to the Wheeling trade.

Is Green No More

"My experience with your medicine has been wonderful. My stomach and liver trouble of five years standing took a new turn two years ago when I took on an olive green complexion. I spent $1,200 with doctors and specialists only to prove that I was still as green as ever. A friend advised me to take MAYR'S, "One Dose Will Convince," and I am green no more. My stomach and liver trouble has all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. British Organization On Maintenance Has Million Adherents

LONDON—One million adherents have joined its ranks since last fall, claims the O. M. S.—the Organization for the Maintenance of Supplies. The members consist almost equally of men and women, state the organizers—of whom Lord Harding is chief—and they also aver that whole fleets of automobiles have been placed at their complete disposal.

The O. M. S. is the body that aims at keeping the national life of Britain going under normal conditions in the event of a general strike. The leaders say that all their plans are ready and the whole of their services will be offered to the government, and that scores of thousands of able-bodied men have volunteered to act as special constables in order to set the regular police force free for other duties. Another section is ready to assist as transport workers, messengers and clerks.

The organization maintains that it is strictly non-political.

Clearaway Of All Winter Goods Affords Remarkable Buying Opportunities

Men Digging a Well

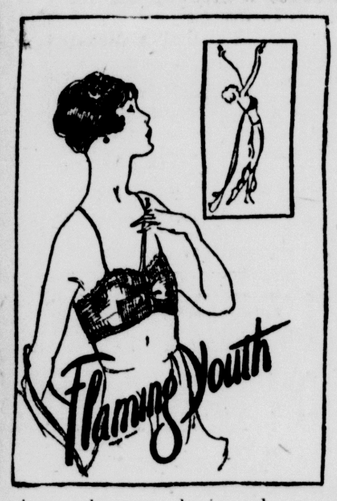

in British Columbia to get water for their cattle recently started a gold rush. News of the discovery of gold-bearing sands brought a wild scramble for mining licenses.

The big point in both cases is this: The Gold was there all the time.

GRADE CROSSING BAN APPRAISED

No Tracks Will Intersect Midland Road.

The Pennsylvania Public Service Commission has given its approval to a plan whereeby all grade crossings of the new Midland-East Liverpool road in Ohio township and Glasgow borough are to be eliminated.

The cost of the proposed improvement is estimated at $202,016, including $23,280 property damage. Construction work by the Pennsylvania railroad will cost $32,203, while the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company will expend $31,681. Highway construction work will cost $85,392, while a subway for the street railway roadbed will add $29,459 to the bill.

The highway, improvement of which was started by the Rinehart Brothers, local contractors, last summer, will follow along north of the railroad tracks from Midland to the state line. Contract for the section between the Smiths Ferry railroad station and the new bridge across Beaver creek will be awarded at an early date.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

W. K. Kellogg

This thing will dull the brightest "star"

YOU probably know this story, or one amazingly like it. It deals with a young man who started out "with everything"—who made brilliant progress for a time—became a "star"—had his little hour . . . and then faded. . . . What vicious thing can so transform a man? Can make a strong heart weak? An energetic body spineless? . . .

Constipation ruins so many promising persons—a dread disease which saps life and strength. The fortunate fact about constipation is that it can be conquered—surely, safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer!

As Kellogg's ALL-BRAN journeys through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Doctors call ALL-BRAN a bulk food. You know the importance of "bulk" in diet. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream, or with fresh or preserved fruit; sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals; use in soups or make into the many recipes given on the package. If eaten regularly, ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or money refunded. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A part-bran product can, at best, be but partially effective. Kellogg's is the original, genuine 100% ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Leading hotels and restaurants serve it.

Rivalry In The League

Politics is beginning to disturb the league of nations. It shows especially in the present struggle over council membership.

With Germany about to enter the council as the fifth permanent member, with places still reserved for America and Russia, France wants Poland admitted. Poland is France's ally, and would strengthen French influence in the league, which at present is less than British influence. Italy is ready to back France in this move.

If the council is to be increased, Britain would like to get Spain in. That, too, is natural. Spain is closely associated with Britain, and that would help to hold in check France and her friends.

But there are others trying to break into that inner sanctuary of the league. Belgium would like a permanent seat. And Brazil is an active candidate, on the ground that this hemisphere ought to be represented, and she would cheerfully take the place of the United States as long as this country remains out of the league.

If the league council is to be increased at all, North Americans would prefer to see the New World represented by Brazil or Argentina. But why admit any more? The members of the league are all represented now in the assembly. Why create two large bodies? The council is the executive body of the league. If American experience counts for anything, the fewer members in that body, the more efficient it will be.

Hunt Moose to Help Them

Two rescue parties set out last week from Halifax to undo, if possible, some of the damage done by a recent blizzard in that region. Leaders of the two groups were the assistant commissioner of forests and game for Nova Scotia and a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. They were equipped with snowshoes and camping outfits and food.

They were hunting for a family of starving moose that had been reported by a train crew as snow-bound and suffering in Stillwater Valley.

The moose had taken shelter in the valley from a bad storm. But when it was over huge snow drifts prevented their getting out or finding food where they were. They had been trapped there for days when their predicament was told to citizens in the nearest town on the railroad.

It is a different sort of moose hunt from those usually undertaken by mankind. And it is likely that none of the humane hunters is thinking at all of future shooting possibilities. Kindness appears to be the whole motive.

Russia Likes Our Products

Here is a compliment from an unexpected source. It comes from the Russian co-operative purchasing organization known as the Central Union of Consumers' societies, which, next to the Soviet government, is the biggest buyer in Russia.

Classifying foreign countries according to the excellence of the goods bought from them, this body places the United States first, with England second and France a distant third. The poorest goods, says the statement, come from Germany, Austria and Cecho-Slovakia.

The sincerity of this testimony speaks for itself, and is supported by the rapidly rising tide of our exports to Russia, in spite of the political difficulties.

If we take it at face value, it means much in the struggle for world markets. Our manufacturers may find a market for their goods as readily as our financiers find one for their money.

Senators And Lords

The United States senate, it appears, is not the only deliberative body in the world which allows unlimited debate. The British house of lords, after which our senate was modeled, goes further.

Some of the peers, finding amusement in the row between Vice President Dawes and the senate, point out that their body has no rules at all, and gets along very well without them. It doesn't even need a quorum to do business, and it faces no demand for reform in its procedure. Any lord may speak at any time on any subject as long as he likes.

"Custom and a sense of propriety govern the proceedings," explains a member. Party leaders ordinarily regulate the debate, but there is nothing to prevent a member from butting in and rampaging around and smashing a program, except "profound respect for the traditions of the chamber."

Our senators are strong for tradition, too; but they seem principally concerned with upholding the tradition that every senator is a law unto himself, with a constitutional right to do as he pleases.

Still, the British house of lords, with all its voluntary orderliness and decorum, is not such a howling success as its members seem to suggest. Orderly debate is an excellent thing—especially for a debating society, which is all the house of lords is. The house of commons has stripped it of power. The senate, with all its confusion, is more powerful than ever.

That gigantic new baking merger announced recently in New York may be a "trust with a soul," as advertised; but governmental action raises serious doubts as to whether it will have a body.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 26.—Last night I saw an orchid growing for the first time. It bloomed in a Belasco setting against the side of a sturdy and graceful oak. A soft moon dappled a terraced lawn through the lattice-work of palms.

At our feet the Miami river rippled lazily in a mellow sheen. At our back was the Italian villa of B. B. Tatum, a pioneer Floridian, filled with early Florentine treasures. Two years ago the entire neighborhood was a miasmal jungle.

It was a dinner party, and I think all of us were touched by the sheer beauty of the night, but the spell was broken by Frank Shutts, who began an exhaustive and enthusiastic panegyric to the splendor of the backyard sunflower in Aurora, Indiana.

We all came back with a rush to reality. Mr. Tatum has a Chow dog deserving especial notice. He is a Sir Galahad of dogdom. When he comes through a door he turns about and closes it with his paws. He is a red Chow with a tail of snow white curling over his back like a mighty powder puff.

Coming through Miami at midnight—the city sleeps early—was a traffic desolution, and we saw the main section without the jostling throngs. There are many skyscrapers, but mostly there are one and two storied buildings given over to real estate, food and soft drinks. It all looks new and brisk.

Many of the little shops open on the street without doors or windows—showing the faith of Miami in its climate. In one block was a tanned young man, bare-legged to the thighs, in swimming trunks, strolling along, thrumming a ukelele.

Several hotel lobbies jut on the street and are filled with flowers and wicker furniture. Some real estate offices were still open, with their rows of desks and attendants awaiting trade. A man may go out for a midnight walk here and buy a lot on the way.

On the eve of the trek back to the lights o' New York with my Florence Mills complexion, a few sand burrs and a N. S. F. bank account, I am going to say another word for realtors down here. They are targets for comic weeklies, paragraphers and vaudeville gagsters, yet not one of them tried to sell me real estate.

I believe the late William Jennings Bryan endeared himself to the people of Florida as no other American save Flagler. In this connection I wonder if there are monuments to Flagler here. I have failed to see one. Miami at least should have him flung up in heroic bronze in its largest square.

Miami is something like Paris in telephone service. Each is terrible, but Miami congestion is purely physical and will be remedied. In Paris they just don't give a hoot.

Fate, or whatever you may call it, is always conspiring against the loafer. My efforts at laziness the past few weeks have been punctuated with more requests for work than during the preceding year.

Away from the usual routine one always pictures dire situations. I never left home without feeling after a few weeks that I would return to find my job gone, my hotel burned, the dog poisoned and a flock of deputy sheriffs with a batch of garnishee documents. And then one returns to New York to discover that not even the hotel bellboys know you have been away.

High Spots in the Life of Little Stanley, the Great Explorer— By F. Fox

HASKIN'S LETTER

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

The Bakery Combine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26—"Tall oaks from little acorns grow," runs the old proverb. This might well be paraphrased, "Great corporations from little bakeries grow," as applied to the story of the W. B. Ward baking interests.

The father of W. B. Ward was a baker and young Ward grew up in the bakery business. About 1910 or 1911 the father, Arthur B. Ward, founded the Ward Baking company, and a year or so later W. B. and his brother went into business on their own at Rochester, New York, under the firm name of Ward Brothers. In 1913 they organized the company of Ward and Ward and built a bakery at Buffalo, N. Y. From this modest beginning the Ward influence in the baking industry has grown to such proportions that W. B. Ward is variously known as the "bread king" or "emperor of the bakeries." He is acknowledged as the outstanding figure in the bakery business in the United States.

Young Ward has always had ambitions of succeeding his father as president of the Ward Baking company, but these ambitions were not immediately realized upon the death of his father. However, about the year 1923 he acquired control of that company and was elected to that office. Since that time his acquisition of baking plants throughout the country has been extended at an enormous rate. He is regarded as the controlling influence of what is known as the "Big Three" of the baking world. These are the Ward Baking company, the General Baking company and the Continental Baking Corporation.

The "Big Three" are said to own and operate more bakeries than any other three concerns in the world. They have plants in every large city in the United States as well as a number of the smaller ones. They also operate in Canada. Their daily output is more than 31,000,000 pound-loaves of bread. Statisticians have estimated that in the United States the daily consumption of bread is about one-third of a pound of bread to each person. From this may be realized what a large percentage of the population of the country the Big Three are supplying with the "staff of life."

Bakeries Flourish.

Bread-making in the home has no large place in modern life. The women of today do not have the time to develop to such tasks. The increased scope of women's activities leaves them little time for unnecessary domestic tasks—and by a large majority of city folks such a task would be deemed unnecessary when excellent bread may be purchased at the corner grocery.

The last stand of homemade bread is in the rural districts and in those places south of the Mason and Dixon Line where the people still regard hot bread as a necessity. In rural districts bread is still made by housewives largely for the reason that bakers' bread is not easily available. In the south "cold bread" is likely to be scorned. Down there they do not hold with the northern idea that hot bread is indigestible. In fact, one woman of southern birth stoutly maintained to the time of her death that "cold bread gives me indigestion."

The increased use of baker's bread in the cities, however, has given a tremendous impetus to the industry. Bakeries flourished. Until recently these were mostly local concerns catering to the local market. The sale of their products was necessarily confined to restricted areas, since bread and pies and such things quickly deteriorate and are highly perishable. They must be disposed of immediately or they lose their value. They cannot be shipped to outside markets in the same fashion that other food products may be.

In the last few years though the Ward interests have been increasing to such an extent that there has been much comment on the bread situation both in the public press and in congress. The attention of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission was called to the activities of the Big Three. They started in to see what might be done to prevent further mergers of bakeries.

To Prevent Mergers.

The first legal proceeding against any of the Ward interests was the issuance of a complaint by the Federal Trade Commission against the Continental Baking Corporation charging it with violating Second 7 of the Clayton act. This section specifies that "No corporation shall acquire, directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the stock or other share capital of two or more corporations engaged in commerce where the effect of such ac-

Intercounty Highway Will be Completed In Next Two Years

Completion of the East Liverpool-Columbus intercounty highway is assured within two years ,according to information just received by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk, from the state highway department at Columbus.

The first step in this connection was taken when the Columbiana county commissioners started to surface the Wellsville-Salineville road, and the last contract of which will be awarded by the state highway department next month, which will have to do with the surfacing of the half-mile of this road within the corporate limits of Salineville.

Furthering this improvement, Columbiana county has arranged to build west from Salineville toward Mechanicstown, where the Carroll county commissioners have arranged for new construction on this route.

At Columbus this week, the state highway department opened bids for the construction of eight miles of this road in that county, extending westward from Carrollton toward the Tuscarawas county line. The second western gap in this road will be awarded probably in June.

Next year the state highway department and the Carroll county commissioners will concentrate upon the improvement of this road east from Carrollton to the Columbiana county line, and with this stretch of highway finished, there will be another improved highway between East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salineville, Mechanicstown, Carrollton into New Philadelphia, westward from which there is an improved highway into Columbus.

Six bids were opened on this Carroll county job by the state highway department a few days ago, the lowest bid being submitted by Urban Brothers company, of Massillon, which was $139,824.57, or $16,571.09 under the estimate of $156,395.66.

Damage Verdict Returned.

A damage verdict of $1,400 has been returned by a jury in the $25,000 automobile damage case filed in common pleas court November 20, 1924, by Mary M. Callen against Herbert Whitcomb, of Salem. The case was before a jury for two days, the damages being claimed because of an automobile accident in which the plaintiff set up the claim that she was injured as a result of the collision.

Case Dismissed.

The case of the Fruest Freidman company against the Pascola Coal company, which was an appeal action for goods sold and delivered, has been dismissed by Judge Fred H. Wolf in common pleas court at the costs of the defendant.

To File Petition.

In the action pending in common pleas court filed by Park Meek and others against Gibbs & Brown Inc., which was up for hearing Thursday afternoon, leave was granted the defendants to file an amended answer, and the plaintiffs also given leave to file their reply to the answer.

Leave to File Answer.

Leave has been granted the Industrial Commission of Ohio to file its answer in the appeal from the decision of the commission in the case pending against it and filed by Pearl Truxall.

Please note that Mulkey's Iodine Salt is "free running," just like our famous "Jack Frost" salt for cooking and table use. Neither is there anything peculiar about the taste or color of Mulkey's Iodine Salt. It cannot give the food even the faintest Iodine flavor. This is because of our perfect facilities for producing Iodine Salt! It is not an experiment with us. Soviet Red Cross Has Fund For Needy Riffs Located in Tangier

MOSCOW—To help the "refugee Riffs who have gathered in Tangier and the surrounding districts," the central committee of the Red Cross of the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic has appropriated 1,000 roubles. The money will be distributed, according to the committee, "only to those Riffs who are in greatest need."

This is the first material expression of the the sympathy often expressed here for the Riffs in their fight against "French imperialism."

A Dancer's Death Proves this Beauty Secret

Clear Soap is Necessary for Clear Skin

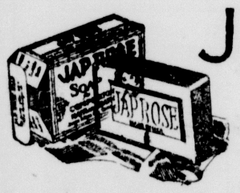

Stage history reveals the case of a dancer who, seeking fame, painted her body from head to foot.

She paid with her life, for the clogging of her pores halted important body functions.

To have a healthy, colorful, clear skin, you must keep pores cleansed to their very ends.

Because of the marked purity and delicacy of its ingredients, Jap Rose dissolves completely in water and so can enter and thoroughly cleanse the tiniest pores—6,000,000 to the body.

You can tell that it is doing this and that your skin is improving by the pleasant tingle that follows its first use. Ask for this soap.

Know Your Hair--

Before You Have It Waved

You are, naturally, particular as to the treatment your hair receives, and for this reason you will appreciate CIRCULINE, the new Nestle Process which opens a new era in permanent waving. It will interest you to know that I use only Nestle Lanoil machines in my shop, so that I can use this wonderful new process on your hair.

The basis of the Circuline Process is a careful testing of your hair, in the Nestle Laboratories, with the Nestle Metre Scale which will reveal certain qualities of your hair and thus indicate precisely the degree of Circuline required. By this means Circuline can be adapted to each and every individual type of hair, thus assuring you of a perfect wave with the exact amount of curliness you may desire. This, of course, can only be done with this truly scientific process.

It will give me pleasure indeed if you will call so that I may examine your hair and show you samples of the various kinds of waves that can be obtained with it. I shall also be glad to give you any other information you may desire. This will be done cheerfully, without obligation on your part.

If you would like to have your hair tested in the Nestle Laboratories in New York City, bring me a sample of your hair with $1.00 to cover the cost of the test. When you are ready to have your wave, I will deduct the $1.00 from its cost so that the test of your hair will have been made at my expense.

I shall be pleased if I may serve you by giving you a Circuline wave which will delight you, or by rendering any other service you may require.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE GIRLS TO BE GRADED ON "PERSONALITY" BASIS

WELLESLEY, Mass. — Wellesley College girls in the future are to be graded according to personality.

A new Personnel Board at Wellesley will tabulate the girls from year to year to guarantee, as far as possible, that the collegians will find suitable positions when they leave college.

The new Personnel Board is composed of President Pendleton, Professor Wood, director of the Bureau of Occupations, the three college deals, the college physician and the head of the psychology department.

Already the board is preparing material on next year's in-coming class. Miss L. Knapp, dean of freshmen, is in New York conferring with prospective students and obtaining data for the qualification cards set aside for each girl.

Every Wellesley department contributes to the fund of information that Miss Alice Wood, as director of the Personnel Board, and her assistants compile during the four years of each girl's college life.

The object is to rate each girl on her powers of comprehension, initiative, reliability, memory, integrity and other traits. Each girl is graded on the cards as "superior," "average" or lacking in different traits.

Improvement of the Suez-Cairo automobile road is nearing completion.

5,000 WATCH AS MAN DIES FOR BRUTAL ATTACK

Negro Hanged for Mistreating Girl on Lonely Farm.

DELAWARE CRIME

Troops Were Called Out During Trial of Accused.

GEORGETOWN, Del., Feb. 26.—While five thousand men and women stood watch outside the Sussex county jail here this morning, Harry Butler, 21-year-old Negro, was hanged for an attack on Elnera Steinmetz, a 12-year-old girl.

The child was beaten and mistreated by Butler on a lonely farm near Bridgeville Jan. 21.

Fifty persons were admitted to the jail yard to witness the execution.

Farmers and their families from all over Delaware and many from Maryland, New Jersey and Pennsylvania gathered about the jail at dawn.

Fifty in Jail Yard.

The fifty who were admitted inside the enclosure included the jury which convicted Butler, newspapermen and county officials.

Butler was convicted of attacking the girl at his trial here Feb. 8, the jury deliberating only eight minutes. During the trial the courthouse was guarded by state police and 150 members of the National guard equipped with machine guns, rifles, tear-gas bombs and tear-gas syringe guns. The court was surrounded by barbed wire barriers.

A mob surged excitedly about the courthouse the day of the trial and once the guardsmen threw gas bombs to prevent a rush on the courthouse doors.

Phone Wires Down

A section of tin roofing on one of the Cord Tire Corporation's new buildings, upper Chester, was torn loose.

A telephone pole was blown down in the vicinity of the Merrill dam, near Vanport. The pole fell across the trolley wires of The Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company but service was only temporarily delayed.

Toledoan Injured.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 26.—One person was injured and thousands of dollars of property damage was done here early today by a 64-mile-an-hour gale. Twenty-seven street lights were demolished and hundreds of telephone poles and wires were blown down.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—Following a night of high winds, near blizzard conditions prevailed today in Cleveland and northern Ohio.

Heavy snow this morning was being whipped into drifts by a 30-mile an hour wind. During the night the velocity of the gale reached 50 miles an hour.

Much damage was done in the city to trees, power lines, telephone wires and signs.

At the United States coast guard station here today it was stated that a field of ice 15 miles wide, exceptionally thick, had broken loose and was today drifting in a northeastern direction at a rate of two miles an hour.

Power Lines Collapse

ZANESVILLE, Feb. 26.—As a result of the terrific gale which swept Zanesville all last night, the city is strewn today with tree limbs, signs and broken glass. The Brighton district was dark all night because of the collapse of one high tension wire onto another, incidentally causing a spectacular fire by burning a telephone pole, making a torch-like wire. Interurban traffic west was prostrated for part of yesterday because of wire trouble at Pleasant Valley. Two large business display windows were literally blown in by the wind.

Snow Drifts in Elyria.

ELYRIA, Feb. 26.—Much damage to trees was in evidence here today as the result of last night's high wind which also tore down many power lines. It was snowing today and the snow drifting.

MARION, Feb. 26.—Telephones were cut of commission in various parts of the city and county today and interurban service was interrupted as the result of a whipping gale from the southwest last night which tore through Marion, leaving in its wake a twisted mass of tree limbs and signs. Tops were blown from automobiles and scores of cars were hurled into ditches by the baby cyclone. No serious damage was reported, however.

clad, was found in a bathtub half filled with water. Two blows on the head crushed the skull and caused death.

L. H. Shipman, counsel for Jacob Nesbitt, husband of the murdered woman was aroused today over statements accredited to him that his client may be arrested.

"I made no such statement," he said. "I was retained by Mr. Nesbitt when it seemed that suspicion might be cast upon him, the fact is the husband is doing everything in his power to assist the officers in solving the murder."

TODAY

cific and the clouds drop rain on the Great Sierras.

There is the many colored gold that springs from the soil, green crops, golden yellow citrus crops, purple plums, red cherries, waving grain fields.

California's crops are worth every year, more than all the gold that California's hills have yielded in 77 years. Another inexhaustible mine.

Another gold worth more than all the others, without shape, color or weight is human intelligence that develops and gives value to all the rest.

WINDING out of the great dredge, twisting, curling along the ground like a huge serpent goes a big cable big around as your wrist.

Through that cable, from the mountains, invisible, mysterious, comes electric power that runs the giant machine that biting into the earth, takes out 97,000 pounds of rock and sand at a mouthful.

Twenty thousand men with picks and shovels could not do the work of that one machine, and four men run the machine, with plenty of leisure. Men can do anything with gold in sight.

HAS the city of Sacramento lost its energy and settled down to a peaceful sleep now that the gold rush has gone by?

Not exactly. This is a California city. Its population has doubled within seven years. It keeps the old Crocker, Stanford and Huntington houses as local curiosities and memories. Everything else has marched ahead, not keeping pace with the times, but keeping ahead of them.

The Hotel Senator was finished only a few months ago. It has everything that any hotel in New York, Paris or London has, and more.

The Southern Pacific has just built a gigantic new railroad station. Skyscrapers are rising in every direction. The river having once indicated possibilities of a flood, two of the chief steets in the lower part of the city were immediately raised 14 feet into the air. And now with "by passes" and other controls the river is controlled, and once flooded fields are rich farms.

THERE is energy here, and after you have been received by the citizens you realize it. They finish showing you the state capitol, at 1 o'clock in the morning. And all are gathered together again at 8 the same morning for breakfast, with grapefruit, sausages, scrambled eggs, steaks, chops, buckwheat cakes, corn bread and speeches.

No lack of energy here, nor of progress.

SEE this wonderful northern California and southern California.

The Sacramento and San Joaquin, twin rivers of the Great Twin valleys, are already fourth in freight traffic among the rivers of this nation, and the aveage ton value of this river freight is the highest of any river in the world.

And these rivers are as important to the east as though they ran through the heart of New York or Pennsylvania. Flying machines might destroy railroads and bridges, and these California valleys, richest agricultural lands in the world, excelling ancient Egypt or Mesopatamia, would still supply food to the whole nation—shipping by water through the Golden Gate, the Panama Canal, and on north.

This is the land of promise, in accomplishment marvelous already, with the promise not yet one-thousandth part fulfilled.

Car Hits Boulder

ter cars had left the barn, but interurbans coming from Steubenville provided partial service on western end of the main line.

Motorman Stops Car.

Allison's car was only slightly damaged, the front end being torn, thanks to the quick work of the motorman who applied the emergency brakes and stopped within 40 feet as he saw the slide coming.

The car shot past the largest boulder, which was wedged under the rear step, but struck the other rocks, which brought about two truckloads of dirt with them.

The slip occurred at a point about 250 feet west of the Feb. 10 rock slide, in which five persons were injured.

A "ground," which burned out a section of the eastbound trolley wire, followed the slide.

A work crew, under the direction of H. R. Frederick, maintenance of way engineer, and General Superintendent Garry S. Wills, reopened the westbound track at 7:45 o'clock, while five minutes later service was restored on the eastbound track.

Six Anderson Girls Head Keith Bill At Strand Theatre

Six Anderson girls, a group of talented musicians and dancers, head the Keith vaudeville offering, which is being presented to patrons of the Strand theatre during the last half of the present week.

The girls perform with a piano, two violins, cello, flute and clarinet. Two changes of costumes are presented in the act, which scored a hit at the three performances on Thursday.

Elizabeth De Solti and company, a team of performers, appear in a high class singing and dancing attraction. Stone and Leever, comedians, furnish laughs for the entire show. The other act is Kinzo, a Japanese juggler, who showed extraordinary skill.

The screen offering is Ramon Novarro in a naval theme, "The Midshipman." The picture was photographed at the Annapolis Naval academy.

An all-day show, starting at 1:30 p. m., will be presented on Saturday.

ATHLETE FACES HERESY TRIAL BEFORE CHURCH

Case Follows His Erection of Community Hall.

FAVORS CHECKERS

Outlines Defense in Case to be Aired in Palmyra, Ind.

[Editor's Note—W. Clyde Martin, farmer, athlete and former principal of the high school will go on trial tomorrow before the Church of Christ at Palmyra, Ind., a community of 250 souls among the hills in the south part of the state, on charges of heresy growing out of his introduction of athletics into the school and the building at his own expense of a $3,000 community house where, he permitted dramatics and checker playing. His exclusion from the church, in which he has been an active leader, has been demanded by conservative members.

International News Service herewith present an exclusive interview with Prof. Martin in which he outlines the defense he will make in conducting his own case.]

BY MERLIN MOORE TAYLOR
INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE STAFF CORRESPONDENT PALMYRA, Ind., Feb. 26.—"If Jesus Christ were to come to Palmyra and visit Ranger community hall I am sure that he personally would approve of my course."

So Prof. W. Clyde Martin, until recently principal of the high school of this little community, today maintained that his establishment of a center for this and surrounding communities were dramatics, checkers and other recreational activities are permitted, although dancing is barred, is not in conflict with the teachings of the Bible.

Baseball Shocks Conservatives.

Prof. Martin is 40, a native of Palmyra who came back home from Winona Agricultural college, where he was a star athlete, and promptly shocked conservatives of his church and village by organizing baseball and football teams among the pupils of the high school and encouraged such things as roller skating and band practice on Sunday.

Ousted from his job, he promptly built the community hall and as a result he will be tried tomorrow before the Church of Christ on charges of heresy.

"In all communities, particularly rural communities like this, the four things of greatest influence are religion, home life, education and recreation," Prof. Martin continued. "No question is raised by the average person as to the importance of the first three. It is in the field of wholesome, harmless recreation that the church member so often stumbles and falls."

NO MOVIE ROLE FOR COUNTESS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Vera, countess of Cathcart, must have more than publicity to offer if she is going to be accepted by the movie world, it was made evident today when an organization of exhibitors which has 15,000 members went on record as being opposed to her debut in the films.

So far as is known the countess has made no efort to join the Hollywood colony, but the enormous publicity that has come her way caused R. F. Woodhull, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, to send out word to the producers, through their advertising men's organization, that the exhibitors would resist her entrance into the movies, especially since the prominence given "moral turpitude' and the Earl Carroll wine bathtub party which the countess attended, although she did leave early.

The publicity that followed the countess' attendance at Carroll's party has made her ill, she said, and she is in seclusion at her hotel today.

"Fresh Air" Drive Follows Epidemic On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—An epidemic of sickness among United States senators today agitated a drive for "fresh air" for the senate.

Without intending any reflection upon their colleagues who fan the chamber with long oratorical desertations, sponsors of the moment believe sunlight and fresh air should be provided for the senate to drive out bacteria and the little bugs which cause grippe, colds and similar illnesses. The epidemic meanwhile has sent nine senators to bed, with three more barely recovered and a score of others suffering from slight colds, though able to attend sessions.

MITCHELL GOES TO PITTSBURGH

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—Ex-Colonel William Mitchell, fiery air critic, was to leave Cleveland today for Pittsburgh, where he is scheduled to fire another salvo tonight at the American air administration.

More than 9,000 persons heard the "flying colonel" at public hall here last night when he drew a dramatic picture of America's "helplessness" if suddenly attacked by a power with a strong air force.

"Cleveland would be reduced to ruins in a few hours," Mitchell said, "if any enemy with a strong air fleet attacked the city. What good would a strong army do the city if you didn't have airplanes to cope with the air attack? Your buildings, railroads, water works and power plants would be bombed and destroyed by the foe."

NO FLOOD STAGE EXPECTED HERE

Although the Ohio river is rising, it will not reach a flood stage, according to word received from Pittsburgh by employes of Dam No. 8, shortly before noon today.

Between 19 and 20 feet of water is expected at Pittsburgh, which will mean 26-27 feet at East Liverpool. Approximately 35 feet of water is necessary to put the river over its banks here.

A stage of 23.6 feet was reported at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and was rising at the rate of three-tenths of a foot an hour. The crest is expected to reach here Saturday afternoon or evening.

The bootleggers say it will seriously interfere with their deliveries, as the last animal census of the district showed there were only 249 horses in the entire district of Columbia, most of them engaged in hauling bakery wagons.

RESUME POISON QUIZ TOMORROW

West Virginia Prepares to Exhume John Ebert's Body.

West Virginia authorities today marked time in their proposed move to bring Mrs. Laura E. Christy, 48, alleged self-confessed slayer of two of her eight husbands, back to New Cumberland from the Lima State hospital for the criminal insane, to face trial for the death of John Ebert, 50, Newell, W. Va., pottery worker.

Prosecuting Attorney Thomas Hoffman of Weirton is in Charleston today, but advised Coroner George A. Arner of Chester that he would arrive in the latter city tomorrow morning, to discuss arrangements for the disinterment of Ebert's body which is buried in Locust Hill cemetery near Chester.

Ebert, the seventh husband of Mrs. Christy, died in Newell on Nov. 7. On Jan. 5, less than two months later, his widow became the bride of Rev. William Christy, 56, alleged arsenic victim, who succumbed in the City hospital on Jan. 13, the ninth day of his honeymoon.

Tax Cut Bill Law

for a tax bill of similar mangitude. Only 81 days elapsed from the time the committees of congress began consideration of the subject until, in completed form, it was signed in the president's office this morning. It is virtually the only tax bill in history, barring war time, that can be called a bi-partisan measure. Democrats labored with the Republicans in pushing it through in record time.

Seventeen photographers made pictorial history of the event.

Last year approximately 7,600,000 citizens made income tax returns. By the increase in exemptions and the other reduction features of the present bill, treasury officials estimated today the number of returns on March 15 will be around 5,000,000.

The forms should be available to all taxpayers at their collectors' office early next week, according to treasury officials. Dozens of experts have been given temporary assignments to the collectors' office to explain the new bill to taxpayers.

Two Roofs Blown Off, Wiring Down, As Wind Storm Rages Through City

Gale Tears Tin Work From Eagles' Lodge Home in Main Street; Fire Department Called Out as Chimney Topples Over on J. Mettes Home.

At least two roofs were lifted from their moorings, trees uprooted, chimneys blown down, and hundreds of telephone and electric wires snapped off during the heavy windstorm that swirled through the city all last night. Damage, it is estimated, will reach probably several hundred dollars.

Caught in a heavy blast, the tin portion of the roof over the lodge rooms of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in Main street, between Third and Fourth, was torn loose from its fastenings and lifted over into the street.

A sudden gust pried off the roof of the old grist mill, at Nineteenth and Main streets, now used by the United States Pottery company as a storage house, and carried it over to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

The top portion of a brick chimney at the J. Mettes residence in Main street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, toppled over shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Smoke filled the house, and, believing that a fire had broken out, the family sent in an alarm.

Wires were torn down throughout the city, including a batch at Twelfth and Center street when the top of a telephone pole snapped off.

Fire alarm system wiring was damaged temporarily, but repairs to the system were completed early this morning by Fire Chief Phillips.

BRIDE WILL NOT LOSE HER NAME

An unusual incident was brought to light in the office of Probate Judge Lodge Riddle when a marriage license was issued to a couple possessing the same name, but not related. This was revealed when Nick Altier, an Italian residing at Dover, O., and Josephine Altier, of Wellsville, were granted a license. They returned to Wellsville where they were to be married.

This is the first time in years, according to the marriage license records, where two people having the same name have been granted a license.

Akron Central Here Tonight In Locals' Final Home Clash

Lorahmen Also Face Stiff Contest With Red and Black Five

To Use Full Strength Against Rubber City Lads or Reserve it for Saturday's Last County Engagement at Salem is Problem Blue and White's Mentor Must Solve.

COACH WILBUR SPRINGER'S Salem high school passers, tramping the boards on the home stretch to the Columbiana scholastic conference court title, unbeaten, unchecked, not even slowed up in their dash to high school laurels for 1926, will face the biggest test of the entire campaign on Saturday when they meet Lorah's East Liverpool five in a return performance on the Salem court.

By virtue of seven victories and no defeats, in fact, not even a close score, the Quaker City outfit leads the pack at the present standing, with East Liverpool right on their heels in second place. Lorah's lads have pulled in five wins and their only defeat came at the hands of the Red and Black.

This Springer's lads accomplished in an early season engagement by a decisive score, the locals being unable to handle Coffee and his cohorts in that engagement.

The Salem tilt will be East Liverpool's final county clash of the year. The occasion will also mark the end of the season for the local girls' team. Mrs. Mast's lassies have landed one of the year's games and are none too confident of the Salem clash.

With seven victories and two defeats Lisbon is leading the race in the girls' division, with East Palestine second and Salem and Columbiana tied for third.

Akron Central passers will mix with the Blue and White tonight in the final scheduled home appearance of the Potters. The Rubber City contingent, victorious over New Philly by a decisive count, will be a tough nut to crack, especially so because it precedes the crucial tilt with Salem.

Whether Coach Lorah will throw his full strength into tonight's clash in an attempt to win or lay off some of his regulars to save them for the Salem game, will not be decided until the two teams line up.

The County Standing:

MUDHENS SET FOR BIG YEAR

Club Strengthened After Purchase From New York Giants.

THE change in ownership, and the signing of Harry "Hi" Myers, former National league star, along with Dewitt Lebourveau, Bud Connolly and John Heving, and the expected addition of other top performers combine to make Toledo American association fans feel that their biggest season in recent years is just around the corner.

Through its purchase from the New York Giants by a syndicate of Toledo business men, the club is now Toledo's own, with Casey Stengel, hero of many a pennant fight with the McGraw team, as pilot.

The signing of Myers this week was the latest move of Stengel to strengthen the outfit.

It is expected that Stengel himself will play in the outer garden lineup to close the gap made when Hack Wilson was drafted by the Chicago Cubs. Dewitt Lebourveau, obtained in trade for Fred Nicholson, will fill another berth and Myers will round out the pasture defense.

Paul Strand, counted on as an outfielder, was sent to Columbus during Myers' visit this week with Stengel, and in return the Toledo club will get a catcher from Hank Gowdy.

Bud Connolly, youthful third sacker, and John Heving, a catcher, were acquired from the Boston Red Sox which sent Alec Gaston back to the majors.

The advance guard of the Mudhens, including pitchers and catchers, is expected to get away for the spring training camp at Jackson, Tenn., early in March and the remainder of the team between March 10 and 15.

Myers, wintering at his home in Kensington, is scheduled to report on Sunday, March 14.

DUQUESNES WIN AT COLUMBIANA

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 26.—Columbiana basketball teams broke even in their games at the C. H. S. gym, the Franklin Furnitures defeating the Hillcrest Juniors of East Youngstown, 19-17, while Miller Bros. lost to the fast Duquesne club of Youngstown, 22-27. Both games were rough and closely contested, it requiring a two-minute extra period to decide the preliminary, a basket by Baker being the deciding touch, after the score was tide at 17 at the end of the regular game. Both teams were badly off in foul shooting.

In the big game, Miller Bros. got off to a fine start, the first quarter ending 7-1, but the Dukes evening the score at the end of the half, which was 10 all, after which they gradually forged ahead and held the lead to the end, although Miller Bros. were always close enough to be dangerous. Both teams missed many shots under the baskets which should have been easy, the guarding being exceptionally close, to that most shots were tossed hurriedly. Kyser played best for Columbiana and made three baskets.

Cubs Fifty Percent Better Than at Same Stage Last Season

AVALON, Catalina Islands, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Chicago Cubs look 50 per cent better now than at this time last year.

That was the opinion expressed here today by Ed Smith, noted Chicago sports editor, after watching the Cubs in spring training camp for a week.

Bush and Osborn, pitchers, are ready right now, Smith said, and Grover Alexander is rounding into form rapidly.

SUZANNE READY FOR COMEBACK

Learns of Helen's Growing Popularity Along Riviera.

By Frederick K. Abbott.

MONTE CARLO, Feb. 26.—Mlle. Lenglen today threatens to stage a come-back.

Suzanne is due to appear here tomorrow in the Beaumont cup doubles, her first appearance since the partial collapse she suffered last Saturday. The French girl is said to be almost completely recovered and somewhat piqued that she is in danger of being displaced as the darling of the Riviera tennis fans by Helen Wills.

The American girl is regarded as the stellar attraction along the Riviera now, for she is confidently believed to be a coming world champion whereas Suzanne is looked upon as a champion liable to make her departure before very long. The crowds that have been attracted by Miss Wills have far exceeded any that ever gathered to see Suzzane.

Reports of this state of affairs have reached Suzanne in her mountain retreat and she is said to be anxious to win back her place, and the best way she knows of winning it back is to administer another and more decisive defeat to Miss Wills. She will have the opportunity to do so at Nice ten days hence, and it now appears that she will seize this opportunity.

Miss Wills is not in the least disturbed today over her defeat in the Beaumont cup doubles yesterday, and she is preparing for a final match with Senorita Alverez of Spain in the Duke of Connaught gold cup, for such a match now seems upon the cards.

The California girl will probably take things easily next week during the Mentone tournament, conserving her strength for the following week when there is a chance of another battle with Suzanne.

Miss Wills will not have a chance to meet the German champion, Frau Neppach, in the present tournament, for Miss Eileen Bennett, of England, eliminated Frau Neppach this morning, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2. Miss Bennett and Miss Wills will meet in the semi-finals this afternoon.

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, world's champion baseball team, put on their first rehearsal today for the 1926 season.

Georgia to Try Out New Athletic Stunt, Spring Grid Contest

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.—A new athletic venture in the south—an intercollegiate spring football game—was to be staged here this afternoon between the Georgia Bulldogs and Orglethorpe university of Atlanta.

The teams meet in a benefit performance for Tony Pryse, former star athlete of Georgia, who is in Florida battling for his life against an attack of tuberculosis.

FILES PLEA WITH TENNIS RULERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—With William T. Tilden standing alone in defiance of the United States Lawn Tennis association's edict against the playing of charity matches on Sunday, the sanction committee of the association today will pass upon Miss Anne Morgan's plea for reconsideration. In a letter to President J. W. Mersereau yesterday, Miss Morgan, who is sponsor for the French-American charity, asked that the French players be given the privilege of deciding whether they wish to play.

Ashworth has improved until he is West Virginia's biggest offensive threat and if his shot breaks well he will be a thorn in the side of the Panther enemy.

Flowers Has Little Chance of Trimming Middleweight Champ

Greb, Who Has Carried on Through 14 Years of Campaigning, Will Reach the End of His Rope Sooner or Later, But Experts Don't Expect it to Happen Tonight.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Tonight's world's middleweight championship contest at Madison Square Garden will provide a real news story for the writers of sport if Theodore "Tiger" Flowers should happen to beat Harry Greb, the champion, if, however, Greb beats the colored man, the story, of course, will be not so good.

"TIGER" FLOWERS

The "Tiger," according to the consensus of our leading minds, has little chance. A casual few dissenters have contrived to look with some favor upon Flowers, but they have reached this state of mind because they feel that some one is due to "take" Greb somewhere sometimes.

They say a Pittsburgh newspaperman, ready to preside at the journalistic inquest, has followed Greb around for five years. This is a good trick, whether you do it or not. Even the gendarmes have had some trouble in following Harry at times.

Anyhow, the man who has carried on through 14 years of campaigning, will reach the end of his rope sooner or later. It may happen tonight. The writer doesn't think so.

Flowers, with one good eye and one bad jaw, can hardly be viewed as a specimen that is about to beat the champion, even if the latter may be somewhat short of his physical best. Greb has looked a trifle flabby about the abdomen during his workouts here.

Even so, he figures to outstep the Tiger, particularly since the latter is due to start the bout with clear vision in only one eye and finish it with clear vision in neither.

Tiger Improved Battler.

They say he is a much better man than he showed himself to be against McTigue in December and he will need to be. On that occasion, he punched not, neither did he box and the impression he left behind was rather unfavorable to his immediate future. He has spent the interval in repose while Greb was finding out how the tird business man got that way. Harry does his active training under the incandescents.

He is the only specimen ever known to the human race who could live that sort of thing down. Sometime, it will get him. Yet that news scavenger from Pittsburgh continues underfoot and they say he entertains no immediate hope of getting a new assignment. It doesn't seem as though Tiger Flowers can hit hard enough or take them with sufficient serenity or keep stepping with the pace as far as fifteen rounds, the scheduled distance tonight.

The weight doesn't favor Greb, neither does his mode of living. Yet, it is the length of the bout that may help him more than anything else. He usually is too strong for his victims.

The first and only other meeting between the young men occurred in the netherlands of Ohio several years ago. The Tiger got the newspaper decision but the bout only went ten rounds and they say the colored gentleman flopped badly in the last four.

If he does that tonight, they will carry him gently but firmly out.

Seismograph May Predict Quakes 10 Years Ahead

New Machine no Larger Than Telephone to Record Earth's Interior Spasms Far in Advance.

PASADENA, Calif. — Prediction of earthquakes as far as ten years ahead of their occurence will soon be possible.

Startling results being obtained here in investigations with a recently invented seismograph will enable scientists to correctly forecast earth shocks, Dr. John P. Bulwalda of the California Institute of Technology declared.

With Dr. Harry Wood and Dr. J. A. Anderson of Carnegie Institute, inventors of the new seismograph, Dr. Bulwalda, who assisted in perfecting the instrument for recording the earth's shocks, is carrying on investigations which promise accurate advance predictions on earthquakes.

New Seismograph

The new type seismographs have already been installed at the Mount Wilson observatory here and they will soon replace the old style throughout the world, it was stated. The new earth movement recording machine is no larger than an ordinary telephone, in contrast to the old type, which is extremely bulky, weighing more than two tons.

"Many earthquakes are recorded daily although these are so slight to be unnoticed by a majority of people at work in daily occupations," Dr. Bulwalda said. "Very few quakes are destructive.

"The greater portion of quakes occur in volcanic districts, especially along the boundary lines between great elevations and depressions. However, earthquakes are by no means confined to such areas.

"Most of the great earthquakes that have caused a large amount of damage may be traced to faulting rocks. Slow but relentless movements of earth cause huge rock masses to move out of their normal positions.

Fall Back Into Place

"When the stress and strain of added weight becomes too great, they fall back into natural positions, causing a quake.

"The new siismograph just perfected is extremely sensitive. By detecting the earth's movement and calculating the stress the masses will stand it is possible to predict an earthquake within ten or fifteen years of its actual happening.

"Instruments have not yet been devised which are accurate enough to fully carry on this work, but investigations now being carried on at the seismological labratory at the California Institute of Technology and at the Mount Wilson observatory promise to produce extremely startling results."

Dr. Bulwalda stated further there are some earthquakes caused by volcanic explosions and subteranean disturbances which are spontaneous and naturally no predictions are possible concerning this type of earthquake.

Volcanic Explosions

Disturbances in the United States are not considered of the above type, however.

Persons caught in an earthquake should not flee from the danger zone, Dr. Bulwalda declared. He said they were much more likely to be killed in an automobile acident, while escaping than in the earth disturbance.

Running away from the scene of an earthquake is ten times as dangerous as remaining in the locality, he declared.

Akron Central Here Tonight In Locals' Final Home Clash

Lorahmen Also Face Stiff Contest With Red and Black Five

To Use Full Strength Against Rubber City Lads or Reserve it for Saturday's Last County Engagement at Salem is Problem Blue and White's Mentor Must Solve.

COACH WILBUR SPRINGER'S Salem high school passers, tramping the boards on the home stretch to the Columbiana scholastic conference court title, unbeaten, unchecked, not even slowed up in their dash to high school laurels for 1926, will face the biggest test of the entire campaign on Saturday when they meet Lorah's East Liverpool five in a return performance on the Salem court.

By virtue of seven victories and no defeats, in fact, not even a close score, the Quaker City outfit leads the pack at the present standing, with East Liverpool right on their heels in second place. Lorah's lads have pulled in five wins and their only defeat came at the hands of the Red and Black.

This Springer's lads accomplished in an early season engagement by a decisive score, the locals being unable to handle Coffee and his cohorts in that engagement.

The Salem tilt will be East Liverpool's final county clash of the year. The occasion will also mark the end of the season for the local girls' team. Mrs. Mast's lassies have landed one of the year's games and are none too confident of the Salem clash.

With seven victories and two defeats Lisbon is leading the race in the girls' division, with East Palestine second and Salem and Columbiana tied for third.

Akron Central passers will mix with the Blue and White tonight in the final scheduled home appearance of the Potters. The Rubber City contingent, victorious over New Philly by a decisive count, will be a tough nut to crack, especially so because it precedes the crucial tilt with Salem.

Whether Coach Lorah will throw his full strength into tonight's clash in an attempt to win or lay off some of his regulars to save them for the Salem game, will not be decided until the two teams line up.

The County Standing:

Boys.	G.	W.	L.
Salem	7	7	0
East Liverpool	5	4	1
East Palestine	8	5	3

MUDHENS SET FOR BIG YEAR

Club Strengthened After Purchase From New York Giants.

THE change in ownership, and the signing of Harry "Hi" Myers, former National league star, along with Dewitt Lebourveau, Bud Connolly and John Heving, and the expected addition of other top performers combine to make Toledo American association fans feel that their biggest season in recent years is just around the corner.

Through its purchase from the New York Giants by a syndicate of Toledo business men, the club is now Toledo's own, with Casey Stengel, hero of many a pennant fight with the McGraw team, as pilot.

The signing of Myers this week was the latest move of Stengel to strengthen the outfit.

It is expected that Stengel himself will play in the outer garden lineup to close the gap made when Hack Wilson was drafted by the Chicago Cubs. Dewitt Lebourveau, obtained in trade for Fred Nicholson, will fill another berth and Myers will round out the pasture defense.

Paul Strand, counted on as an outfielder, was sent to Columbus during Myers' visit this week with Stengel, and in return the Toledo club will get a catcher from Hank Gowdy.

Bud Connolly, youthful third sacker, and John Heving, a catcher, were acquired from the Boston Red Sox which sent Alec Gaston back to the majors.

The advance guard of the Mudhens, including pitchers and catchers, is expected to get away for the spring training camp at Jackson, Tenn., early in March and the remainder of the team between March 10 and 15.

Myers, wintering at his home in Kensington, is scheduled to report on Sunday, March 14.

DUQUESNES WIN AT COLUMBIANA

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 26.—Columbiana basketball teams broke even in their games at the C. H. S. gym, the Franklin Furnitures defeating the Hillcrest Juniors of East Youngstown, 19-17, while Miller Bros. lost to the fast Duquesne club of Youngstown, 22-27. Both games were rough and closely contested, it requiring a two-minute extra period to decide the preliminary, a basket by Baker being the deciding touch, after the score was tide at 17 at the end of the regular game. Both teams were badly off in foul shooting.

In the big game, Miller Bros. got off to a fine start, the first quarter ending 7-1, but the Dukes evening the score at the end of the half, which was 10 all, after which they gradually forged ahead and held the lead to the end, although Miller Bros. were always close enough to be dangerous. Both teams missed many shots under the baskets which should have been easy, the guarding being exceptionally close, to that most shots were tossed hurriedly. Kyser played best for Columbiana and made three baskets.

Wittenberg Stopped By Denison Passers

NEWARK, O., Feb. 26.—The Denison basketball team won an erratically played game from Wittenberg at Granville by the score of 38 to 10. Jenkins was easily the star for Denison, scoring ten points in only 15 minutes play.

Colored Teams Battle At Park

Locals in Trim for Game With Rochester Lads.

The Richard Allen Athletic club passers, a local colored organization, are practicing diligently for their contest on Monday night with the Rochester A. C., at Rock Springs park.

The locals are working out daily under the supervision of Coach Ronald "Dunk" Smith, former high school star, and are confident they will take over the Pennsylvanians.

The contest will be preceded by a preliminary between the Chester Merchants and the East Liverpool wholesale produce cagers, starting at 7 o'clock.

Nominating URBAN FABER

BECAUSE he is red-headed and Irish;

Because, at 38, he is preparing for his nineteenth season as a pitcher;

Because he is laughing at the wise guys who say the "spitball" ruins a hurler's arm in a few years;

Because he was a "chief yeoman" in the navy in the World war;

Because he figures on pitching in the world's series this year—for the White Sox. N. E. B.

Cubs Fifty Percent Better Than at Same Stage Last Season

AVALON, Catalina Islands, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Chicago Cubs look 50 per cent better now than at this time last year.

That was the opinion expressed here today by Ed Smith, noted Chicago sports editor, after watching the Cubs in spring training camp for a week.

Bush and Osborn, pitchers, are ready right now, Smith said, and Grover Alexander is rounding into form rapidly.

SUZANNE READY FOR COMEBACK

By Frederick K. Abbott.

MONTE CARLO, Feb. 26.—Mlle. Lenglen today threatens to stage a come-back.

Suzanne is due to appear here tomorrow in the Beaumont cup doubles, her first appearance since the partial collapse she suffered last Saturday. The French girl is said to be almost completely recovered and somewhat piqued that she is in danger of being displaced as the darling of the Riviera tennis fans by Helen Wills.

The American girl is regarded as the stellar attraction along the Riviera now, for she is confidently believed to be a coming world champion whereas Suzanne is looked upon as a champion liable to make her departure before very long. The crowds that have been attracted by Miss Wills have far exceeded any that ever gathered to see Suzzane.

Reports of this state of affairs have reached Suzanne in her mountain retreat and she is said to be anxious to win back her place, and the best way she knows of winning it back is to administer another and more decisive defeat to Miss Wills. She will have the opportunity to do so at Nice ten days hence, and it now appears that she will seize this opportunity.

Miss Wills is not in the least disturbed today over her defeat in the Beaumont cup doubles yesterday, and she is preparing for a final match with Senorita Alverez of Spain in the Duke of Connaught gold cup, for such a match now seems upon the cards.

The California girl will probably take things easily next week during the Mentone tournament, conserving her strength for the following week when there is a chance of another battle with Suzanne.

Miss Wills will not have a chance to meet the German champion, Frau Neppach, in the present tournament, for Miss Eileen Bennett, of England, eliminated Frau Neppach this morning, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2. Miss Bennett and Miss Wills will meet in the semi-finals this afternoon.

Second Detachments Of Yanks and Giants Enroute to Florida

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Second detachments of the Giants and Yankees will leave on the same train tonight for their training camps in Florida. They will not part company until they reach Plant City, Fla., at which point the Yankees will head for St. Petersburg and the Giants for Sarasota.

Pirates in First Spring Rehearsal At Training Camp

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, world's champion baseball team, put on their first rehearsal today for the 1926 season.

Manager Bill McKechnie sent the pitchers and catchers of his staff through a stiff workout and promised strenuous drilling for the next two weeks.

Georgia to Try Out New Athletic Stunt, Spring Grid Contest

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.—A new athletic venture in the south—an intercollegiate spring football game—was to be staged here this afternoon between the Georgia Bulldogs and Orglethorpe university of Atlanta.

The teams meet in a benefit performance for Tony Pryse, former star athlete of Georgia, who is in Florida battling for his life against an attack of tuberculosis.

FILES PLEA WITH TENNIS RULERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—With William T. Tilden standing alone in defiance of the United States Lawn Tennis association's edict against the playing of charity matches on Sunday, the sanction committee of the association today will pass upon Miss Anne Morgan's plea for reconsideration. In a letter to President J. W. Mersereau yesterday, Miss Morgan, who is sponsor for the French-American charity, asked that the French players be given the privilege of deciding whether they wish to play.

Ashworth Big Threat Of Stadsvold's Five

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 26.—If Wease Ashworth, forward on the West Virginia quint, is one against Pitt Saturday evening, the Mountaineers will give the Panthers a merry battle at the "Ark." Ashworth has improved until he is West Virginia's biggest offensive threat and if his shot breaks well he will be a thorn in the side of the Panther enemy.

Flowers Has Little Chance of Trimming Middleweight Champ

Greb, Who Has Carried on Through 14 Years of Campaigning, Will Reach the End of His Rope Sooner or Later, But Experts Don't Expect it to Happen Tonight.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Tonight's world's middleweight championship contest at Madison Square Garden will provide a real news story for the writers of sport if Theodore "Tiger" Flowers should happen to beat Harry Greb, the champion, if, however, Greb beats the colored man, the story, of course, will be not so good.

"TIGER" FLOWERS

The "Tiger," according to the consensus of our leading minds, has little chance. A casual few dissenters have contrived to look with some favor upon Flowers, but they have reached this state of mind because they feel that some one is due to "take" Greb somewhere sometimes.

They say a Pittsburgh newspaperman, ready to preside at the journalistic inquest, has followed Greb around for five years. This is a good trick, whether you do it or not. Even the gendarmes have had some trouble in following Harry at times.

Anyhow, the man who has carried on through 14 years of campaigning, will reach the end of his rope sooner or later. It may happen tonight. The writer doesn't think so.

Flowers, with one good eye and one bad jaw, can hardly be viewed as a specimen that is about to beat the champion, even if the latter may be somewhat short of his physical best. Greb has looked a trifle flabby about the abdomen during his workouts here.

Even so, he figures to outstep the Tiger, particularly since the latter is due to start the bout with clear vision in only one eye and finish it with clear vision in neither.

Tiger Improved Battler.

They say he is a much better man than he showed himself to be against McTigue in December and he will need to be. On that occasion, he punched not, neither did he box and the impression he left behind was rather unfavorable to his immediate future. He has spent the interval in repose while Greb was finding out how the tird business man got dbat way. Harry does his active training under the incandescents.

He is the only specimen ever known to the human race who could live that sort of thing down. Sometime, it will get him. Yet that news scavenger from Pittsburgh continues underfoot and they say he entertains no immediate hope of getting a new assignment. It doesn't seem as though Tiger Flowers can hit hard enough or take them with sufficient serenity or keep stepping with the pace as far as fifteen rounds, the scheduled distance tonight.

The weight doesn't favor Greb, neither does his mode of living. Yet, it is the length of the bout that may help him more than anything else. He usually is too strong for his victims.

The first and only other meeting between the young men occurred in the netherlands of Ohio several years ago. The Tiger got the newspaper decision but the bout only went ten rounds and they say the colored gentleman flopped badly in the last four.

If he does that tonight, they will carry him gently but firmly out.

Seismograph May Predict Quakes 10 Years Ahead

New Machine no Larger Than Telephone to Record Earth's Interior Spasms Far in Advance.

PASADENA, Calif. — Prediction of earthquakes as far as ten years ahead of their occurence will soon be possible.

Startling results being obtained here in investigations with a recently invented seismograph will enable scientists to correctly forecast earth shocks, Dr. John P. Bulwalda of the California Institute of Technology declared.

With Dr. Harry Wood and Dr. J. A. Anderson of Carnegie Institute, inventors of the new seismograph, Dr. Bulwalda, who assisted in perfecting the instrument for recording the earth's shocks, is carrying on investigations which promise accurate advance predictions on earthquakes.

New Seismograph

The new type seismographs have already been installed at the Mount Wilson observatory here and they will soon replace the old style throughout the world, it was stated. The new earth movement recording machine is no larger than an ordinary telephone, in contrast to the old type, which is extremely bulky, weighing more than two tons.

"Many earthquakes are recorded daily although these are so slight to be unnoticed by a majority of people at work in daily occupations," Dr. Bulwalda said. "Very few quakes are destructive.

"The greater portion of quakes occur in volcanic districts, especially along the boundary lines between great elevations and depressions. However, earthquakes are by no means confined to such areas.

"Most of the great earthquakes that have caused a large amount of damage may be traced to faulting rocks. Slow but relentless movements of earth cause huge rock masses to move out of their normal positions.

Fall Back Into Place

"When the stress and strain of added weight becomes too great, they fall back into natural positions, causing a quake.

"The new siismograph just perfected is extremely sensitive. By detecting the earth's movement and calculating the stress the masses will stand it is possible to predict an earthquake within ten or fifteen years of its actual happening.

"Instruments have not yet been devised which are accurate enough to fully carry on this work, but investigations now being carried on at the seismological labratory at the California Institute of Technology and at the Mount Wilson observatory promise to produce extremely startling results."

Dr. Bulwalda stated further there are some earthquakes caused by volcanic explosions and subteranean disturbances which are spontaneous and naturally no preidctions are possible concerning this type of earthquake.

Volcanic Explosions

Disturbances in the United States are not considered of the above type, however.

Persons caught in an earthquake should not flee from the danger zone, Dr. Bulwalda declared. He said they were much more likely to be killed in an automobile acident, while escaping than in the earth disturbance.

Running away from the scene of an earthquake is ten times as dangerous as remaining in the locality, he declared.

quisition, or the use of such stock by otherwise, may be to substantially lessen competition between such corporations, or any of them, whose stock or other share capital is so acquired, or to restrain such commerce in any section or community, or tend to create a monopoly of any line of commerce."

This provision was intended to apply to what are commonly known as holding companies—that is companies which hold the stocks or securities of other companies as distinguished from companies that actually operate plants or industries. The Ward Baking company, the General Baking company and the Continental Baking Corporation are known as holding companies, and on December 19, 1925, the Federal Trade Commission issued its complaint charging that the Continental Baking Corporation had acquired the capital stock of 25 different corporations throughout the United States which operate in more than 75 cities.

It charged that the acquisition of this stock substantially lessened competition between some of the companies involved and restrained commerce in certain sections, thus tending to create a monopoly of the bread business in the corporation named. Hearings on the case began in New York city on February 8, but after a few days a recess was called in order that certain documents and facts called for by the commission's attorneys might be furnished by the baking corporation.

The Department of Justice has instituted proceedings against William B. Ward and other individuals understood to be connected with him. The department's bill was filed in Baltimore, Maryland, on the same day that hearings were begun by the Federal Trade Commission in New York city.

No complaint has been made against these companies as to the grade of their products, or to the effect that they have raised the price of bread and similar foodstuffs. The general public up to the present time has suffered in no way from the combine. The Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice are simply endeavoring to prevent a monopoly of the bread interests which would be in restraint of trade.

With the coming of better times in Hungary the people are eating 50 per cent more sugar and twice as much sausage as before.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion or Stomach Trouble CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestents that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the intestines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bisurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bisurated Magnesia, to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting paper might and your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bisurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.

There is information available on practically every subject affecting the daily life of the American citizen. Experts of the highest order are devoting their entire time and energy to this great work of promoting the public welfare. What do you want to know? What question can the bureau answer for you? Q. Is Wallace Nutting alive? M. L.

A. The Rev. Wallace Nutting is still alive.

Q. What is the story of the expression, "It's a long time between drinks?" R. R. L.

A. The saying, "Said the governor of North Carolina to the governor of South Carolina, 'It's a long time between drinks,'" concerns the governor of South Carolina who required the return of a fugitive slave. The governor of North Carolina hesitated because of powerful friends of the fugitive. He gave a banquet to his official brother. The governor of South Carolina in a speech demanded the return of the slave and ended with "What do you say?" The governor of North Carolina replied as above.

Q. What is intuition? A. L. Y.

A. Intuition is applied to direct or immediate knowing, whether mystical, perceptional, intellectual or moral, and is in general contrasted with speculative, reflective or mediate knowing.

Q. Were the mound builders the ancestors of the Indians? G. O. J.

A. The mound builders are generally believed to have been a race separate and distinct from the Indians, since there are differences in the formations of their skulls.

Q. Why does coal turn to clinkers? J. R. W.

A. Clinkers are caused from the fire getting too hot. The only way to overcome this is to carry a deep fire bed and not allow the fire to get too hot. Carry large fire at low temperature instead of small fire at high temperature and regulate the temperature by reducing the draft.

Q. What is the difference between the Marine Insurance terms "With Particular Average" and "Free from Particular Average?" H. E.

A. Marine insurance is determined on an 80 per cent average loss. It exempts an insurance company from the payment of any partial loss or particular average insurance which exceeds a certain per cent of the value of the property. The particular average clause is sometimes applied to the value of each parcel or package or series of parcels and packages according to invoice numbers. The difference between "with particular average" and "free from particular average" is that the former has a particular average and the latter has not.

Q. How old was Marie Antoinette at the time of her death? H. S.

A. She was almost 48 years old. She was imprisoned for more than a year before her execution.

Q. How much spraying material would it take to spray one ton of tomatoes? C. W. B.

A. The Bureau of Plant Industry says that allowing ten tons of tomatoes to the acre, it will take approximately 30 to 40 gallons of bordeaux mixture to spray one-tenth of an acre or 2,000 to $3,000 plants.

Q. What is the average daily growth of a bamboo tree? P. E.

A. The Bureau of Foreign Seed and Plant Introduction says that the average daily growth of the bamboo tree is 12 inches. The fastest growth is from 2½ feet to 3 feet a day.

Q. When was the Sketch Book written? W. O. H.

A. Washington Irving wrote the Sketch Book during the years 1819-1820.

Nesbitt.

Woman Laborite M. P. Asks People to Take Her Party Seriously

LONDON — Ellen Wilkinson, the red-haired Laborite member of the house of commons, is distressed because people won't take the Labor party seriously.

Miss Wilkinson was trying to address a Labor meeting at Leeds, when the lights on the platform failed. The audience snickered, laughed, shouted and found more enjoyement in the speaker's evident distress than it did in the "message" promised them.

Miss Wilkinson's complexion became the color as her flaming hair.

"There's no need to laugh just because a light goes out," she declared. "I've come here with a tremendous message and you must listen to me. Don't you realize what I am trying to tell you? I have not come here to amuse you. For Heaven's sake, take our Labor movement seriously—not as a diversion between football and the movies."

China is taking to balloon tires for automobiles.

Because of building restrictions imposed when the site for the Wembley exposition at London was purchased, the plan to establish factory sites there are being callenged.

On invitation of operators of metallurgical plants of Charleroi, Belgium, that strikers return to work, all but 6,000 resumed their tasks recently.

Harold Bell Wright's 'Mine With Iron Door' Is Booked

Film Version of Popular Novel Will be Shown at Ceramic Theatre for Three Days.

In these days of artificialities and make believe it is seldom that the theatre-goer may be quite certain that scenes passing before him on the motion picture screen are actually those set down by nature, and not cleverly contrived by the genius of the property man.

But in the case of "The Mine With the Iron Door," Sol Lesser's film version of Harold Bell Wright's new and popular novel produced for Principal Pictures Corporation, and scheduled as the chief feature for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ceramic theatre, there is no room for doubt as to the actuality of the scenes and settings. Every word of the story was written by Mr. Wright in the desert sand mountains of Arizona, near Tucson, and every scene in the feature photoplay was made on the exact spot described by the novelist.

Riding through desert stretches, and fighting through mountain wildernesses Mr. Wright steeped himself in the wild and beautiful spirit, e periencing thrilling changes of sunlight and storm, and the successive mirrorings of the season. He camped for weeks in the very Canada del Oro (Canyon of Gold) where unfolds the magic story he tells of manhood and womanhood.

He curiously investigated the legends of the territory, the stories of adventure and daring and wealth so easily found; the stories of men from all lands baffled in their quest of "the mine with the iron door," which, legend has it, was buried beneath a great avalanche from a mountain side.

Make Rain From Fog In Hong Kong Climate; Experiments Made

HONG KONG.—Attempts to change Hong Kong's too dry climate are being made by a British university professor here, who is experimenting with a method of producing rain from fog.

The island on which Hong Kong stands is trouble with very heavy fogs at certain periods of the year, and the professor hopes, by means of electrical currents, to change these fogs to rain.

The Hong Kong government has voted the professor $2,500 in order to enable him to carry on his experiments.

Rumania has withdrawn government support of its railways, but an increase of 30 per cent in freight rates is expected to make them self-sustaining.

60 YEARS ROYAL BARBER, HE STILL PLIES SCISSORS ON KING'S WHISKERS

SNETTISHAM, England—The publicity that has befallen the Sandringham estates and vicinity since the death of Queen Alexandra, has resulted in the discovery of the oldest hairdresser in England.

He is Charles Howlett, the 85-year-old royal barber, who for nearly 60 years has been shaving and cutting the hair and beards of practically every male member of the British royal family.

Four days a week he shaves and cuts hair for the local cowmen and farm hands. The other two working days he harnesses up his rickety old pon yand buggy and drives over to cut the hair of the members of the the Sandringham estate to shave and royal family who may be in residence.

Howlett was appointed royal barber in 1868, and ever since then he has plied his queerly mixed trade of attending to hte tonsorial requirements of kings, princes and cowmen.

On November 10, 1885, he gave the present King George of England his first shave, and also cut his hair. Four years later King George began to grow a beard, and Howlett also was the first man to trim this.

Since then many kings and princes have sat under the scissors or razor of this venerable barber, among them being the King of Norway, the late Duke of Clarence, the late Prince John, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, Prince Henry, Prince George, the late Duke of Teck, and the Crown Prince of Norway.

No Strikes In Britain When Coal Doles End; Strikes on Horizon

LONDON.—After the most thorough inquiries in the industrial districts of Lancashire, Glasgow, South Wales, Newcastle, the manufacturing districts of Yorkshire and the Midland manufacturing belt of England, it is shown no serious trouble need be feared from the "Reds" if the industrial volcano explodes when the coal subsidies end in May.

There seems no doubt, according to government reports, that Communist agents have been planted in the postal services and in numbers of big engineering and industrial concerns. As a result of their efforts, there may be a number of coal strikes and disturbances. But nothing in the nature of a general uprising, anything to upset the orderly routine of the country, is to be feared, and the opinion is expressed that the police may be trusted to deal with any local happenings that arise.

WAR VETERANS GAIN GRIP ON FEDERAL REINS

History Repeating as Ex-soldiers Get Government Posts.

IN CONGRESS, TOO

Six Former Service Men in Senatorial Bloc.

WASHINGTON — History appears about to repeat itself again.

The slow evolution of political wheels in many states is bringing more and more veterans of the World war into positions of authority and responsibility in the affairs of national government, and the question is beginning to be asked whether American politics is not headed for a period of veteran domination such as the G. A. R. exercised for so many years after the close of the Civil war.

The long reign of the G. A. R. in national politics is so recently ended as to be fresh in the minds of politicians. It has only been in the last few years that stump speakers have considered it safe to orate without throwing a few bouquets in the direction of the G. A. R. No politician's speech in the halcyon 'eighties and 'nineties was complete without it.

Civil War Vets in Congress.

The inexorable march of time has now relegated the G. A. R. to the political background. It is true there are still one Union veteran and one Confederate veteran in congress, but elsewhere in the government they have long since passed.

Their places are now being taken by the veterans of the great war. For the first few years immediately following 1918 veterans in congress were comparatively very rare, and confined principally to those members who were sitting when war was declared, and entered the army "on leave" from congress.

But more and more have come each year until today, in the new sixty-ninth congress, there are 53 members who saw service in the American armies, and a good many of this number served overseas with combat units. They comprise about 15 per cent of the total membership of the present congress.

New Veterans' Bloc.

This veterans' bloc has emerged in the comparatively short space of seven years. Most of those now here appear to be here to stay, insuring that before many years pass they will have chairmanships, leaderships and other positions of authority. If a commensurate pace is kept up, it will not be many years before congress will be largely influenced, if not dominated, by men who served their country in 1917-18.

The senatorial veterans' bloc is composed of six members—Means, of Colorado; Bingham, of Connecticut; Robinson, of Indiana; Brookhart, of Iowa; Reed, of Pennsylvania, and Tyson, of Tennessee. All except Tyson are Republicans.

None of them had "cushy" of swivel-chair jobs, and all except Brookhart were overseas with combat units, saw fire, and risked their lives. It is one of Brookhart's greatest regrets that he did not get to France. It is not generally known that the insurgent Iowan is one of the greatest rifle and small arms authorities in the country. He was kept in the United States as chief instructor of marksmanship at Camp Perry, O., and Camp Benning, Georgia.

Other Soldiers.

As for the others, Senator Means commanded the famous Fourth infantry (regular army) in the Meuse-Argonne offensive; Senator Bingham was an active flyer, commanding the flying school at Issoudon, where hundreds of American pilots received their training in France; Senator Robinson was a captain and major with the 39th infantry, Fourth division, which saw rough work in several hard sectors; Senator Reed commanded a battalion of the 311th field artillery, 79th division; and Senator Tyson was a brigade commander in 30th division, which made considerable history by breaking the Hindenburg line.

It is worthy of note that they do not see eye-to-eye on legislation.

On the world court question, for example, they were badly divided. Reed, Tyson, Means and Bingham voted for the court; Robinson and Brookhart were vehemently opposed to it.

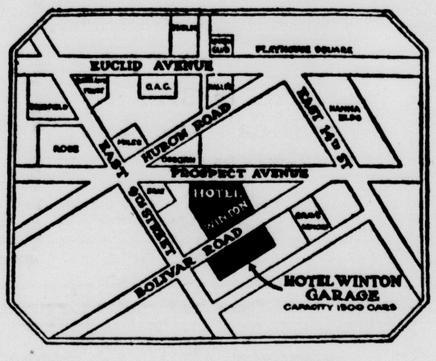

Over on the house side there are 47 veterans of varying degrees of service. Some of them were wounded and thus are in a position to sympathize with the disabled veterans in their appeals to congress.

Last year China shipped nearly 100,000,000 pounds of peanuts to this country, which is its largest customer despite our heavy production of the circus menu favorite.

Beggars recently arrested in Melbourne were found to be landlords.

More than 20,000,000 watches were made in Switzerland last year.

WHY HERBERT SPENCER AND I ARE SO DIFFERENT!

Along in the latter part of Herbert Spencer's life, he developed a most irascible temper! To contradict him in even the smallest particular was to call down a veritable holacaust of vitrolic seasoned anethema on the poor fish who differed with him! In other words, Herb got hard!"

Finall his outbursts got so violet they impaired his health and doctors finally told him that if he had another rare up, it would brobably be fatal! This so frightened Herbert that he bought himself two sound-tight EAR MUFFS so that when anyone started to differ, why, Herb just clapped on his ear-muffs and REMAINED CALM!!! He couldn't HEAR, WOULDN'T hear either ADVICE or CRITICISM!!

And THAT'S why Herbert Spencer and I are so different! For I certainly listen to advice, TAKE it and I INVITE criticism and am guided by it—ESPECIALLY if it comes from you customers on the CONDUCT OF THIS STORE!

State Will Close Options On Site For Guilford Park

Highway Department Representatives are Expected to Visit Lisbon During Coming Week.

Representatives of the state highway department, Columbus, are expected to visit Lisbon within the next week to close options for the lands which will be included in the proposed state park at Guilford, Hanover township.

More than 500 acres of ground in the Guilford dam district are to be utilized, the legislature having appropriated approximately $30,000 for the property. The bill providing for the establishment of the park was sponsored by State Representative Ralph W. Emmens, of East Rochester.

Plans for daming the Big Sandy and Beaver canal, in which the fish hatchery will be established, have been prepared by County Surveyor Kirk and forwarded to Columbus for approval. The dam will be closed and the spillway probably constructed during the coming summer. It will require approximately a year for the dam to fill.

Construction of a 50-foot drive way around the lake is also proposed. The county commissioners will build a macadam road from the end of the bricked highway at the county home to Guilford, thence to New Garden, where the Hanover-Salem road will be tapped. This will provide a road to the park from the north and south county districts.

Corrine Griffith Stars in "Declasse" At the American

Those who see Corinne Griffith in "Declasse," which began a three-day run at the American theatre today, will agree that she has done the best work of her career in this screen adaptation of the famous stage play by Zoe Akins.

The enthusiasm which marked the initial showing of this First National picture was unusual. Robert Vignola, who directed the production, deserves special mention for the excellence of his work.

Miss Griffith was surrounded by a cast whose names were nearly all familiar to the audience. It included Lloyd Hughes, Hedda Hopper, Rockliffe Fellowes, Louise Fazenda, Lilyan Tashman, Clive Brook, Joan Standing, Eddie Lyons, Mario Carillo and others. The adaptation was by Bradley King and Charles Whitaker.

The story deals with the unhappy marriage of Lady Helen Haden, played by Miss Griffith, and her love for an American, Ned Thayer, who has allowed himself to fall into the clutches of an adventuress. His reformation and her future happiness form the basis of an exciting and entertaining story.

"Declasse," as a stage play, was made famous by Ethel Barrymore.

GLOBE IS MORE THAN BILLION YEARS OF AGE

Crumbling of Uranium in Black Hills in Proof.

SCIENTIST SAYS

Important Discoveries May Come From Radio Activity.

PASADENA, Cal.—This whirling globe called the world is more than one billion, five hundred millions years old!

That was the opinion expressed by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, world famous scientist of the California Institute of Technology, who won the Nobel prize for his research work on the atom and which recently announced discoveries regarding new cosmic rays created a sensation among scientists.

"Disintegration of the element uranium in the Black Hills, South Dakota, proves that the world is at least 1,518,000 years old and how much older no man may even conjecture," Dr. Millikan declared.

Uranium has been found disintegrating into lead, the scientist said. Experiments with uranium made recently, he said, show the rate at which uranium is turned into lead and from this basis the world's age has been determined. The figures of the scientists, however, do not include the period when the world may have been a whirling ball of fire upon which no life or solid matter existed.

Dr. Millikan declared that like uranium, the other 89 elements are probably in constant change and that many are know certainly to be. Evolution, he said, is a constantly present fact in life and there is no element, it is probable, which is not changing in some degree.

Advancement to be made in this world in the next 200 or 300 years will depend largely on the work on scientific men, Dr. Millikan declared.

Highly sensational and important discoveries may come from investigation of radio activity of all the elements.

He mentioned recently he was working with an instrument on Mount Wilson, near here. The instrument was made of copper and zinc. After long use the instrument was cut off from light, but it still recorded light, seemingly indicating that common metals are throwing off radio emanations.

EVE'S TWO LOVERS

By EDGAR POE NORRIS

WHAT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE

Eve MacLURIE, young, beautiful, passionately satisfied with life, private secretary to JOHN INGATE, third of that name to be president of John Ingate's Sons, Inc., wholesale leather merchants, reckoned at thirty to be a "woman hater," loves, and is loved by, both her employer and

CLAY WALES, one of his employes. When John Ingate proposes marriage to Eve, in the face of the opposition of his mother and sister, she confesses her love, but rejects him in favor of Clay, a youth weak and irresponsible, because she believes Clay needs her more. John Ingate cannot understand ser choice, between dominance and domination, weakness and strength. He does not realize that it is weak men who make the greatest appeal to a woman's sympathy and heart. He is heartbroken, but nevertheless accepts the situation, and privately counsels Clay to straighten up and make himself worthy of Eve. He also promotes Clay to an assistant managership, although Clay is plainly antagonistic.

On the eve of their wedding day, after Eve has had moments of doubt over the wisdom of her choice, she and Clay have a hot disagreement over whether she shall continue to work as John Ingate's private secretary. Clay, knowing of his employer's love for Eve, jealously fears him.

Now go on with the story.

SEVEN.

The razor sawed through a patch of tough beard, struck an uneven spot and sliced off an infinitesimal strip of epidermis.

"Damn!"

John Ingate had cut himself. He always cut himself at this particular abrasion on his chin when he was agitated.

Blood began to color the wound. He daubed hot water on the spot and felt around in the medicine case for the bit of styptic pencil he knew was there. It appeared after he had peevishly drug out the can of salts, bottle of witch hazel, jar of dental floss, bottle of mouth-rinse and the never used safety razor case.

The stuff caused his chin to sting. "Damn!" He hesitated about using the blade on the tuft of beard which hung over the spot, but finally essayed it.

John Ingate did all of these things subsconsciously. His body was in his private bathroom next to his bedchamber on the second floor of the Ingate mansion on High street, but his mind was elsewhere.

He was remembering that this was Eve MacLurie's wedding day. . . . . His heart ached at the thought. Why should she throw herself away on that fellow Wales? How could she prefer Wales to himself? Did Clay Wales possess some quality, some passionate point of nature, that she did not think was in the Ingate's makeup? The razor hung in mid-air as he critically studied himself in the mirror. . . . .

He would have to go to the wedding, of course. Where was it? What time? He would have to telephone her. He must get flowers. And some sort of gift. It must, he decided, be something useful to Eve alone. But what? He must ask his mother.

John Ingate ate his grapefruit, his cereal, his grilled bacon and boiled eggs mechanically. His morning paper lay before him unscanned. He stared at his eggcup unconscious of the presence of his mother and sister until the former spoke: "Aren't you feeling well, John?"

He shook his head indifferently. "No. I'm all right."

"I suppose it's love," Josephine laughed to her mother.

John Ingate looked up frowning and the veins in his neck stuck out, rigid-like, as they usually did when he was angry. However, he did not respond.

"I suppose we must have her up to tea some afternoon soon and find out what she intends wearing to the ball," Mrs. Ingate remarked without humor. "We can't have her coming here looking like a fright." She started as her son slammed down his serviette.

"You need not worry about that, you two. Miss MacLurie is going to be married today." A sharp pang of pain ran through his heart as the women stared at him.

"She is going to marry a damned whelp named Clay Wales who isn't good enough for her to wipe her feet on."

He got up and swiftly left the table, leaving them still staring. But as they heard the outer portal slam, and an automobile engine whir on the driveway, they turned to look at each other, and their expressions changed slowly into a smile.

The drive to lower River street eased his mind, compelling him as it did to devote his attention to keeping out of smashups. Traffic on Washington street hill and West Main street in Central City at 8 o'clock in the morning was a trial to even the most experienced motor car driver. When he had parked his car in the alley by the warehouse and walked to the office entrance, he had his usual cheerful smile for the truckman lounging there, waiting for their loads.

John Ingate was as popular as the ordinary employer with his employes. There were not so many as to make it inconvenient for him to know them all personally, and he prided himself on the fact that in John Ingate's Sons, Inc., any employe from office boy up could approach the president personally with compliments and problems. Sometimes it was boresome, always it was tedious, to hold "court," but he would not think of abandoning the tradition.

When he opened the door of his private office, he was surprised to see Eve MacLurie bending over his desk, rearranging papers. "Why—."

"Good morning, Mr Ingate."

"I—I didn't expect you. This is your—."

"Oh, there were some things I left undone yesterday. And I had nothing to do this morning, and—."

He hung up his hat and sat down slowly. "The you're all ready to—."

She nodded with a quaint little smile, and went on with the papers to avoid looking at him.

"I say, what time is it going to be?"

"Two o'clock at the Brick church. We'll be leaving for Chicago at six."

"I suppose you're going to wear a veil and all that. Bridesmaids and—."

"No. It's to be very simple. I'll just wear my traveling suit. My cousin, Madeline Overstreet, will be the bridesmaid. I think Clay is counting on you to be best man."

Something in John Ingate rebelled at the thought of Eve MacLurie being married in any such fashion. She deserved a beflowered church, an organ thundering out Mendelssohn's Spring Song, Rubenstein's Melody in F, the Chopin waltz in A flat, Opus 69, No. 1, Elgar's Salut d'Amour—and of course, the Wedding March; silk hatted ushers; a troop of bridesmaids; perfume, pews full of staring, whispering women and bored, puzzled incredulous men; angel-voiced choir boys; a solemn minister. Weddings are for brides. There are but three climaxes in a woman's life—her own wedding, the birth of her first baby, the first time one of her children marries.

"I'll tell you," he said impulsively, "you let me arrange things."

A wild thought formed in his head: Why not set the stage, then take her for himself? She loved him, she had admitted that. . . . .

Faintly, from a block away, in Main street, there came to the ears of both of them the sound of tolling bells. It was a funeral, probably, but to John Ingate they were wedding bells.

In the next installment: Clay Wales Makes a Mess of Things.

DOCTOR ON SHIP USES KITCHEN KNIFE TO REMOVE MAN'S APPENDIX

BOSTON — In order that he might get to London and there complete his training in the field of medicine and surgery at the Middlesex hospital, Dr. Walter Bremmer sailed on the Commonwealth-Dominion liner Port Bowen.

The cruise gave him practical education, more practical, perhaps, than he might acquire under the capable tutelage of Sir John Hart, the king's physician.

A few days out of Auckland, William Torrington, member of the crew on the Port Bowen, was stricken with appendicitis. Dr. Bremmer treated him medically, but when the trouble became acute it was apparent an operation would be necessary.

Dr. Bremmer had few surgical instruments with him. But he did have resourcefulness. So he had some of the kitchen knives sharpened and sterilized.

He had a table in the ship's dining room cleared and with chloroform for an anaesthetic he set about his task.

Among the passengers were Miss Alison Barnett and Miss Eugenie Juroulhiac, trained nurses of Boston.

They assisted Chief Steward Charles Edwards in applying the anaesthetic. First Officer J. S. Hooker, who had sharpened and sterilized the kitchen knives, acted in the capacity of instrument assistant.

The operation was performed successfully by Dr. Bremmer, who then nursed his patient back to perfect health.

When the ship returned to Boston, exactly three weeks after the operation was performed, Torrington was attending his duties about the ship's kitchen.

People of this country ate nearly 800,000,000 pounds of peanuts last year.

CORRINE GRIFFITH BEHEADED—IN FILM

Shrewd producers! They saved Corrine Griffith to the last. Then they beheaded her. On the last day and the last hour of work on her latest First National picture, "Declasse," now playing at the American theatre, they laid the beautiful star's head on the block and—swish! But by "swish" is meant "cut," and by "cut" is meant merely the technical cut, denoting that the scene ended in a "fade out" before the blade had touched the milk-white neck of the screen heroine.

The scene occurs in a "retrospect," fading in while Miss Griffith as the heroine of "Declasse" looks upon an ancestral portrait and recalls what happened to one of the heroine's forbears who upheld the family motto, "Death before dishonor." Miss Griffith herself apears in this "retrospect" the ancestral martyr.

Floyd Hughes, Clive Brook and Louise Fazenda head the big supporting cast in "Declasse." The picture was adapted from Ethel Barymore's stage success of the same title and hinges on a scandal in London society.

She Could Never Have Done It With Piles!

Bless the American girl who has glorified all the sports! She makes a pretty picture in the water, and is a plucky swimmer, too. Piles are unthinkable for active women. If you have them, you ought to know this simple thing to do!

At any hour or moment that you have the least distress or discomfort from piles, use a simple Pyramid pile suppository—and go happily on your way! The worst hemorrhoids, even bleeding and badly protruding piles respond at once to the soothing suppository applied in perfect privacy. But bear the name in mind; Pyramid is the one every druggist has, usually the only one he will sell his patrons. Pyramid is marvelous. Why suffer another single half-hour with painful piles?

Sixty cents the box, the world around. But for proof, a free box plainly wrapped will be sent those who write Pyramid Drug Co., 200 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

This great advantage

The greatest simplicity ever attained in automobile power-plant design is inherently a part of the powerful sleeve-valve motor of the Willys-Knight Great Six. In each cylinder are two metal sleeves, gliding smoothly up and down, one within the other—working silently, wearlessly, in a constant film of oil—and that is all. 65 to 118 fewer parts—no carbon troubles . . .

Contrast this with the perpetual pounding of metal upon metal in the poppet-valve motor—the coil and recoil of 12 separate springs 1100 times a minute—burned valves, pitted valve seats—all the valve grinding—the endless adjustments—periodic carbon-cleaning. These causes that inevitably weaken and eventually destroy the finest of poppet-valve motors are entirely absent in the Willys-Knight engine—"an engine you'll never wear out."

WIFE DIES; MARRIES MOTHER-IN-LAW; FAMILY NOW IN AN AWFUL MUDDLE

NEW CASTLE, Ind.—There was a wedding the other day at the home of eight-year-old Flora Elibazeth Osborne.

"And now," she ruefully said, "I got more relatives than Rockefeller got dimes. Ain't I even my own aunt!"

It all started when Flora's mother died a year ago and her grandmother—her father's mother-in-law—Mrs. Cora McNulty, came to take care of the house.

The other day Flora's father, Horace Osborne, 32, married 54-year-old Mrs. McNulty. Now the family lineup, so far as has been figured out to date stands like this:

Osborne, having married his mother-in-law, is now his own father-in-law; he's his own brother-in-law; and he's also his own daughter's grandfather.

The new Mrs. Osborne, by virtue of her marriage to her son-in-law, is now her own daughter-in-law; she's her grand-daughter's stepmother, not to meention being her own sister-inlaw.

But little Flora insists she's in the worst muddle, because she's now her grandmother's stepdaughter; she's her own father's grand-daughter; she's a half-sister to her dead mother; she's her father's sister-in-law, also her grandmother's sister-in-law. All of which makes Flora her own aunt.

Jennie Hamilton Names City and Traction Company in Action.

The city of East Liverpool and the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company were today named in two actions filed in common pleas court by Attorney Ben L. Bennett, of East Liverpool, in behalf of Jennie Hamilton, who seeks $30,000 damages, $15,000 from each defendants.

The plaintiff alleges that she was a passenger on a Beaver-East Liverpool interurban car on September 30, 1924, and that when she alighted at the East Liverpool waiting station, she fell to the pavement because of a depression in the street, and was severely injured. She claims she was confined to her home for three months, and that because of the fall she is still lame, sick and sore, and that her knee joint is stiff.

Negligence in permitting the depression in the street to remain is the cause of the action.

No more RHEUMATISM

IT'S GONE! That awful agony! Rheumatism can't stand the rich, red blood that S. S. S. helps Nature build.

But rheumatism will bring pain and misery to your joints and muscles just as long as you are without plenty of rich, red blood in your system.

It's the red-blood-cells that S. S. S. helps Nature build that drive out of your system the impurities that cause rheumatism. And until you do build up your blood to where it is pure and rich and red, you simply can't get rid of rheumatism.

And S. S. S. is the thing. Red blood conquers rheumatism. Everybody knows that.

S. S. S. means millions of red-blood-cells—means health all over. No more rheumatism. Nights of rest—days of joy, filled with the happiness of accomplishment — made possible by a body brimful of red blooded life, energy and vitality.

That's what the end of rheumatism means—that's what S. S. S. brings to you. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. The larger bottle is more economical.

PROSPERITY IS BROUGHT TO IDAHO BY KING POTATO

Farmers Clear Off Their Mortgages, Buy Additional Land, and Even Purchase Banks With Profits.

Boise, Idaho.—There's a new king in the agricultural field. King Potato of Idaho has taken his place alongside King Cotton of the South, King Corn of the Middle West, King Wheat of the Dakotas and King Oil of the Southwest.

Idaho never dreamed that such prosperity could come out of a potato patch. On all sides the praises of the tuber are being sung.

In the words of the United States Department of Agriculture, "Potatoes proved to be the mortgage lifters this year." Hundreds of Idaho farmers made enough money in their potato patches this year not only to clear off the mortgage but also to buy the entire farm. In fact, many renter farmers, after paying the landlords their share of the crop, bought the farms they had been renting and had enough cash left to stock the farms.

In the Upper Snake River valley potatoes are being used as legal tender, according to the Idaho Falls Daily Post. Any business house will accept the potatoes at the rate of $3.50 a sack. And around that section the farmers produced an average of 300 sacks to the acre.

The Twin City Daily Times prints a story of a farmer near that town who owed $8,000 to a bank and was unable to pay it. He had 100 acres planted to potatoes. He begged so hard that the bank renewed his loan until after potato-digging time. After his potatoes were marketed the farmer paid his $8,000 loan at the bank, cleaned up all his other debts and then bought the bank.

George Irle of Buhl planted 50 acres of potatoes. He harvested 17,500 sacks and sold them for $39,375.

James Keel of Twin Falls last spring bought 160 acres of land for $16,000. He put in 40 acres of potatoes and at harvest time dug enough potatoes to pay for the entire farm and had enough left to buy another farm of the same size.

Carlt John of Idaho Falls put in 45 acres of potatoes and sold them for $25,000. Major Moore of Ontario planted one and three-fourths acres and reaped $1,069.70.

Near St. Anthony a newcomer, who didn't believe in potatoes, bought 80 acres of land for $6,000. Neighbors induced him to put in potatoes, but he would only plant them in ten acres. The ten acres netted him enough to pay for the entire farm with enough over to build a house.

Find Tomb of Aztec Emperor Cortez Hanged

Mexico City.—Word from the state of Chiapas, southern Mexico, says the tomb of Cuauhtemoc, the last emperor of Mexico, has been discovered in the mountains, where the memory of the heroic Aztec still is revered. According to the story, the guarding of the tomb has been handed down from generation to generation.

Cuauhtemoc in the summer of 1521 defended Tenochitlan, the ancient capital of Mexico, now the City of Mexico, three months against the attacks of Spanish cavalry, armored infantry and artillery, until the city was battered down and thrown into the ditches to make maneuvering ground for the Spanish cavalry. Even after the fall of the city the Aztecs looked hopefully to Cuauhtemoc for the restoration of native rule, so when Cortez went south in search of new lands to conquer he took Cuauhtemoc with him, fearing to leave him behind.

In the state of Chiapas Cortez accused the Aztec monarch of conspiracy, court-martialed and hanged him to a great cottonwood tree.

Aaron Burr's Well at Base of Skyscraper

New York.—Laborers tearing down the building at 2 Lafayette street, where the 24-story Court Square building will be erected, discovered an enormous well half filled with water near the Duane street side of the plot.

It was a rusty echo of a day when New York city's population was 56,000, when Aaron Burr was as notable a citizen as James J. Walker is today, and when 2 Lafayette street was regarded as far away as Harlem is today. The well was a part of New York city's first water system, built in 1799 by a company, of which Aaron Burr was a leading member.

The pumping engine, enormous and covered with rust, was also found and may be had by anyone proving a legitimate desire for a pumping engine, enormous and covered with rust.

Asks Divorce After He Puts Dead Wife in Well

New Philadelphia, Ohio.—Harvey Haver, forty years old, mail carrier of New Comerstown, near here, filed suit for divorce from his wife, Katherine, six weeks after he said he cut her body down from the rafters of their home and stuffed it into an abandoned well. Two weeks later, he said, he paid a premium on her life insurance.

Haver said he took all the steps he outlined because he was fearful he would be blamed for his wife's death and wanted to fortify the impression she deserted him. Haver declared he and his wife quarreled December 1 and later he found her body suspended from a chain in the basement. He didn't want the public to know, so placed the body in the well, he told the coroner.

SHELBY JACKSON, GENT OF LEISURE, HAS NEVER WORKED AND NEVER WILL

BOSTON — The Man Without a Country couldn't hold a candle to the Man Who Won't Work.

The aristocrat of leisure is Shelby Jackson, of Memphis, Tenn.; also of Liverpool, Paris, Naples, Pekin, Alexandria and other parts.

Pitched from the deck of the freight steamship Clontarf, with 12,000 bales of cotton from Alexandria, the royal rover spoke as follows:

"I won't work. I never worked. First, I was kicked out of Liverpool. I was put aboard a ship bound for China. I was knocked off at Pekin and I signed up with a ship bound for London.

"Time flies and memory fails me, but I have been in scores of ports and on scores of ships and I have never worked.

"The Clontarf picked me up in Alexandria, Egypt. We had a nice trip over. I wouldn't work but got my three square meals a day. I basked in the sunshine on pretty days and slept in my forecastle hammock when the sea was choppy.

"Well, it's up to me to get another free ride."

The United States government paid Captain Charles A. Crowinshield 60 cents a day for Jackson's fare over.

Balkan States Plan To Sign New Pact Pledging Security

CONSTANTINOPLE — The Balkan states—Greece, Bulgaria, Roumania and Jugo-Slavia—encouraged by Great Britain and other powers, are moving in the direction of a treaty of amity and security.

The conclusion of a pact of this kind would, in the opinion of leading European diplomats, go a long way toward assuring peace in a quarter of the world which has been noted in recent years for international quarrels and general political unrest.

Financial considerations are expected to play an important part in negotiations which are now proceeding quietly, as all of the Balkan countries are in need of money and in return for favors of a financial nature they are to be given to understand that peace is now the European watchword and that they will be expected to observe it.

Jugo-Slavia has already made representations to Greece with a view to bringing the Balkan states into a conference, and it is understood here that a meeting of the Prime Ministers of the Balkans may be held shortly at Constantinople.

A law 1,200 years old which stated that if a man committed a theft, and his wife was present, she should be freed, because "she was bound to obey her superior," was quoted in a recent case in England.

MELLON RIVALS COOLIDGE IN NEWS VALUE

His Name Printed Most Next to That of President.

SAVES STORIES

Cabinet Officer Has Sixty Books of Clippings.

WASHINGTON—From the standpoint of news-value and consequently public interest, the name of Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, and one of the world's most wealthy men, exceeds that of any other national figure, barring possibly the president.

This conclusion may be drawn from information obtained by the International News Service, showing that since March, 1921, when Mellon assumed charge of the nation's finances, his name has appeared in at least 25,000 newspaper and magazine articles.

Although Mellon undoubtedly is the most modest and reiring official in Washington, his "scrap book," compiled at the treasury, contains probably 10,000 clippings. In this collection, which already fills over 60 volumes of 100 pages each, are filed news stories, feature articles and editorials, quoting from or referring to the secretary.

Selected References.

Compilers of the book say it contains about one-third of the articles printed in American journals regarding Secretary Mellon's public work.

The clippings are collected from various sources, occasionally a story being selected by Mellon himself from the scrapbook, which in later years may be the basis for an important chapter in the history of America's post-war reconstruction period.

Not every page of the scrap book is flattering to Mellon. Many clippings of editorials condemning the secretary for his alleged connection with the Aluminum Company of America and its relationship to taxes of that corporation are scattered through the scrap book.

Other papers have taken sides with Senator Couzens, of Michigan, in the attacks he launched against Mellon almost immediately after he became a member of the senate.

But probably the most vicious criticism game from a newspaper in the Middle Western Farm Belt. It was printed soon after the oil scandals rocked the capital. Under the caption, "Mellon Is Next," this editorial said:

"Gradually the axe is approaching the neck of Andrew W. Mellon. He can see the block and smell the blood where fell the illustrious heads of Newberry, Fall, Denby, Daugherty and William J. Burns."

However, quoting from this editorial, an eastern newspaper remarked that the axe, if there was one, never fell, and that Mellon has remained to take a most important part in the country's reconstruction.

One magazine, calling attention to Mellon's tax and financial policies in the government remarked that he is the "greatest secretary of the treasury since Alexander Hamilton."

The power of Mellon's name in newspaper articles was never demonstrated more conclusively than recently when the secretary made a number of references to absence of inflation in the stock market transactions, following this with the prediction that America enjoys the outlook for a prosperous New Year.

Within a short time after the story was published New York stock prices bounded and other important indications of the attitude towards Mellon's views on high finance, were evidenced.

Mellon is seldom disturbed over criticism in the public press. He has, however, on a number of occasions retaliated sharply when the treasury's prohibition, tax or other policies have been attacked.

Under Mellon, the treasury has avoided, as a rule, the issuance of statements having a bearing on stock and bond prices, while the stock markets are in session. Virtually all statements of this character for the press are given out after the markets of the country have closed for the day.

CONGRESS FIGHT LOOMS UP STRONG

The fight for the congressional nomination in the Lawrence, Beaver and Butler district in the May primaries is expected to be one of the most hotly contested in the Keystone state, according to political leaders of the three counties, each of which is likely to have a candidate in the field.

Attorney Louis E. Graham, former district attorney of Beaver county, will probably be a candidate. He finished second in the primary fight two years ago. He will be opposed, it is stated, by Rev. C. G. Jordan, of Lawrence county, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of East Liverpool. Butler is expected to have a candidate.

CHARITY DRIVE PLANNED HERE

Funds Will be Sought in Catholic Diocese.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—The week beginning Sunday, February 28, has been designated by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, D. D., bishop of Cleveland, as "Catholic Charities Corporation Week," during which a membership campaign will be conducted in nearly 100 parishes in Cleveland and its environs. While the primary purpose of the drive will be to secure new members who pay annual dues ranging from $10 to $200, campaign workers will also accept voluntary contributions from those who can not afford to pay a regular annual fee.

This campaign, which is limited to Cuyahoga county, is the first of a series which will cover the entire diocese. The other 13 counties included in the Diocese of Cleveland will be canvassed in succeeding campaigns, which will probably begin early in April, it has been announced from diocesan headquarters in the Guarantee Title building, Cleveland.

With the funds made available through next week's campaign and these that are to follow, the directors of the Catholic Charities Corporation hope to be able to build the second unit of the Parmadale orphanage, which is planned to house the orphan girls of the Diocese. Five hundred orphan boys were moved from their old orphanage to Parmadale last September, but it was impossible to provide new accommodations for the girls, as there were no further funds immediately available. The boys were moved first because their old homes were even worse than those of the girls.

TROLLEY CAR HITS BOULDER

HEAVY DAMAGE TRAILS PATH OF 50-MILE GALE

ONE MAN HURT AS INTERURBAN IS DERAILED BY LANDSLIDE

Three Rocks Freed From Penn Avenue Hill by Rains.

TRACKS BLOCKED

Service is Resumed Three Hours After Crash.

Motorman Clarence L. Allison, 45, of Elm street, was slightly injured, while service over a section of the main line was crippled for nearly three hours as a result of an interurban car crashing into a rock and landslide east of the "Red Steps" on the Pennsylvania avenue tracks of the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company at 5:13 o'clock this morning.

No Passengers on Car.

Conductor Harvey Allison, aged about 45, a brother of the motorman, escaped unhurt.

There were no passengers on the car, known as run No. 2, which was en route from the car barn to the Broadway terminal for the first trip to Beaver.

The car, derailed by the impact, swung over the "dead strip" between the eastbound and westbound tracks, thus blocking the entire right-of-way.

No. 1 interurban run, which left the barn a few minutes ahead of Allison's car, cleared the slide point before three boulders, one of them weighing two tons, loosened by rain and thawing, rolled down the hillside. Two other cars, one on the Grandview and another on the Pleasant Heights division, were also downtown. No Ches-

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 26.—This was the land of wonderful apportunity back in the middle of the last century.

Four local merchants with $75,000 capital planned a great railroad across the continent that has given to them, their descendants and stockholders, hundreds of millions.

From these fields and mountains those that came for gold have taken nearly two thousand million dollars.

GREAT was the City of Sacramento in its beginning, when the gold rush came in. Gen. Sutter's big general store was booming, gold seekers were killing and eating the fifteen thousand cattle and stealing the horses scattered over his 65,000 acres.

Eighteen miles from here in 1848 James Marshall, New England carpenter, working for a sawmill thought the little yellow specks looked like gold. They were gold, and it brought in from all over the world adventurous men and women of courage who laid the foundation of California's greatness.

The morale is not lacking. Marshall who found the gold and Sutter, who owned the 65,000 acres where great dredges are digging up the gold today, both died poor and broken hearted.

THERE are in California better kinds of gold than the yellow metal of the alluvial wash and the hard rock mir—

There is black gold, oil in the ground. For every million dollars worth of her gold, California has twenty billions worth of oil.

There is white gold, the mountain torrents, changed into electric power a mine of wealth inexhaustible as long as the sun lifts the waters of the Pa-

TAX CUT BILL BECOMES LAW WITH COOLIDGE STROKE OF PEN

President Removes 2,350,000 "Little Fellows" From Roll.

EVERYBODY HAPPY

Greatest Slash in Income Taxes Since World War.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—President Coolidge signed the $387,000,000 tax reduction bill shortly after 10 o'clock this morning.

The stroke of his pen automatically removed some 2,350,000 "little fellows" from the tax rolls, and cut approximately in half the taxes upon all other classes of income taxpayers.

A small company witnessed the ceremony of signing, consisting of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, Budget Director Lord, Senator Smoot (R.) of Utah, Senator Simmons (D.) of North Carolina, Representative Green (R.) of Iowa and Representative Garner (D.) of Texas, the pilots of the bill through congress, and Representative Tilson of Connecticut, house Republican floor leader.

Forms Are Mailed.

With the president's signature, the bill automatically became law, and the machinery of the treasury, already set, started whirring to get out the necessary forms and information to the millions of citizens who will make returns between now and March 15, when the first installment of 1925 taxes is due. In some sections collectors of internal revenue have already been supplied with the forms, as it has been apparent for several days that the bill was in its final form. Instructions were telegraphed to the collectors to release the forms today.

The air mail service will be used in some instances to speed the forms and necessary information for the 1925 returns.

The slash in income taxes legalized today is the greatest cut since the war, and will be felt in every line of business and industry in the country.

Bi-Partisan Measure.

Passage of the bill and its acceptance by the president was accomplished in the shortest period in history

He was removed to his home, where Dr. A. J. Michaels reduced the fracture.

ARREST LOOMS IN NESBITT DEATH AT TROY

Officials Promise Developments in Murder of Woman.

NEW EVIDENCE

Victim's Battered Body Was Found in Bathtub.

TROY, Feb. 26.—That the Troy murder mystery is near solution was indicated today when County Prosecutor L. E. Harvey completed arrangements to reconvene the Miami county grand jury so that an immediate indictment could be returned.

"The grand jurors can be brought into session in two hours," Harvey said. "The jury has not been recalled to probe the murder of Mrs. Frances Drake Nesbitt but to be in readiness for an immediate indictment."

The sheriff has notified jurors to be in readiness for duty.

TROY, Feb. 26.—An arrest will be made in the Troy murder mystery before tomorrow morning.

This was the information imparted today by an official who has been closely identified with every phase of the investigation into circumstances surrounding the murder last Friday of Mrs. Frances Drake Nesbitt, 26, Ohio State university co-ed, whose battered body was found in the bathtub of her home here.

No warrant has yet been issued, the officials said.

Husband Assists Police.

New evidence uncovered during the last 24 hours was what caused Coroner Hance to withhold his verdict at the completion of his official inquiry Wednesday, he said.

17 BOY SCOUTS ON MERIT ROLL

Badges Awarded at Court of Honor Meeting.

Merit badges were awarded to 17 Boy Scouts of the East Liverpool district at the recent meeting held by the court of honor.

Two qualified as "Life Scouts." They were Robert and Richard Beatty, twins, sons of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Beatty, Thompson avenue, and members of Troop No. 5, sponsored by the First United Presbyterian church. They received 12 merit badges each, ten being necessary to qualify.

Eight others qualified as "Star Scouts," having secured five or more merits. They are Heber Crawford and Clarence Broomhall, also of Troop No. 5; Samuel Walker and Harry Holtzman, of Troop No. 7, St. Aloysius Catholic church; William Stevenson, Kermit Stevenson and Donald Mylar, Troop No. 6, First Methodist Episcopal church, and Jack Wells, Troop No. 1, of Chester. The seven remaining scouts were given less than five merits.

The highest degree is an "Eagle Scout," which requires 21 merits. Frank Pittenger who recently came to East Liverpool from Pittsburgh, is the only "Eagle Scout" in the district.

The candidates were examined in seven subjects. The court of honor plans monthly meetings.

"OBEY THE LAW, OR YOUR LICENSE WILL BE REVOKED," IS MAYOR BENEDUM'S ULTIMATUM TO 15 EAST LIVERPOOL POOLROOM OPERATORS

"Obey the law, or your license will be revoked" was Mayor Ralph Benedum's ultimatum to approximately 15 East Liverpool poolroom operators, who attended a conference at the city hall this morning.

Pea pool, high pill, poker, blackjack and other games of chance are tabooed, the mayor warned.

Violators' permits will be revoked for a period of two weeks for the first offense, and for the balance of the year, in the event of a second offense.

Service-Safety Director J. W. Moore declared the city is not attempting to impose a hardship upon the pool room owners, but expects to ban gambling. "If you can't stop gambling on the part of your patrons, get out of the business," was Moore's advice to the proprietors.

The conference was called by the mayor, following the receipt of complaints from patrons of the establishments. They claimed to have lost money in gambling games. Three arrests of poolroom operators have been made by the police since the beginning of the year.

Seek Co-operation.

"We have called you men here this morning," said the mayor, "to ask your co-operation in halting gambling in poolrooms. There have been numerous offenses in the past but we are going to forget about the past and start with a clean slate for the future. We are going to put you men on the honor roll and ask that you co-operate with the police in stopping gambling.

"Pea pool will not be tolerated. Neither will the game known as the high pill. Some of you men have been conducting this game, taking a "drag" out of each pot. This game, if worked properly, will net the proprietor $50 an hour, but it must stop.

"We have received some complaints that some of you men are permitting games of poker, blackjack and similar card games in your basements or back rooms, which are not accessible. This will not be allowed.

"You are also warned about permitting loafing about your place—men who will not work and never spend a cent with you. The poolroom loafer must go, or we will jail them. Men under the age of 18 years are not permitted in poolrooms at any time, and this order is to be enforced.

Clean Up Places, Is Advice.

"We want you fellows to make money and plenty of it so long as it was done within the law. Clean up your places and stop the gambling. We will play no favorites; all will be treated alike.

"Our police force is small but we intend to keep a lookout in the future. If we suspect violations and our police cannot catch you, we will hire plainclothes men—some of your trusted patrons—to secure the necessary evidence. If we learn through one of these secret operatives that there is a violation, your licenses will be suspended for two weeks. During that time your tables will be kept dark and you will lose your profits. For a second offense, I will revoke your license for the balance of the year.

"It's now up to you, men, for the future. We expect you to be law-abiding citizens, and if you don't you can expect to be penalized."

"We are not going to let anything which has happened in the past influence us in the future," said Director Moore. "From now on we will trust that no gambling will be permitted in your places. We want your co-operation in bringing about better law observance."

Complaints from Wives.

Chief of Police McDermott declared that the favorite pastime in the poolrooms had been the "high-pill" game.

"Recently complaints have come to be from wives whose husbands have gambled away money with which they intended to pay their gas bill, their grocery bill, or rent in such games as these," said the chief. "One man on his way home after pay day lost his two weeks' wages, we have been told. The poor man who needs his money for his family has been the sufferer."

All but one operator in the city attended the meeting and this one had a valid excuse given the mayor last night.

WHEELING, W. VA., FOLKS SAVE MONEY BY DOING TRADING IN OHIO

WHEELING, W. Va.—Bridgeport, O., just across the Ohio river, is the foil city for Wheelingites who would escape West Virginia taxation.

Thousands of dollars of Wheeling money are deposited in Bridgeport banks. Recent failure of one of the institutions is said to have affected financially quite a number of local citizens and enterprises. The fact that the stockholders in the institution will lose their investments and may be forced to pay in an amount equal to their stock holdings may make the situation more serious.

Scores of Wheeling residents who want to escape high auto license costs in West Virginia seek Ohio licenses under West Virginia addresses, it is stated authoritatively. A license for a Ford costs $4 in Ohio; in West Virginia the charge is $13. The West Virginia rate is higher for other machines.

Bridgeport served for years as a source of Wheeling's booze supply. After West Virginia went dry, the largest bar in the world was established by Samuel Ungerleider, now a member of the New York stock exchange with brokerage offices throughout the Central West, to cater to the Wheeling trade.

Is Green No More

"My experience with your medicine has been wonderful. My stomach and liver trouble of five years standing took a new turn two years ago when I took on an olive green complexion. I spent $1,200 with doctors and specialists only to prove that I was still as green as ever. A friend advised me to take MAYR'S, "One Dose Will Convince," and I am green no more. My stomach and liver trouble has all disappeared." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Jesse D. Holloway and druggists everywhere.

British Organization On Maintenance Has Million Adherents

LONDON—One million adherents have joined its ranks since last fall, claims the O. M. S.—the Organization for the Maintenance of Supplies. The members consist almost equally of men and women, state the organizers—of whom Lord Harding is chief—and they also aver that whole fleets of automobiles have been placed at their complete disposal.

The O. M. S. is the body that aims at keeping the national life of Britain going under normal conditions in the event of a general strike. The leaders say that all their plans are ready and the whole of their services will be offered to the government, and that scores of thousands of able-bodied men have volunteered to act as special constables in order to set the regular police force free for other duties. Another section is ready to assist as transport workers, messengers and clerks.

The organization maintains that it is strictly non-political.

Clearaway Of All Winter Goods Affords Remarkable Buying Opportunities

in British Columbia to get water for their cattle recently started a gold rush. News of the discovery of gold-bearing sands brought a wild scramble for mining licenses.

Happens that way in life quite often, doesn't it? Somebody accidently hits upon an unexpected streak of character or ability in an everyday sort of fellow—helps him discover himself, and others are not long in seeking him out.

The big point in both cases is this: The Gold was there all the time.

No Tracks Will Intersect Midland Road.

The Pennsylvania Public Service Commission has given its approval to a plan whereeby all grade crossings of the new Midland-East Liverpool road in Ohio township and Glasgow borough are to be eliminated.

The cost of the proposed improvement is estimated at $202,016, including $23,280 property damage. Construction work by the Pennsylvania railroad will cost $32,203, while the Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company will expend $31,681. Highway construction work will cost $85,392, while a subway for the street railway roadbed will add $29,459 to the bill.

The highway, improvement of which was started by the Rinehart Brothers, local contractors, last summer, will follow along north of the railroad tracks from Midland to the state line. Contract for the section between the Smiths Ferry railroad station and the new bridge across Beaver creek will be awarded at an early date.

HELP YOURSELF TO HEALTH

W. K. Kellogg

This thing will dull the brightest "star"

YOU probably know this story, or one amazingly like it. It deals with a young man who started out "with everything"—who made brilliant progress for a time—became a "star"—had his little hour . . . and then faded. . . . What vicious thing can so transform a man? Can make a strong heart weak? An energetic body spineless? . . .

Constipation ruins so many promising persons—a dread disease which saps life and strength. The fortunate fact about constipation is that it can be conquered—surely, safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the answer!

As Kellogg's ALL-BRAN journeys through the system, its fiber remains unchanged. Doctors call ALL-BRAN a bulk food. You know the importance of "bulk" in diet. Its delightful nutty flavor makes it good as a cereal. Serve with milk or cream, or with fresh or preserved fruit; sprinkle over other cereals or cook with hot cereals; use in soups or make into the many recipes given on the package. If eaten regularly, ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to bring permanent relief or money refunded. Eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.

Be sure to get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Only ALL-BRAN brings sure results. A part-bran product can, at best, be but partially effective. Kellogg's is the original, genuine 100% ALL-BRAN. Doctors recommend it. All grocers sell it. Leading hotels and restaurants serve it.

Rivalry In The League

Politics is beginning to disturb the league of nations. It shows especially in the present struggle over council membership.

With Germany about to enter the council as the fifth permanent member, with places still reserved for America and Russia, France wants Poland admitted. Poland is France's ally, and would strengthen French influence in the league, which at present is less than British influence. Italy is ready to back France in this move.

If the council is to be increased, Britain would like to get Spain in. That, too, is natural. Spain is closely associated with Britain, and that would help to hold in check France and her friends.

But there are others trying to break into that inner sanctuary of the league. Belgium would like a permanent seat. And Brazil is an active candidate, on the ground that this hemisphere ought to be represented, and she would cheerfully take the place of the United States as long as this country remains out of the league.

If the league council is to be increased at all, North Americans would prefer to see the New World represented by Brazil or Argentina. But why admit any more? The members of the league are all represented now in the assembly. Why create two large bodies? The council is the executive body of the league. If American experience counts for anything, the fewer members in that body, the more efficient it will be.

Hunt Moose to Help Them

Two rescue parties set out last week from Halifax to undo, if possible, some of the damage done by a recent blizzard in that region. Leaders of the two groups were the assistant commissioner of forests and game for Nova Scotia and a member of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. They were equipped with snowshoes and camping outfits and food.

They were hunting for a family of starving moose that had been reported by a train crew as snow-bound and suffering in Stillwater Valley.

The moose had taken shelter in the valley from a bad storm. But when it was over huge snow drifts prevented their getting out or finding food where they were. They had been trapped there for days when their predicament was told to citizens in the nearest town on the railroad.

It is a different sort of moose hunt from those usually undertaken by mankind. And it is likely that none of the humane hunters is thinking at all of future shooting possibilities. Kindness appears to be the whole motive.

Russia Likes Our Products

Here is a compliment from an unexpected source. It comes from the Russian co-operative purchasing organization known as the Central Union of Consumers' societies, which, next to the Soviet government, is the biggest buyer in Russia.

Classifying foreign countries according to the excellence of the goods bought from them, this body places the United States first, with England second and France a distant third. The poorest goods, says the statement, come from Germany, Austria and Cecho-Slovakia.

The sincerity of this testimony speaks for itself, and is supported by the rapidly rising tide of our exports to Russia, in spite of the political difficulties.

If we take it at face value, it means much in the struggle for world markets. Our manufacturers may find a market for their goods as readily as our financiers find one for their money.

Senators And Lords

The United States senate, it appears, is not the only deliberative body in the world which allows unlimited debate. The British house of lords, after which our senate was modeled, goes further.

Some of the peers, finding amusement in the row between Vice President Dawes and the senate, point out that their body has no rules at all, and gets along very well without them. It doesn't even need a quorum to do business, and it faces no demand for reform in its procedure. Any lord may speak at any time on any subject as long as he likes.

"Custom and a sense of propriety govern the proceedings," explains a member. Party leaders ordinarily regulate the debate, but there is nothing to prevent a member from butting in and rampaging around and smashing a program, except "profound respect for the traditions of the chamber."

Our senators are strong for tradition, too; but they seem principally concerned with upholding the tradition that every senator is a law unto himself, with a constitutional right to do as he pleases.

Still, the British house of lords, with all its voluntary orderliness and decorum, is not such a howling success as its members seem to suggest. Orderly debate is an excellent thing—especially for a debating society, which is all the house of lords is. The house of commons has stripped it of power. The senate, with all its confusion, is more powerful than ever.

That gigantic new baking merger announced recently in New York may be a "trust with a soul," as advertised; but governmental action raises serious doubts as to whether it will have a body.

NEW YORK DAYBYDAY

By O. O. McINTYRE

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 26.—Last night I saw an orchid growing for the first time. It bloomed in a Belasco setting against the side of a sturdy and graceful oak. A soft moon dappled a terraced lawn through the lattice-work of palms.

At our feet the Miami river rippled lazily in a mellow sheen. At our back was the Italian villa of B. B. Tatum, a pioneer Floridian, filled with early Florentine treasures. Two years ago the entire neighborhood was a miasmal jungle.

It was a dinner party, and I think all of us were touched by the sheer beauty of the night, but the spell was broken by Frank Shutts, who began an exhaustive and enthusiastic panegyric to the splendor of the backyard sunflower in Aurora, Indiana.

We all came back with a rush to reality. Mr. Tatum has a Chow dog deserving especial notice. He is a Sir Galahad of dogdom. When he comes through a door he turns about and closes it with his paws. He is a red Chow with a tail of snow white curling over his back like a mighty powder puff.

Coming through Miami at midnight—the city sleeps early—was a traffic desolution, and we saw the main section without the jostling throngs. There are many skyscrapers, but mostly there are one and two storied buildings given over to real estate, food and soft drinks. It all looks new and brisk.

Many of the little shops open on the street without doors or windows—showing the faith of Miami in its climate. In one block was a tanned young man, bare-legged to the thighs, in swimming trunks, strolling along, thrumming a ukelele.

Several hotel lobbies jut on the street and are filled with flowers and wicker furniture. Some real estate offices were still open, with their rows of desks and attendants awaiting trade. A man may go out for a midnight walk here and buy a lot on the way.

On the eve of the trek back to the lights o' New York with my Florence Mills complexion, a few sand burrs and a N. S. F. bank account, I am going to say another word for realtors down here. They are targets for comic weeklies, paragraphers and vaudeville gagsters, yet not one of them tried to sell me real estate.

I believe the late William Jennings Bryan endeared himself to the people of Florida as no other American save Flagler. In this connection I wonder if there are monuments to Flagler here. I have failed to see one. Miami at least should have him flung up in heroic bronze in its largest square.

Miami is something like Paris in telephone service. Each is terrible, but Miami congestion is purely physical ond will be remedied. In Paris they just don't give a hoot.

Fate, or whatever you may call it, is always conspiring against the loafer. My efforts at laziness the past few weeks have been punctuated with more requests for work than during the preceding year.

Away from the usual routine one always pictures dire situations. I never left home without feeling after a few weeks that I would return to find my job gone, my hotel burned, the dog poisoned and a flock of deputy sheriffs with a batch of garnishee documents. And then one returns to New York to discover that not even the hotel bellboys know you have been away.

High Spots in the Life of Little Stanley, the Great Explorer— By F. Fox

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

The Bakery Combine.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—"Tall oaks from little acorns grow," runs the old proverb. This might well be paraphrased, "Great corporations from little bakeries grow," as applied to the story of the W. B. Ward baking interests.

The father of W. B. Ward was a baker and young Ward grew up in the bakery business. About 1910 or 1911 the father, Arthur B. Ward, founded the Ward Baking company, and a year or so later W. B. and his brother went into business on their own at Rochester, New York, under the firm name of Ward Brothers. In 1913 they organized the company of Ward and Ward and built a bakery at Buffalo, N. Y. From this modest beginning the Ward influence in the baking industry has grown to such proportions that W. B. Ward is variously known as the "bread king" or "emperor of the bakeries." He is acknowledged as the outstanding figure in the bakery business in the United States.

Young Ward has always had ambitions of succeeding his father as president of the Ward Baking company, but these ambitions were not immediately realized upon the death of his father. However, about the year 1923 he acquired control of that company and was elected to that office. Since that time his acquisition of baking plants throughout the country has been extended at an enormous rate. He is regarded as the controlling influence of what is known as the "Big Three" of the baking world. These are the Ward Baking company, the General Baking company and the Continental Baking Corporation.

The "Big Three" are said to own and operate more bakeries than any other three concerns in the world. They have plants in every large city in the United States as well as a number of the smaller ones. They also operate in Canada. Their daily output is more than 31,000,000 pound-loaves of bread. Statisticians have estimated that in the United States the daily consumption of bread is about one-third of a pound of bread to each person. From this may be realized what a large percentage of the population of the country the Big Three are supplying with the "staff of life."

Bakeries Flourish.

Bread-making in the home has no large place in modern life. The women of today do not have the time to develop to such tasks. The increased scope of women's activities leaves them little time for unnecessary domestic tasks—and by a large majority of city folks such a task would be deemed unnecessary when excellent bread may be purchased at the corner grocery.

The last stand of homemade bread is in the rural districts and in those places south of the Mason and Dixon Line where the people still regard hot bread as a necessity. In rural districts bread is still made by housewives largely for the reason that bakers' bread is not easily available. In the south "cold bread" is likely to be scorned. Down there they do not hold with the northern idea that hot bread is indigestible. In fact, one woman of southern birth stoutly maintained to the time of her death that "cold bread gives me indigestion."

The increased use of baker's bread in the cities, however, has given a tremendous impetus to the industry. Bakeries flourished. Until recently these were mostly local concerns catering to the local market. The sale of their products was necessarily confined to restricted areas, since bread and pies and such things quickly deteriorate and are highly perishable. They must be disposed of immediately or they lose their value. They cannot be shipped to outside markets in the same fashion that other food products may be.

In the last few years though the Ward interests have been increasing to such an extent that there has been much comment on the bread situation both in the public press and in congress. The attention of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission was called to the activities of the Big Three. They started in to see what might be done to prevent further mergers of bakeries.

To Prevent Mergers.

The first legal proceeding against any of the Ward interests was the issuance of a complaint by the Federal Trade Commission against the Continental Baking Corporation charging it with violating Second 7 of the Clayton act. This section specifies that "No corporation shall acquire, directly or indirectly, the whole or any part of the stock or other share capital of two or more corporations engaged in commerce where the effect of such ac-

Intercounty Highway Will be Completed In Next Two Years

Completion of the East Liverpool-Columbus intercounty highway is assured within two years according to information just received by County Surveyor Lloyd C. Kirk, from the state highway department at Columbus.

The first step in this connection was taken when the Columbiana county commissioners started to surface the Wellsville-Salineville road, and the last contract of which will be awarded by the state highway department next month, which will have to do with the surfacing of the half-mile of this road within the corporate limits of Salineville.

Furthering this improvement, Columbiana county has arranged to build west from Salineville toward Mechanicstown, where the Carroll county commissioners have arranged for new construction on this route.

At Columbus this week, the state highway department opened bids for the construction of eight miles of this road in that county, extending westward from Carrollton toward the Tuscarawas county line. The second western gap in this road will be awarded probably in June.

Next year the state highway department and the Carroll county commissioners will concentrate upon the improvement of this road east from Carrollton to the Columbiana county line, and with this stretch of highway finished, there will be another improved highway between East Liverpool, Wellsville, Salineville, Mechanicstown, Carrollton into New Philadelphia, westward from which there is an improved highway into Columbus.

Six bids were opened on this Carroll county job by the state highway department a few days ago, the lowest bid being submitted by Urban Brothers company, of Massillon, which was $139,824.57, or $16,571.09 under the estimate of $156,395.66.

Damage Verdict Returned.

A damage verdict of $1,400 has been returned by a jury in the $25,000 automobile damage case filed in common pleas court November 20, 1924, by Mary M. Callen against Herbert Whitcomb, of Salem. The case was before a jury for two days, the damages being claimed because of an automobile accident in which the plaintiff set up the claim that she was injured as a result of the collision.

Case Dismissed.

The case of the Fruest Freidman company against the Pascola Coal company, which was an appeal action for goods sold and delivered, has been dismissed by Judge Fred H. Wolf in common pleas court at the costs of the defendant.

To File Petition.

In the action pending in common pleas court filed by Park Meek and others against Gibbs & Brown Inc., which was up for hearing Thursday afternoon, leave was granted the defendants to file an amended answer, and the plaintiffs also given leave to file their reply to the answer.

Leave to File Answer.

Leave has been granted the Industrial Commission of Ohio to file its answer in the appeal from the decision of the commission in the case pending against it and filed by Pearl Truxall.

Soviet Red Cross Has Fund For Needy Riffs Located in Tangier

MOSCOW—To help the "refugee Riffs who have gathered in Tangier and the surrounding districts," the central committee of the Red Cross of the Russian Socialist Federal Soviet Republic has appropriated 1,000 roubles. The money will be distributed, according to the committee, "only to those Riffs who are in greatest need."

A report published abroad that emissaries from Abd-el-Krim had come to Moscow seeking support met with no confirmation here.

A Dancer's Death Proves this Beauty Secret

Clear Soap is Necessary for Clear Skin

Stage history reveals the case of a dancer who, seeking fame, painted her body from head to foot.

She paid with her life, for the clogging of her pores halted important body functions.

To have a healthy, colorful, clear skin, you must keep pores cleansed to their very ends.

Because of the marked purity and delicacy of its ingredients, Jap Rose dissolves completely in water and so can enter and thoroughly cleanse the tiniest pores—6,000,000 to the body.

You can tell that it is doing this and that your skin is improving by the pleasant tingle that follows its first use. Ask for this soap.

Know Your Hair--
Before You Have It Waved

You are, naturally, particular as to the treatment your hair receives, and for this reason you will appreciate CIRCULINE, the new Nestle Process which opens a new era in permanent waving. It will interest you to know that I use only Nestle Lanoil machines in my shop, so that I can use this wonderful new process on your hair.

The basis of the Circuline Process is a careful testing of your hair, in the Nestle Laboratories, with the Nestle Metre Scale which will reveal certain qualities of your hair and thus indicate precisely the degree of Circuline required. By this means Circuline can be adapted to each and every individual type of hair, thus assuring you of a perfect wave with the exact amount of curliness you may desire. This, of course, can only be done with this truly scientific process.

It will give me pleasure indeed if you will call so that I may examine your hair and show you samples of the various kinds of waves that can be obtained with it. I shall also be glad to give you any other information you may desire. This will be done cheerfully, without obligation on your part.

If you would like to have your hair tested in the Nestle Laboratories in New York City, bring me a sample of your hair with $1.00 to cover the cost of the test. When you are ready to have your wave, I will deduct the $1.00 from its cost so that the test of your hair will have been made at my expense.

I shall be pleased if I may serve you by giving you a Circuline wave which will delight you, or by rendering any other service you may require.

WELLESLEY COLLEGE GIRLS TO BE GRADED ON "PERSONALITY" BASIS

WELLESLEY, Mass. — Wellesley College girls in the future are to be graded according to personality.

A new Personnel Board at Wellesley will tabulate the girls from year to year to guarantee, as far as possible, that the collegians will find suitable positions when they leave college.

The new Personnel Board is composed of President Pendleton, Professor Wood, director of the Bureau of Occupations, the three college deans, the college physician and the head of the psychology department.

Already the board is preparing material on next year's in-coming class. Miss L. Knapp, dean of freshmen, is in New York conferring with prospective students and obtaining data for the qualification cards set aside for each girl.

Every Wellesley department contributes to the fund of information that Miss Alice Wood, as director of the Personnel Board, and her assistants compile during the four years of each girl's college life.

The object is to rate each girl on her powers of comprehension, initiative, reliability, memory, integrity and other traits. Each girl is graded on the cards as "superior," "average" or lacking in different traits.

Improvement of the Suez-Cairo automobile road is nearing completion.

5,000 WATCH AS MAN DIES FOR BRUTAL ATTACK

Negro Hanged for Mistreating Girl on Lonely Farm.

DELAWARE CRIME

Troops Were Called Out During Trial of Accused.

GEORGETOWN, Del., Feb. 26.—While five thousand men and women stood watch outside the Sussex county jail here this morning, Harry Butler, 21-year-old Negro, was hanged for an attack on Elnera Steinmetz, a 12-year-old girl.

The child was beaten and mistreated by Butler on a lonely farm near Bridgeville Jan. 21.

Fifty persons were admitted to the jail yard to witness the execution.

Farmers and their families from all over Delaware and many from Maryland, New Jersey and Pennsylvania gathered about the jail at dawn.

Fifty in Jail Yard.

The fifty who were admitted inside the enclosure included the jury which convicted Butler, newspapermen and county officials.

Butler was convicted of attacking the girl at his trial here Feb. 8, the jury deliberating only eight minutes. During the trial the courthouse was guarded by state police and 150 members of the National guard equipped with machine guns, rifles, tear-gas bombs and tear-gas syringe guns. The court was surrounded by barbed wire barriers.

A mob surged excitedly about the courthouse the day of the trial and once the guardsmen threw gas bombs to prevent a rush on the courthouse doors.

Phone Wires Down

A section of tin roofing on one of the Cord Tire Corporation's new buildings, upper Chester, was torn loose.

A telephone pole was blown down in the vicinity of the Merrill dam, near Vanport. The pole fell across the trolley wires of The Steubenville, East Liverpool & Beaver Valley Traction company but service was only temporarily delayed.

Toledoan Injured.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 26.—One person was injured and thousands of dollars of property damage was done here early today by a 64-mile-an-hour gale. Twenty-seven street lights were demolished and hundreds of telephone poles and wires were blown down.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—Following a night of high winds, near blizzard conditions prevailed today in Cleveland and northern Ohio.

Heavy snow this morning was being whipped into drifts by a 30-mile an hour wind. During the night the velocity of the gale reached 50 miles an hour.

Much damage was done in the city to trees, power lines, telephone wires and signs.

At the United States coast guard station here today it was stated that a field of ice 15 miles wide, exceptionally thick, had broken loose and was today drifting in a northeastern direction at a rate of two miles an hour.

Power Lines Collapse

ZANESVILLE, Feb. 26.—As a result of the terrific gale which swept Zanesville all last night, the city is strewn today with tree limbs, signs and broken glass. The Brighton district was dark all night because of the collapse of one high tension wire onto another, incidentally causing a spectacular fire by burning a telephone pole, making a torch-like wire. Interurban traffic west was prostrated for part of yesterday because of wire trouble at Pleasant Valley. Two large business display windows were literally blown in by the wind.

Snow Drifts in Elyria.

ELYRIA, Feb. 26.—Much damage to trees was in evidence here today as the result of last night's high wind which also tore down many power lines. It was snowing today and the snow drifting.

MARION, Feb. 26. — Telephones were out of commission in various parts of the city and county today and interurban service was interrupted as the result of a whipping gale from the southwest last night which tore through Marion, leaving in its wake a twisted mass of tree limbs and signs. Tops were blown from automobiles and scores of cars were hurled into ditches by the baby cyclone. No serious damage was reported, however.

L. H. Shipman, counsel for Jacob Nesbitt, husband of the murdered woman was aroused today over statements accredited to him that his client may be arrested.

"I made no such statement," he said. "I was retained by Mr. Nesbitt when it seemed that suspicion might be cast upon him, the fact is the husband is doing everything in his power to assist the officers in solving the murder."

cific and the clouds drop rain on the Great Sierras.

There is the many colored gold that springs from the soil, green crops, golden yellow citrus crops, purple plums, red cherries, waving grain fields.

California's crops are worth every year, more than all the gold that California's hills have yielded in 77 years. Another inexhaustible mine.

Another gold worth more than all the others, without shape, color or weight is human intelligence that develops and gives value to all the rest.

WINDING out of the great dredge, twisting, curling along the ground like a huge serpent goes a big cable big around as your wrist.

Through that cable, from the mountains, invisible, mysterious, comes electric power that runs the giant machine that biting into the earth, takes out 97,000 pounds of rock and sand at a mouthful.

Twenty thousand men with picks and shovels could not do the work of that one machine, and four men run the machine, with plenty of leisure. Men can do anything with gold in sight.

HAS the city of Sacramento lost its energy and settled down to a peaceful sleep now that the gold rush has gone by?

Not exactly. This is a California city. Its population has doubled within seven years. It keeps the old Crocker, Stanford and Huntington houses as local curiosities and memories. Everything else has marched ahead, not keeping pace with the times, but keeping ahead of them.

The Hotel Senator was finished only a few months ago. It has everything that any hotel in New York, Paris or London has, and more.

The Southern Pacific has just built a gigantic new railroad station. Skyscrapers are rising in every direction. The river having once indicated possibilities of a flood, two of the chief steets in the lower part of the city were immediately raised 14 feet into the air. And now with "by passes" and other controls the river is controlled, and once flooded fields are rich farms.

THERE is energy here, and after you have been received by the citizens you realize it. They finish showing you the state capitol, at 1 o'clock in the morning. And all are gathered together again at 8 the same morning for breakfast, with grapefruit, sausages, scrambled eggs, steaks, chops, buckwheat cakes, corn bread and speeches.

No lack of energy here, nor of progress.

SEE this wonderful northern California and southern California.

The Sacramento and San Joaquin, twin rivers of the Great Twin valleys, are already fourth in freight traffic among the rivers of this nation, and the aveage ton value of this river freight is the highest of any river in the world.

And these rivers are as important to the east as though they ran through the heart of New York or Pennsylvania. Flying machines might destroy railroads and bridges, and these California valleys, richest agricultural lands in the world, excelling ancient Egypt or Mesopatamia, would still supply food to the whole nation—shipping by water through the Golden Gate, the Panama Canal, and on north.

This is the land of promise, in accomplishment marvelous already, with the promise not yet one-thousandth part fulfilled.

Car Hits Boulder

ter cars had left the barn, but interurbans coming from Steubenville provided partial service on western end of the main line.

Motorman Stops Car.

Allison's car was only slightly damaged, the front end being torn, thanks to the quick work of the motorman who applied the emergency brakes and stopped within 40 feet as he saw the slide coming.

The car shot past the largest boulder, which was wedged under the rear step, but struck the other rocks, which brought about two truckloads of dirt with them.

The slip occurred at a point about 250 feet west of the Feb. 10 rock slide, in which five persons were injured.

A "ground," which burned out a section of the eastbound trolley wire, followed the slide.

A work crew, under the direction of H. R. Frederick, maintenance of way engineer, and General Superintendent Garry S. Wills, reopened the westbound track at 7:45 o'clock, while five minutes later service was restored on the eastbound track.

Six Anderson Girls Head Keith Bill At Strand Theatre

Six Anderson girls, a group of talented musicians and dancers, head the Keith vaudeville offering, which is being presented to patrons of the Strand theatre during the last half of the present week.

The girls perform with a piano, two violins, cello, flute and clarinet. Two changes of costumes are presented in the act, which scored a hit at the three performances on Thursday.

Elizabeth De Solti and company, a team of performers, appear in a high class singing and dancing attraction. Stone and Leever, comedians, furnish laughs for the entire show. The other act is Kinzo, a Japanese juggler, who showed extraordinary skill.

The screen offering is Ramon Novarro in a naval theme, "The Midshipman." The picture was photographed at the Annapolis Naval academy.

An all-day show, starting at 1:30 p. m., will be presented on Saturday.

ATHLETE FACES HERESY TRIAL BEFORE CHURCH

Case Follows His Erection of Community Hall.

FAVORS CHECKERS

Outlines Defense in Case to be Aired in Palmyra, Ind.

[Editor's Note—W. Clyde Martin, farmer, athlete and former principal of the high school will go on trial tomorrow before the Church of Christ at Palmyra, Ind., a community of 250 souls among the hills in the south part of the state, on charges of heresy growing out of his introduction of athletics into the school and the building at his own expense of a $3,000 community house where, he permitted dramatics and checker playing. His exclusion from the church, in which he has been an active leader, has been demanded by conservative members.

International News Service herewith present an exclusive interview with Prof. Martin in which he outlines the defense he will make in conducting his own case.]

BY MERLIN MOORE TAYLOR
INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE STAFF CORRESPONDENT PALMYRA, Ind., Feb. 26.—"If Jesus Christ were to come to Palmyra and visit Ranger community hall I am sure that he personally would approve of my course."

So Prof. W. Clyde Martin, until recently principal of the high school of this little community, today maintained that his establishment of a center for this and surrounding communities were dramatics, checkers and other recreational activities are permitted, although dancing is barred, is not in conflict with the teachings of the Bible.

Baseball Shocks Conservatives.

Prof. Martin is 40, a native of Palmyra who came back home from Winona Agricultural college, where he was a star athlete, and promptly shocked conservatives of his church and village by organizing baseball and football teams among the pupils of the high school and encouraged such things as roller skating and band practice on Sunday.

Ousted from his job, he promptly built the community hall and as a result he will be tried tomorrow before the Church of Christ on charges of heresy.

"In all communities, particularly rural communities like this, the four things of greatest influence are religion, home life, education and recreation," Prof. Martin continued. "No question is raised by the average person as to the importance of the first three. It is in the field of wholesome, harmless recreation that the church member so often stumbles and falls."

NO MOVIE ROLE FOR COUNTESS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Vera, countess of Cathcart, must have more than publicity to offer if she is going to be accepted by the movie world, it was made evident today when an organization of exhibitors which has 15,000 members went on record as being opposed to her debut in the films.

So far as is known the countess has made no efort to join the Hollywood colony, but the enormous publicity that has come her way caused R. F. Woodhull, president of the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America, to send out word to the producers, through their advertising men's organization, that the exhibitors would resist her entrance into the movies, especially since the prominence given "moral turpitude' and the Earl Carroll wine bathtub party which the countess attended, although she did leave early.

The publicity that followed the countess' attendance at Carroll's party has made her ill, she said, and she is in seclusion at her hotel today.

"Fresh Air" Drive Follows Epidemic On Capitol Hill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—An epidemic of sickness among United States senators today agitated a drive for "fresh air" for the senate.

Without intending any reflection upon their colleagues who fan the chamber with long oratorical desertations, sponsors of the moment believe sunlight and fresh air should be provided for the senate to drive out bacteria and the little bugs which cause grippe, colds and similar illnesses. The epidemic meanwhile has sent nine senators to bed, with three more barely recovered and a score of others suffering from slight colds, though able to attend sessions.

MITCHELL GOES TO PITTSBURGH

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—Ex-Colonel William Mitchell, fiery air critic, was to leave Cleveland today for Pittsburgh, where he is scheduled to fire another salvo tonight at the American air administration.

More than 9,000 persons heard the "flying colonel" at public hall here last night when he drew a dramatic picture of America's "helplessness" if suddenly attacked by a power with a strong air force.

"Cleveland would be reduced to ruins in a few hours," Mitchell said, "if any enemy with a strong air fleet attacked the city. What good would a strong army do the city if you didn't have airplanes to cope with the air attack? Your buildings, railroads, water works and power plants would be bombed and destroyed by the foe."

NO FLOOD STAGE EXPECTED HERE

Although the Ohio river is rising, it will not reach a flood stage, according to word received from Pittsburgh by employes of Dam No. 8, shortly before noon today.

RESUME POISON QUIZ TOMORROW

for a tax bill of similar mangitude. Only 81 days elapsed from the time the committees of congress began consideration of the subject until, in completed form, it was signed in the president's office this morning. It is virtually the only tax bill in history, barring war time, that can be called a bi-partisan measure. Democrats labored with the Republicans in pushing it through in record time.

Seventeen photographers made pictorial history of the event.

Last year approximately 7,600,000 citizens made income tax returns. By the increase in exemptions and the other reduction features of the present bill, treasury officials estimated today the number of returns on March 15 will be around 5,000,000.

The forms should be available to all taxpayers at their collectors' office early next week, according to treasury officials. Dozens of experts have been given temporary assignments to the collectors' office to explain the new bill to taxpayers.

Two Roofs Blown Off, Wiring Down, As Wind Storm Rages Through City

Gale Tears Tin Work From Eagles' Lodge Home in Main Street; Fire Department Called Out as Chimney Topples Over on J. Mettes Home.

At least two roofs were lifted from their moorings, trees uprooted, chimneys blown down, and hundreds of telephone and electric wires snapped off during the heavy windstorm that swirled through the city all last night. Damage, it is estimated, will reach probably several hundred dollars.

Caught in a heavy blast, the tin portion of the roof over the lodge rooms of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, in Main street, between Third and Fourth, was torn loose from its fastenings and lifted over into the street.

A sudden gust pried off the roof of the old grist mill, at Nineteenth and Main streets, now used by the United States Pottery company as a storage house, and carried it over to the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

The top portion of a brick chimney at the J. Mettes residence in Main street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, toppled over shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Smoke filled the house, and, believing that a fire had broken out, the family sent in an alarm.

Wires were torn down throughout the city, including a batch at Twelfth and Center street when the top of a telephone pole snapped off.

Fire alarm system wiring was damaged temporarily, but repairs to the system were completed early this morning by Fire Chief Phillips.

BRIDE WILL NOT LOSE HER NAME

An unusual incident was brought to light in the office of Probate Judge Lodge Riddle when a marriage license was issued to a couple possessing the same name, but not related. This was revealed when Nick Altier, an Italian residing at Dover, O., and Josephine Altier, of Wellsville, were granted a license. They returned to Wellsville where they were to be married.

This is the first time in years, according to the marriage license records, where two people having the same name have been granted a license.

Akron Central Here Tonight In Locals' Final Home Clash

Lorahmen Also Face Stiff Contest With Red and Black Five

To Use Full Strength Against Rubber City Lads or Reserve it for Saturday's Last County Engagement at Salem is Problem Blue and White's Mentor Must Solve.

COACH WILBUR SPRINGER'S Salem high school passers, tramping the boards on the home stretch to the Columbiana scholastic conference court title, unbeaten, unchecked, not even slowed up in their dash to high school laurels for 1926, will face the biggest test of the entire campaign on Saturday when they meet Lorah's East Liverpool five in a return performance on the Salem court.

By virtue of seven victories and no defeats, in fact, not even a close score, the Quaker City outfit leads the pack at the present standing, with East Liverpool right on their heels in second place. Lorah's lads have pulled in five wins and their only defeat came at the hands of the Red and Black.

This Springer's lads accomplished in an early-season engagement by a decisive score, the locals being unable to handle Coffee and his cohorts in that engagement.

The Salem tilt will be East Liverpool's final county clash of the year. The occasion will also mark the end of the season for the local girls' team. Mrs. Mast's lassies have landed one of the year's games and are none too confident of the Salem clash.

With seven victories and two defeats Lisbon is leading the race in the girls' division, with East Palestine second and Salem and Columbiana tied for third.

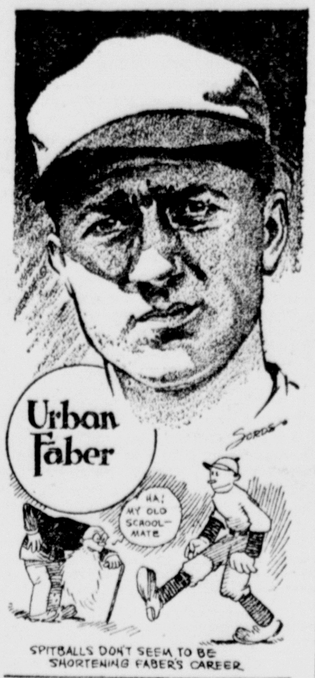

Akron Central passers will mix with the Blue and White tonight in the final scheduled home appearance of the Potters. The Rubber City contingent, victorious over New Philly by a decisive count, will be a tough nut to crack, especially so because it precedes the crucial tilt with Salem.

Whether Coach Lorah will throw his full strength into tonight's clash in an attempt to win or lay off some of his regulars to save them for the Salem game, will not be decided until the two teams line up.

The County Standing:

Boys.	G.	W.	L.
Salem	7	7	0
East Liverpool	5	4	1
East Palestine	8	5	3
Columbiana	7	2	5
Lisbon	9	2	7
Wellsville	6	1	5
Girls.	G.	W.	L.
Lisbon	9	7	2
East Palestine	8	6	2
Columbiana	7	3	4
Salem	7	3	4
Wellsville	6	2	4

SUZANNE READY FOR COMEBACK

By Frederick K. Abbott.

MONTE CARLO, Feb. 26.—Mlle. Lenglen today threatens to stage a come-back.

Suzanne is due to appear here tomorrow in the Beaumont cup doubles, her first appearance since the partial collapse she suffered last Saturday. The French girl is said to be almost completely recovered and somewhat piqued that she is in danger of being displaced as the darling of the Riviera tennis fans by Helen Wills.

The American girl is regarded as the stellar attraction along the Riviera now, for she is confidently believed to be a coming world champion whereas Suzanne is looked upon as a champion liable to make her departure before very long. The crowds that have been attracted by Miss Wills have far exceeded any that ever gathered to see Suzzane.

Reports of this state of affairs have reached Suzanne in her mountain retreat and she is said to be anxious to win back her place, and the best way she knows of winning it back is to administer another and more decisive defeat to Miss Wills. She will have the opportunity to do so at Nice ten days hence, and it now appears that she will seize this opportunity.

Miss Wills is not in the least disturbed today over her defeat in the Beaumont cup doubles yesterday, and she is preparing for a final match with Senorita Alverez of Spain in the Duke of Connaught gold cup, for such a match now seems upon the cards.

The California girl will probably take things easily next week during the Mentone tournament, conserving her strength for the following week when there is a chance of another battle with Suzanne.

Miss Wills will not have a chance to meet the German champion, Frau Neppach, in the present tournament, for Miss Eileen Bennett, of England, eliminated Frau Neppach this morning, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2. Miss Bennett and Miss Wills will meet in the semi-finals this afternoon.

Pirates in First Spring Rehearsal At Training Camp

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, world's champion baseball team, put on their first rehearsal today for the 1926 season.

Manager Bill McKechnie sent the pitchers and catchers of his staff through a stiff workout and promised strenuous drilling for the next two weeks.

Georgia to Try Out New Athletic Stunt, Spring Grid Contest

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.—A new athletic venture in the south—an intercollegiate spring football game—was to be staged here this afternoon between the Georgia Bulldogs and Orglethorpe university of Atlanta.

The teams meet in a benefit performance for Tony Pryse, former star athlete of Georgia, who is in Florida battling for his life against an attack of tuberculosis.

FILES PLEA WITH TENNIS RULERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—With William T. Tilden standing alone in defiance of the United States Lawn Tennis association's edict against the playing of charity matches on Sunday, the sanction committee of the association today will pass upon Miss Anne Morgan's plea for reconsideration. In a letter to President J. W. Mersereau yesterday, Miss Morgan, who is sponsor for the French-American charity, asked that the French players be given the privilege of deciding whether they wish to play.

Ashworth Big Threat Of Stadsvold's Five

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 26.—If Wease Ashworth, forward on the West Virginia quint, is one against Pitt Saturday evening, the Mountaineers will give the Panthers a merry battle at the "Ark." Ashworth has improved until he is West Virginia's biggest offensive threat and if his shot breaks well he will be a thorn in the side of the Panther enemy.

Flowers Has Little Chance of Trimming Middleweight Champ

Greb, Who Has Carried on Through 14 Years of Campaigning, Will Reach the End of His Rope Sooner or Later, But Experts Don't Expect it to Happen Tonight.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Tonight's world's middleweight championship contest at Madison Square Garden will provide a real news story for the writers of sport if Theodore "Tiger" Flowers should happen to beat Harry Greb, the champion, if, however, Greb beats the colored man, the story, of course, will be not so good.

"TIGER" FLOWERS

The "Tiger," according to the consensus of our leading minds, has little chance. A casual few dissenters have contrived to look with some favor upon Flowers, but they have reached this state of mind because they feel that some one is due to "take" Greb somewhere sometimes.

They say a Pittsburgh newspaperman, ready to preside at the journalistic inquest, has followed Greb around for five years. This is a good trick, whether you do it or not. Even the gendarmes have had some trouble in following Harry at times.

Anyhow, the man who has carried on through 14 years of campaigning, will reach the end of his rope sooner or later. It may happen tonight. The writer doesn't think so.

Flowers, with one good eye and one bad jaw, can hardly be viewed as a specimen that is about to beat the champion, even if the latter may be somewhat short of his physical best. Greb has looked a trifle flabby about the abdomen during his workouts here.

Even so, he figures to outstep the Tiger, particularly since the latter is due to start the bout with clear vision in only one eye and finish it with clear vision in neither.

Tiger Improved Battler.

They say he is a much better man than he showed himself to be against McTigue in December and he will need to be. On that occasion, he punched not, neither did he box and the impression he left behind was rather unfavorable to his immediate future. He has spent the interval in repose while Greb was finding out how the tird business man got that way. Harry does his active training under the incandescents.

He is the only specimen ever known to the human race who could live that sort of thing down. Sometime, it will get him. Yet that news scavenger from Pittsburgh continues underfoot and they say he entertains no immediate hope of getting a new assignment. It doesn't seem as though Tiger Flowers can hit hard enough or take them with sufficient serenity or keep stepping with the pace as far as fifteen rounds, the scheduled distance tonight.

The weight doesn't favor Greb, neither does his mode of living. Yet, it is the length of the bout that may help him more than anything else. He usually is too strong for his victims.

The first and only other meeting between the young men occurred in the netherlands of Ohio several years ago. The Tiger got the newspaper decision but the bout only went ten rounds and they say the colored gentleman flopped badly in the last four.

If he does that tonight, they will carry him gently but firmly out.

MUDHENS SET FOR BIG YEAR

Club Strengthened After Purchase From New York Giants.

THE change in ownership, and the signing of Harry "Hi" Myers, former National league star, along with Dewitt Lebourveau, Bud Connolly and John Heving, and the expected addition of other top performers combine to make Toledo American association fans feel that their biggest season in recent years is just around the corner.

Through its purchase from the New York Giants by a syndicate of Toledo business men, the club is now Toledo's own, with Casey Stengel, hero of many a pennant fight with the McGraw team, as pilot.

The signing of Myers this week was the latest move of Stengel to strengthen the outfit.

It is expected that Stengel himself will play in the outer garden lineup to close the gap made when Hack Wilson was drafted by the Chicago Cubs. Dewitt Lebourveau, obtained in trade for Fred Nicholson, will fill another berth and Myers will round out the pasture defense.

Paul Strand, counted on as an outfielder, was sent to Columbus during Myers' visit this week with Stengel, and in return the Toledo club will get a catcher from Hank Gowdy.

Bud Connolly, youthful third sacker, and John Heving, a catcher, were acquired from the Boston Red Sox which sent Alec Gaston back to the majors.

The advance guard of the Mudhens, including pitchers and catchers, is expected to get away for the spring training camp at Jackson, Tenn., early in March and the remainder of the team between March 10 and 15.

Myers, wintering at his home in Kensington, is scheduled to report on Sunday, March 14.

DUQUESNES WIN AT COLUMBIANA

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 26.—Columbiana basketball teams broke even in their games at the C. H. S. gym, the Franklin Furnitures defeating the Hillcrest Juniors of East Youngstown, 19-17, while Miller Bros. lost to the fast Duquesne club of Youngstown, 22-27. Both games were rough and closely contested, it requiring a two-minute extra period to decide the preliminary, a basket by Baker being the deciding touch, after the score was tide at 17 at the end of the regular game. Both teams were badly off in foul shooting.

In the big game, Miller Bros. got off to a fine start, the first quarter ending 7-1, but the Dukes evening the score at the end of the half, which was 10 all, after which they gradually forged ahead and held the lead to the end, although Miller Bros. were always close enough to be dangerous. Both teams missed many shots under the baskets which should have been easy, the guarding being exceptionally close, to that most shots were tossed hurriedly. Kyser played best for Columbiana and made three baskets.

Wittenberg Stopped By Denison Passers

NEWARK, O., Feb. 26.—The Denison basketball team won an erratically played game from Wittenberg at Granville by the score of 38 to 10. Jenkins was easily the star for Denison, scoring ten points in only 15 minutes play.

Colored Teams Battle At Park

Locals in Trim for Game With Rochester Lads.

The Richard Allen Athletic club passers, a local colored organization, are practicing diligently for their contest on Monday night with the Rochester A. C., at Rock Springs park.

The locals are working out daily under the supervision of Coach Ronald "Dunk" Smith, former high school star, and are confident they will take over the Pennsylvanians.

The contest will be preceded by a preliminary between the Chester Merchants and the East Liverpool wholesale produce cagers, starting at 7 o'clock.

Cubs Fifty Percent Better Than at Same Stage Last Season

AVALON, Catalina Islands, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Chicago Cubs look 50 per cent better now than at this time last year.

That was the opinion expressed here today by Ed Smith, noted Chicago sports editor, after watching the Cubs in spring training camp for a week.

Second Detachments Of Yanks and Giants Enroute to Florida

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Second detachments of the Giants and Yankees will leave on the same train tonight for their training camps in Florida. They will not part company until they reach Plant City, Fla., at which point the Yankees will head for St. Petersburg and the Giants for Sarasota.

Seismograph May Predict Quakes 10 Years Ahead

New Machine no Larger Than Telephone to Record Earth's Interior Spasms Far in Advance.

PASADENA, Calif. — Prediction of earthquakes as far as ten years ahead of their occurence will soon be possible.

Startling results being obtained here in investigations with a recently invented seismograph will enable scientists to correctly forecast earth shocks, Dr. John P. Bulwalda of the California Institute of Technology declared.

With Dr. Harry Wood and Dr. J. A. Anderson of Carnegie Institute, inventors of the new seismograph, Dr. Bulwalda, who assisted in perfecting the instrument for recording the earth's shocks, is carrying on investigations which promise accurate advance predictions on earthquakes.

New Seismograph

The new type seismographs have already been installed at the Mount Wilson observatory here and they will soon replace the old style throughout the world, it was stated. The new earth movement recording machine is no larger than an ordinary telephone, in contrast to the old type, which is extremely bulky, weighing more than two tons.

"Many earthquakes are recorded daily although these are so slight to be unnoticed by a majority of people at work in daily occupations," Dr. Bulwalda said. "Very few quakes are destructive.

"The greater portion of quakes occur in volcanic districts, especially along the boundary lines between great elevations and depressions. However, earthquakes are by no means confined to such areas.

"Most of the great earthquakes that have caused a large amount of damage may be traced to faulting rocks. Slow but relentless movements of earth cause huge rock masses to move out of their normal positions.

Fall Back Into Place

"When the stress and strain of added weight becomes too great, they fall back into natural positions, causing a quake.

"The new siismograph just perfected is extremely sensitive. By detecting the earth's movement and calculating the stress the masses will stand it is possible to predict an earthquake within ten or fifteen years of its actual happening.

"Instruments have not yet been devised which are accurate enough to fully carry on this work, but investigations now being carried on at the seismological labratory at the California Institute of Technology and at the Mount Wilson observatory promise to produce extremely startling results."

Dr. Bulwalda stated further there are some earthquakes caused by volcanic explosions and subteranean disturbances which are spontaneous and naturally no preoictions are possible concerning this type of earthquake.

Volcanic Explosions

Disturbances in the United States are not considered of the above type, however.

Persons caught in an earthquake should not flee from the danger zone, Dr. Bulwalda declared. He said they were much more likely to be killed in an automobile acident, while escaping than in the earth disturbance.

Running away from the scene of an earthquake is ten times as dangerous as remaining in the locality, he declared.

Akron Central Here Tonight In Locals' Final Home Clash

Lorahmen Also Face Stiff Contest With Red and Black Five

To Use Full Strength Against Rubber City Lads or Reserve it for Saturday's Last County Engagement at Salem is Problem Blue and White's Mentor Must Solve.

COACH WILBUR SPRINGER'S Salem high school passers, tramping the boards on the home stretch to the Columbiana scholastic conference court title, unbeaten, unchecked, not even slowed up in their dash to high school laurels for 1926, will face the biggest test of the entire campaign on Saturday when they meet Lorah's East Liverpool five in a return performance on the Salem court.

By virtue of seven victories and no defeats, in fact, not even a close score, the Quaker City outfit leads the pack at the present standing, with East Liverpool right on their heels in second place. Lorah's lads have pulled in five wins and their only defeat came at the hands of the Red and Black.

This Springer's lads accomplished in an early season engagement by a decisive score, the locals being unable to handle Coffee and his cohorts in that engagement.

The Salem tilt will be East Liverpool's final county clash of the year. The occasion will also mark the end of the season for the local girls' team. Mrs. Mast's lassies have landed one of the year's games and are none too confident of the Salem clash.

With seven victories and two defeats Lisbon is leading the race in the girls' division, with East Palestine second and Salem and Columbiana tied for third.

Akron Central passers will mix with the Blue and White tonight in the final scheduled home appearance of the Potters. The Rubber City contingent, victorious over New Philly by a decisive count, will be a tough nut to crack, especially so because it precedes the crucial tilt with Salem.

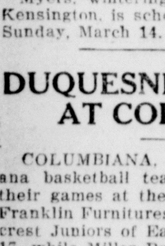

Whether Coach Lorah will throw his full strength into tonight's clash in an attempt to win or lay off some of his regulars to save them for the Salem game, will not be decided until the two teams line up.

The County Standing:

Boys.	G.	W.	L.
Salem	7	7	0
East Liverpool	5	4	1
East Palestine	8	5	3
Columbiana	7	2	5
Lisbon	9	2	7

MUDHENS SET FOR BIG YEAR

Club Strengthened After Purchase From New York Giants.

THE change in ownership, and the signing of Harry "Hi" Myers, former National league star, along with Dewitt Lebourveau, Bud Connolly and John Heving, and the expected addition of other top performers combine to make Toledo American association fans feel that their biggest season in recent years is just around the corner.

Through its purchase from the New York Giants by a syndicate of Toledo business men, the club is now Toledo's own, with Casey Stengel, hero of many a pennant fight with the McGraw team, as pilot.

The signing of Myers this week was the latest move of Stengel to strengthen the outfit.

It is expected that Stengel himself will play in the outer garden lineup to close the gap made when Hack Wilson was drafted by the Chicago Cubs. Dewitt Lebourveau, obtained in trade for Fred Nicholson, will fill another berth and Myers will round out the pasture defense.

Paul Strand, counted on as an outfielder, was sent to Columbus during Myers' visit this week with Stengel, and in return the Toledo club will get a catcher from Hank Gowdy.

Bud Connolly, youthful third sacker, and John Heving, a catcher, were acquired from the Boston Red Sox which sent Alec Gaston back to the majors.

The advance guard of the Mudhens, including pitchers and catchers, is expected to get away for the spring training camp at Jackson, Tenn., early in March and the remainder of the team between March 10 and 15.

Myers, wintering at his home in Kensington, is scheduled to report on Sunday, March 14.

DUQUESNES WIN AT COLUMBIANA

COLUMBIANA, Feb. 26.—Columbiana basketball teams broke even in their games at the C. H. S. gym, the Franklin Furnitures defeating the Hillcrest Juniors of East Youngstown, 19-17, while Miller Bros. lost to the fast Duquesne club of Youngstown, 22-27. Both games were rough and closely contested, it requiring a two-minute extra period to decide the preliminary, a basket by Baker being the deciding touch, after the score was tide at 17 at the end of the regular game. Both teams were badly off in foul shooting.

In the big game, Miller Bros. got off to a fine start, the first quarter ending 7-1, but the Dukes evening the score at the end of the half, which was 10 all, after which they gradually forged ahead and held the lead to the end, although Miller Bros. were always close enough to be dangerous. Both teams missed many shots under the baskets which should have been easy, the guarding being exceptionally close, to that most shots were tossed hurriedly. Kyser played best for Columbiana and made three baskets.

Wittenberg Stopped By Denison Passers

NEWARK, O., Feb. 26.—The Denison basketball team won an erratically played game from Wittenberg at Granville by the score of 38 to 10. Jenkins was easily the star for Denison, scoring ten points in only 15 minutes play.

Colored Teams Battle At Park

Locals in Trim for Game With Rochester Lads.

The Richard Allen Athletic club passers, a local colored organization, are practicing diligently for their contest on Monday night with the Rochester A. C., at Rock Springs park.

The locals are working out daily under the supervision of Coach Ronald "Dunk" Smith, former high school star, and are confident they will take over the Pennsylvanians.

The contest will be preceded by a preliminary between the Chester Merchants and the East Liverpool wholesale produce cagers, starting at 7 o'clock.

Cubs Fifty Percent Better Than at Same Stage Last Season

AVALON, Catalina Islands, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Chicago Cubs look 50 per cent better now than at this time last year.

That was the opinion expressed here today by Ed Smith, noted Chicago sports editor, after watching the Cubs in spring training camp for a week.

Bush and Osborn, pitchers, are ready right now, Smith said, and Grover Alexander is rounding into form rapidly.

SUZANNE READY FOR COMEBACK

By Frederick K. Abbott.

MONTE CARLO, Feb. 26.—Mlle. Lenglen today threatens to stage a come-back.

Suzanne is due to appear here tomorrow in the Beaumont cup doubles, her first appearance since the partial collapse she suffered last Saturday. The French girl is said to be almost completely recovered and somewhat piqued that she is in danger of being displaced as the darling of the Riviera tennis fans by Helen Wills.

The American girl is regarded as the stellar attraction along the Riviera now, for she is confidently believed to be a coming world champion whereas Suzanne is looked upon as a champion liable to make her departure before very long. The crowds that have been attracted by Miss Wills have far exceeded any that ever gathered to see Suzzane.

Reports of this state of affairs have reached Suzanne in her mountain retreat and she is said to be anxious to win back her place, and the best way she knows of winning it back is to administer another and more decisive defeat to Miss Wills. She will have the opportunity to do so at Nice ten days hence, and it now appears that she will seize this opportunity.

Miss Wills is not in the least disturbed today over her defeat in the Beaumont cup doubles yesterday, and she is preparing for a final match with Senorita Alverez of Spain in the Duke of Connaught gold cup, for such a match now seems upon the cards.

The California girl will probably take things easily next week during the Mentone tournament, conserving her strength for the following week when there is a chance of another battle with Suzanne.

Miss Wills will not have a chance to meet the German champion, Frau Neppach, in the present tournament, for Miss Eileen Bennett, of England, eliminated Frau Neppach this morning, 6-2, 2-6, 6-2. Miss Bennett and Miss Wills will meet in the semi-finals this afternoon.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Second detachments of the Giants and Yankees will leave on the same train tonight for their training camps in Florida. They will not part company until they reach Plant City, Fla., at which point the Yankees will head for St. Petersburg and the Giants for Sarasota.

Pirates in First Spring Rehearsal At Training Camp

PASO ROBLES, Cal., Feb. 26.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, world's champion baseball team, put on their first rehearsal today for the 1926 season.

Manager Bill McKechnie sent the pitchers and catchers of his staff through a stiff workout and promised strenuous drilling for the next two weeks.

Georgia to Try Out New Athletic Stunt, Spring Grid Contest

ATHENS, Ga., Feb. 26.—A new athletic venture in the south—an intercollegiate spring football game—was to be staged here this afternoon between the Georgia Bulldogs and Orglethorpe university of Atlanta.

The teams meet in a benefit performance for Tony Pryse, former star athlete of Georgia, who is in Florida battling for his life against an attack of tuberculosis.

FILES PLEA WITH TENNIS RULERS

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—With William T. Tilden standing alone in defiance of the United States Lawn Tennis association's edict against the playing of charity matches on Sunday, the sanction committee of the association today will pass upon Miss Anne Morgan's plea for reconsideration. In a letter to President J. W. Mersereau yesterday, Miss Morgan, who is sponsor for the French-American charity, asked that the French players be given the privilege of deciding whether they wish to play.

Ashworth Big Threat Of Stadsvold's Five

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Feb. 26.—If Wease Ashworth, forward on the West Virginia quint, is one against Pitt Saturday evening, the Mountaineers will give the Panthers a merry battle at the "Ark." Ashworth has improved until he is West Virginia's biggest offensive threat and if his shot breaks well he will be a thorn in the side of the Panther enemy.

Flowers Has Little Chance of Trimming Middleweight Champ

Greb, Who Has Carried on Through 14 Years of Campaigning, Will Reach the End of His Rope Sooner or Later, But Experts Don't Expect it to Happen Tonight.

By DAVIS J. WALSH.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Tonight's world's middleweight championship contest at Madison Square Garden will provide a real news story for the writers of sport if Theodore "Tiger" Flowers should happen to beat Harry Greb, the champion, if, however, Greb beats the colored man, the story, of course, will be not so good.

"TIGER" FLOWERS

The "Tiger," according to the consensus of our leading minds, has little chance. A casual few dissenters have contrived to look with some favor upon Flowers, but they have reached this state of mind because they feel that some one is due to "take" Greb somewhere sometimes.

They say a Pittsburgh newspaperman, ready to preside at the journalistic inquest, has followed Greb around for five years. This is a good trick, whether you do it or not. Even the gendarmes have had some trouble in following Harry at times.

Anyhow, the man who has carried on through 14 years of campaigning, will reach the end of his rope sooner or later. It may happen tonight. The writer doesn't think so.

Flowers, with one good eye and one bad jaw, can hardly be viewed as a specimen that is about to beat the champion, even if the latter may be somewhat short of his physical best. Greb has looked a trifle flabby about the abdomen during his workouts here.

Even so, he figures to outstep the Tiger, particularly since the latter is due to start the bout with clear vision in only one eye and finish it with clear vision in neither.

Tiger Improved Battler.

They say he is a much better man than he showed himself to be against McTigue in December and he will need to be. On that occasion, he punched not, neither did he box and the impression he left behind was rather unfavorable to his immediate future. He has spent the interval in repose while Greb was finding out how the tird business man got that way. Harry does his active training under the incandescents.

He is the only specimen ever known to the human race who could live that sort of thing down. Sometime, it will get him. Yet that news scavenger from Pittsburgh continues underfoot and they say he entertains no immediate hope of getting a new assignment. It doesn't seem as though Tiger Flowers can hit hard enough or take them with sufficient serenity or keep stepping with the pace as far as fifteen rounds, the scheduled distance tonight.

The weight doesn't favor Greb, neither does his mode of living. Yet, it is the length of the bout that may help him more than anything else. He usually is too strong for his victims.

The first and only other meeting between the young men occurred in the netherlands of Ohio several years ago. The Tiger got the newspaper decision but the bout only went ten rounds and they say the colored gentleman flopped badly in the last four.

If he does that tonight, they will carry him gently but firmly out.

Seismograph May Predict Quakes 10 Years Ahead

New Machine no Larger Than Telephone to Record Earth's Interior Spasms Far in Advance.

PASADENA, Calif. — Prediction of earthquakes as far as ten years ahead of their occurence will soon be possible.

Startling results being obtained here in investigations with a recently invented seismograph will enable scientists to correctly forecast earth shocks, Dr. John P. Bulwalda of the California Institute of Technology declared.

With Dr. Harry Wood and Dr. J. A. Anderson of Carnegie Institute, inventors of the new seismograph, Dr. Bulwalda, who assisted in perfecting the instrument for recording the earth's shocks, is carrying on investigations which promise accurate advance predictions on earthquakes.

New Seismograph

The new type seismographs have already been installed at the Mount Wilson observatory here and they will soon replace the old style throughout the world, it was stated. The new earth movement recording machine is no larger than an ordinary telephone, in contrast to the old type, which is extremely bulky, weighing more than two tons.

"Many earthquakes are recorded daily although these are so slight to be unnoticed by a majority of people at work in daily occupations," Dr. Bulwalda said. "Very few quakes are destructive.

"The greater portion of quakes occur in volcanic districts, especially along the boundary lines between great elevations and depressions. However, earthquakes are by no means confined to such areas.

"Most of the great earthquakes that have caused a large amount of damage may be traced to faulting rocks. Slow but relentless movements of earth cause huge rock masses to move out of their normal positions.

Fall Back Into Place

"When the stress and strain of added weight becomes too great, they fall back into natural positions, causing a quake.

"The new siismograph just perfected is extremely sensitive. By detecting the earth's movement and calculating the stress the masses will stand it is possible to predict an earthquake within ten or fifteen years of its actual happening.

"Instruments have not yet been devised which are accurate enough to fully carry on this work, but investigations now being carried on at the seismological labratory at the California Institute of Technology and at the Mount Wilson observatory promise to produce extremely startling results."

Dr. Bulwalda stated further there are some earthquakes caused by volcanic explosions and subteranean disturbances which are spontaneous and naturally no preqictions are possible concerning this type of earthquake.

Volcanic Explosions

Disturbances in the United States are not considered of the above type, however.

Persons caught in an earthquake should not flee from the danger zone, Dr. Bulwalda declared. He said they were much more likely to be killed in an automobile acident, while escaping than in the earth disturbance.

Running away from the scene of an earthquake is ten times as dangerous as remaining in the locality, he declared.

quisition, or the use of such stock by otherwise, may be to substantially lessen competition between such corporations, or any of them, whose stock or other share capital is so acquired, or to restrain such commerce in any section or community, or tend to create a monopoly of any line of commerce."

This provision was intended to apply to what are commonly known as holding companies—that is companies which hold the stocks or securities of other companies as distinguished from companies that actually operate plants or industries. The Ward Baking company, the General Baking company and the Continental Baking Corporation are known as holding companies, and on December 19, 1925, the Federal Trade Commission issued its complaint charging that the Continental Baking Corporation had acquired the capital stock of 25 different corporations throughout the United States which operate in more than 75 cities.

It charged that the acquisition of this stock substantially lessened competition between some of the companies involved and restrained commerce in certain sections, thus tending to create a monopoly of the bread business in the corporation named. Hearings on the case began in New York city on February 8, but after a few days a recess was called in order that certain documents and facts called for by the commission's attorneys might be furnished by the baking corporation.

The Department of Justice has instituted proceedings against William B. Ward and other individuals understood to be connected with him. The department's bill was filled in Baltimore, Maryland, on the same day that hearings were begun by the Federal Trade Commission in New York city.

No complaint has been made against these companies as to the grade of their products, or to the effect that they have raised the price of bread and similar foodstuffs. The general public up to the present time has suffered in no way from the combine. The Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice are simply endeavoring to prevent a monopoly of the bread interests which would be in restraint of trade.

With the coming of better times in Hungary the people are eating 50 per cent more sugar and twice as much sausage as before.

ACID STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Sufferers From Indigestion or Stomach Trouble CUT THIS OUT

"Stomach trouble, dyspepsia, indigestion, sourness, gas, heartburn, food fermentation, etc., are caused nine times in ten by chronic acid stomach," says a well known authority.

Burning hydrochloric acid develops in the stomach at an alarming rate. The acid irritates and inflames the delicate stomach lining and often leads to gastritis accompanied by dangerous stomach ulcers. Don't dose an acid stomach with pepsin or artificial digestents that only give temporary relief from pain by driving the sour, fermenting food out of the stomach into the inteatines.

Instead, neutralize or sweeten your acid stomach after meals with a little hot water and Bisurated Magnesia and not only will the pain vanish but your meals will digest naturally. There is nothing better than Bisurated Magnesia, to sweeten and settle an acid stomach. It soaks up the harmful excess acid much as a sponge or blotting paper might and your stomach acts and feels fine in just a few minutes. Bisurated Magnesia can be obtained from any reliable druggist in either powder or tablet form. It is safe, reliable, easy and pleasant to use, is not a laxative and is not at all expensive.

There is information available on practically every subject affecting the daily life of the American citizen. Experts of the highest order are devoting their entire time and energy to this great work of promoting the public welfare. What do you want to know? What question can the bureau answer for you? Q. Is Wallace Nutting alive? M. L.

A. The Rev. Wallace Nutting is still alive.

Q. What is the story of the expression, "It's a long time between drinks?" R. R. L.

A. The saying, "Said the governor of North Carolina to the governor of South Carolina, 'It's a long time between drinks,'" concerns the governor of South Carolina who required the return of a fugitive slave. The governor of North Carolina hesitated because of powerful friends of the fugitive. He gave a banquet to his official brother. The governor of South Carolina in a speech demanded the return of the slave and ended with "What do you say?" The governor of North Carolina replied as above.

Q. What is intuition? A. L. Y.

A. Intuition is applied to direct or immediate knowing, whether mystical, perceptional, intellectual or moral, and is in general contrasted with speculative, reflective or mediate knowing.

Q. Were the mound builders the ancestors of the Indians? G. O. J.

A. The mound builders are generally believed to have been a race separate and distinct from the Indians, since there are differences in the formations of their skulls.

Q. Why does coal turn to clinkers? J. R. W.

A. Clinkers are caused from the fire getting too hot. The only way to overcome this is to carry a deep fire bed and not allow the fire to get too hot. Carry large fire at low temperature instead of small fire at high temperature and regulate the temperature by reducing the draft.

Q. What is the difference between the Marine Insurance terms "With Particular Average" and "Free from Particular Average?" H. E.

A. Marine insurance is determined on an 80 per cent average loss. It exempts an insurance company from the payment of any partial loss or particular average insurance which exceeds a certain per cent of the value of the property. The particular average clause is sometimes applied to the value of each parcel or package or series of parcels and packages according to invoice numbers. The difference between "with particular average" and "free from particular average" is that the former has a particular average and the latter has not.

Q. How old was Marie Antoinette at the time of her death? H. S.

A. She was almost 48 years old. She was imprisoned for more than a year before her execution.

Q. How much spraying material would it take to spray one ton of tomatoes? C. W. B.

A. The Bureau of Plant Industry says that allowing ten tons of tomatoes to the acre, it will take approximately 30 to 40 gallons of bordeaux mixture to spray one-tenth of an acre or 2,000 to $3,000 plants.

Q. What is the average daily growth of a bamboo tree? P. E.

A. The Bureau of Foreign Seed and Plant Introduction says that the average daily growth of the bamboo tree is 12 inches. The fastest growth is from 2½ feet to 3 feet a day.

Q. When was the Sketch Book written? W. O. H.

A. Washington Irving wrote the Sketch Book during the years 1819-1820.

Woman Laborite M. P. Asks People to Take Her Party Seriously

LONDON — Ellen Wilkinson, the red-haired Laborite member of the house of commons, is distressed because people won't take the Labor party seriously.

Miss Wilkinson was trying to address a Labor meeting at Leeds, when the lights on the platform failed. The audience snickered, laughed, shouted and found more enjoyement in the speaker's evident distress than it did in the "message" promised them.

Miss Wilkinson's complexion became the color as her flaming hair.

"There's no need to laugh just because a light goes out," she declared. "I've come here with a tremendous message and you must listen to me. Don't you realize what I am trying to tell you? I have not come here to amuse you. For Heaven's sake, take our Labor movement seriously—not as a diversion between football and the movies."

Because of building restrictions imposed when the site for the Wembley exposition at London was purchased, the plan to establish factory sites there are being callenged.

Harold Bell Wright's 'Mine With Iron Door' Is Booked

Film Version of Popular Novel Will be Shown at Ceramic Theatre for Three Days.

In these days of artificialities and make believe it is seldom that the theatre-goer may be quite certain that scenes passing before him on the motion picture screen are actually those set down by nature, and not cleverly contrived by the genius of the property man.

But in the case of "The Mine With the Iron Door," Sol Lesser's film version of Harold Bell Wright's new and popular novel produced for Principal Pictures Corporation, and scheduled as the chief feature for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ceramic theatre, there is no room for doubt as to the actuality of the scenes and settings. Every word of the story was written by Mr. Wright in the desert sand mountains of Arizona, near Tucson, and every scene in the feature photoplay was made on the exact spot described by the novelist.

Riding through desert stretches, and fighting through mountain wildernesses Mr. Wright steeped himself in the wild and beautiful spirit, e periencing thrilling changes of sunlight and storm, and the successive mirrorings of the season. He camped for weeks in the very Canada del Oro (Canyon of Gold) where unfolds the magic story he tells of manhood and womanhood.

He curiously investigated the legends of the territory, the stories of adventure and daring and wealth so easily found; the stories of men from all lands baffled in their quest of "the mine with the iron door," which, legend has it, was buried beneath a great avalanche from a mountain side.

Make Rain From Fog In Hong Kong Climate; Experiments Made

HONG KONG.—Attempts to change Hong Kong's too dry climate are being made by a British university professor here, who is experimenting with a method of producing rain from fog.

The island on which Hong Kong stands is trouble with very heavy fogs at certain periods of the year, and the professor hopes, by means of electrical currents, to change these fogs to rain.

The Hong Kong government has voted the professor $2,500 in order to enable him to carry on his experiments.

Rumania has withdrawn government support of its railways, but an increase of 30 per cent in freight rates is expected to make them self-sustaining.

60 YEARS ROYAL BARBER, HE STILL PLIES SCISSORS ON KING'S WHISKERS

SNETTISHAM, England—The publicity that has befallen the Sandringham estates and vicinity since the death of Queen Alexandra, has resulted in the discovery of the oldest hairdresser in England.

He is Charles Howlett, the 85-year-old royal barber, who for nearly 60 years has been shaving and cutting the hair and beards of practically every male member of the British royal family.

Four days a week he shaves and cuts hair for the local cowmen and farm hands. The other two working days he harnesses up his rickety old pon yand buggy and drives over to cut the hair of the members of the the Sandringham estate to shave and royal family who may be in residence.

Howlett was appointed royal barber in 1868, and ever since then he has plied his queerly mixed trade of attending to hte tonsorial requirements of kings, princes and cowmen.

On November 10, 1885, he gave the present King George of England his first shave, and also cut his hair. Four years later King George began to grow a beard, and Howlett also was the first man to trim this.

Since then many kings and princes have sat under the scissors or razor of this venerable barber, among them being the King of Norway, the late Duke of Clarence, the late Prince John, the Prince of Wales, the Duke of York, Prince Henry, Prince George, the late Duke of Teck, and the Crown Prince of Norway.

No Strikes In Britain When Coal Doles End; Strikes on Horizon

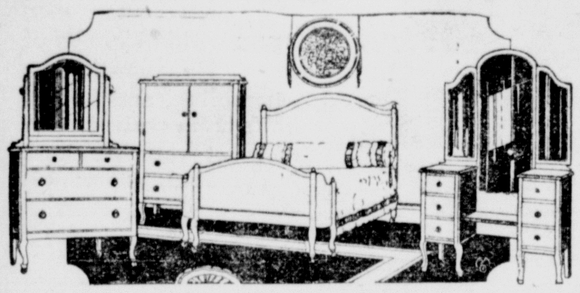

LONDON.—After the most thorough inquiries in the industrial districts of Lancashire, Glasgow, South Wales, Newcastle, the manufacturing districts of Yorkshire and the Midland manufacturing belt of England, it is shown no serious trouble need be feared from the "Reds" if the industrial volcano explodes when the coal subsidies end in May.

There seems no doubt, according to government reports, that Communist agents have been planted in the postal services and in numbers of big engineering and industrial concerns. As a result of their efforts, there may be a number of coal strikes and disturbances. But nothing in the nature of a general uprising, anything to upset the orderly routine of the country, is to be feared, and the opinion is expressed that the police may be trusted to deal with any local happenings that arise.

WAR VETERANS GAIN GRIP ON FEDERAL REINS

History Repeating as Ex-soldiers Get Government Posts.

IN CONGRESS, TOO

Six Former Service Men in Senatorial Bloc.

WASHINGTON — History appears about to repeat itself again.

The slow evolution of political wheels in many states is bringing more and more veterans of the World war into positions of authority and responsibility in the affairs of national government, and the question is beginning to be asked whether American politics is not headed for a period of veteran domination such as the G. A. R. exercised for so many years after the close of the Civil war.

The long reign of the G. A. R. in national politics is so recently ended as to be fresh in the minds of politicians. It has only been in the last few years that stump speakers have considered it safe to orate without throwing a few bouquets in the direction of the G. A. R. No politician's speech in the halcyon 'eighties and 'nineties was complete without it.

Civil War Vets in Congress.

The inexorable march of time has now relegated the G. A. R. to the political background. It is true there are still one Union veteran and one Confederate veteran in congress, but elsewhere in the government they have long since passed.

Their places are now being taken by the veterans of the great war. For the first few years immediately following 1918 veterans in congress were comparatively very rare, and confined principally to those members who were sitting when war was declared, and entered the army "on leave" from congress.

But more and more have come each year until today, in the new sixty-ninth congress, there are 53 members who saw service in the American armies, and a good many of this number served overseas with combat units. They comprise about 15 per cent of the total membership of the present congress.

New Veterans' Bloc.

This veterans' bloc has emerged in the comparatively short space of seven years. Most of those now here appear to be here to stay, insuring that before many years pass they will have chairmanships, leaderships and other positions of authority. If a commensurate pace is kept up, it will not be many years before congress will be largely influenced, if not dominated, by men who served their country in 1917-18.

The senatorial veterans' bloc is composed of six members—Means, of Colorado; Bingham, of Connecticut; Robinson, of Indiana; Brookhart, of Iowa; Reed, of Pennsylvania, and Tyson, of Tennessee. All except Tyson are Republicans.

None of them had "cushy" of swivel-chair jobs, and all except Brookhart were overseas with combat units, saw fire, and risked their lives. It is one of Brookhart's greatest regrets that he did not get to France. It is not generally known that the insurgent Iowan is one of the greatest rifle and small arms authorities in the country. He was kept in the United States as chief instructor of marksmanship at Camp Perry, O., and Camp Benning, Georgia.

Other Soldiers.

As for the others, Senator Means commanded the famous Fourth infantry (regular army) in the Meuse-Argonne offensive; Senator Bingham was an active flyer, commanding the flying school at Issoudon, where hundreds of American pilots received their training in France; Senator Robinson was a captain and major with the 39th infantry, Fourth division, which saw rough work in several hard sectors; Senator Reed commanded a battalion of the 311th field artillery, 79th division; and Senator Tyson was a brigade commander in 30th division, which made considerable history by breaking the Hindenburg line.

It is worthy of note that they do not see eye-to-eye on legislation.

On the world court question, for example, they were badly divided. Reed, Tyson, Means and Bingham voted for the court; Robinson and Brookhart were vehemently opposed to it.

Over on the house side there are 47 veterans of varying degrees of service. Some of them were wounded and thus are in a position to sympathize with the disabled veterans in their appeals to congress.

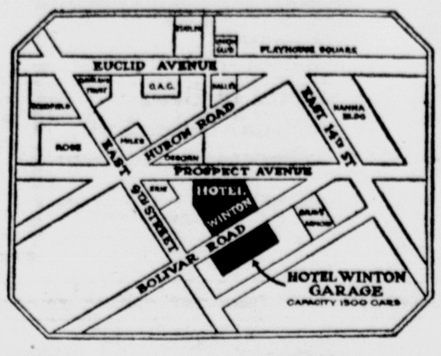

Last year China shipped nearly 100,000,000 pounds of peanuts to this country, which is its largest customer despite our heavy production of the circus menu favorite.

Beggars recently arrested in Melbourne were found to be landlords.

More than 20,000,000 watches were made in Switzerland last year.

Along in the latter part of Herbert Spencer's life, he developed a most irascible temper! To contradict him in even the smallest particular was to call down a veritable holacaust of vitrolic seasoned anethema on the poor fish who differed with him! In other words, Herb got hard!"

Finall his outbursts got so violet they impaired his health and doctors finally told him that if he had another rare up, it would brobably be fatal! This so frightened Herbert that he bought himself two sound-tight EAR MUFFS so that when anyone started to differ, why, Herb just clapped on his ear-muffs and REMAINED CALM!!! He couldn't HEAR, WOULDN'T hear either ADVICE or CRITICISM!!

And THAT'S why Herbert Spencer and I are so different! For I certainly listen to advice, TAKE it and I INVITE criticism and am guided by it—ESPECIALLY if it comes from you customers on the CONDUCT OF THIS STORE!

State Will Close Options On Site For Guilford Park

Highway Department Representatives are Expected to Visit Lisbon During Coming Week.

Representatives of the state highway department, Columbus, are expected to visit Lisbon within the next week to close options for the lands which will be included in the proposed state park at Guilford, Hanover township.

More than 500 acres of ground in the Guilford dam district are to be utilized, the legislature having appropriated approximately $30,000 for the property. The bill providing for the establishment of the park was sponsored by State Representative Ralph W. Emmons, of East Rochester.

Plans for daming the Big Sandy and Beaver canal, in which the fish hatchery will be established, have been prepared by County Surveyor Kirk and forwarded to Columbus for approval. The dam will be closed and the spillway probably constructed during the coming summer. It will require approximately a year for the dam to fill.

Construction of a 50-foot drive way around the lake is also proposed. The county commissioners will build a macadam road from the end of the bricked highway at the county home to Guilford, thence to New Garden, where the Hanover-Salem road will be tapped. This will provide a road to the park from the north and south county districts.

Corrine Griffith Stars in "Declasse" At the American

Those who see Corinne Griffith in "Declasse," which began a three-day run at the American theatre today, will agree that she has done the best work of her career in this screen adaptation of the famous stage play by Zoe Akins.

The enthusiasm which marked the initial showing of this First National picture was unusual. Robert Vignola, who directed the production, deserves special mention for the excellence of his work.

Miss Griffith was surrounded by a cast whose names were nearly all familiar to the audience. It included Lloyd Hughes, Hedda Hopper, Rockliffe Fellowes, Louise Fazenda, Lilyan Tashman, Clive Brook, Joan Standing, Eddie Lyons, Mario Carillo and others. The adaptation was by Bradley King and Charles Whitaker.

The story deals with the unhappy marriage of Lady Helen Haden, played by Miss Griffith, and her love for an American, Ned Thayer, who has allowed himself to fall into the clutches of an adventuress. His reformation and her future happiness form the basis of an exciting and entertaining story.

"Declasse," as a stage play, was made famous by Ethel Barrymore.

GLOBE IS MORE THAN BILLION YEARS OF AGE

Crumbling of Uranium in Black Hills is Proof.

SCIENTIST SAYS

Important Discoveries May Come From Radio Activity.

PASADENA, Cal.—This whirling globe called the world is more than one billion, five hundred millions years old!

That was the opinion expressed by Dr. Robert A. Millikan, world famous scientist of the California Institute of Technology, who won the Nobel prize for his research work on the atom and which recently announced discoveries regarding new cosmic rays created a sensation among scientists.

"Disintegration of the element uranium in the Black Hills, South Dakota, proves that the world is at least 1,518,000 years old and how much older no man may even conjecture," Dr. Millikan declared.

Uranium has been found disintegrating into lead, the scientist said. Experiments with uranium made recently, he said, show the rate at which uranium is turned into lead and from this basis the world's age has been determined. The figures of the scientists, however, do not include the period when the world may have been a whirling ball of fire upon which no life or solid matter existed.

Dr. Millikan declared that like uranium, the other 89 elements are probably in constant change and that many are know certainly to be. Evolution, he said, is a constantly present fact in life and there is no element, it is probable, which is not changing in some degree.

Advancement to be made in this world in the next 200 or 300 years will depend largely on the work on scientific men, Dr. Millikan declared.

Highly sensational and important discoveries may come from investigation of radio activity of all the elements.

He mentioned recently he was working with an instrument on Mount Wilson, near here. The instrument was made of copper and zinc. After long use the instrument was cut off from light, but it still recorded light, seemingly indicating that common metals are throwing off radio emanations.

EVE'S TWO LOVERS

By EDGAR POE NORRIS

WHAT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE

Eve MacLURIE, young, beautiful, passionately satisfied with life, private secretary to JOHN INGATE, third of that name to be president of John Ingate's Sons, Inc., wholesale leather merchants, reckoned at thirty to be a "woman hater," loves, and is loved by, both her employer and

CLAY WALES, one of his employes. When John Ingate proposes marriage to Eve, in the face of the opposition of his mother and sister, she confesses her love, but rejects him in favor of Clay, a youth weak and irresponsible, because she believes Clay needs her more. John Ingate cannot understand ser choice, between dominance and domination, weakness and strength. He does not realize that it is weak men who make the greatest appeal to a woman's sympathy and heart. He is heartbroken, but nevertheless accepts the situation, and privately counsels Clay to straighten up and make himself worthy of Eve. He also promotes Clay to an assistant managership, although Clay is plainly antagonistic.

On the eve of their wedding day, after Eve has had moments of doubt over the wisdom of her choice, she and Clay have a hot disagreement over whether she shall continue to work as John Ingate's private secretary. Clay, knowing of his employer's love for Eve, jealously fears him.

Now go on with the story.

SEVEN.

The razor sawed through a patch of tough beard, struck an uneven spot and sliced off an infinitesimal strip of epidermis.

"Damn!"

John Ingate had cut himself. He always cut himself at this particular abrasion on his chin when he was agitated.

Blood began to color the wound. He daubed hot water on the spot and felt around in the medicine case for the bit of styptic pencil he knew was there. It appeared after he had peevishly drug out the can of salts, bottle of witch hazel, jar of dental floss, bottle of mouth-rinse and the never used safety razor case.

The stuff caused his chin to sting. "Damn!" He hesitated about using the blade on the tuft of beard which hung over the spot, but finally essayed it.

John Ingate did all of these things subsconsciously. His body was in his private bathroom next to his bedchamber on the second floor of the Ingate mansion on High street, but his mind was elsewhere.

He was remembering that this was Eve MacLurie's wedding day. . . . . His heart ached at the thought. Why should she throw herself away on that fellow Wales? How could she prefer Wales to himself? Did Clay Wales possess some quality, some passionate point of nature, that she did not think was in the Ingate's makeup? The razor hung in mid-air as he critically studied himself in the mirror. . . . . .

He would have to go to the wedding, of course. Where was it? What time? He would have to telephone her. He must get flowers. And some sort of gift. It must, he decided, be something useful to Eve alone. But what? He must ask his mother.

John Ingate ate his grapefruit, his cereal, his grilled bacon and boiled eggs mechanically. His morning paper lay before him unscanned. He stared at his eggcup unconscious of the presence of his mother and sister until the former spoke: "Aren't you feeling well, John?"

He shook his head indifferently. "No. I'm all right."

"I suppose it's love," Josephine laughed to her mother.

John Ingate looked up frowning and the veins in his neck stuck out, rigid-like, as they usually did when he was angry. However, he did not respond.

"I suppose we must have her up to tea some afternoon soon and find out what she intends wearing to the ball," Mrs. Ingate remarked without humor. "We can't have her coming here looking like a fright." She started as her son slammed down his serviette.

"You need not worry about that, you two. Miss MacLurie is going to be married today." A sharp pang of pain ran through his heart as the women stared at him.

"She is going to marry a damned whelp named Clay Wales who isn't good enough for her to wipe her feet on."

He got up and swiftly left the table, leaving them still staring. But as they heard the outer portal slam, and an automobile engine whir on the driveway, they turned to look at each other, and their expressions changed slowly into a smile.

The drive to lower River street eased his mind, compelling him as it did to devote his attention to keeping out of smashups. Traffic on Washington street hill and West Main street in Central City at 8 o'clock in the morning was a trial to even the most experienced motor car driver. When he had parked his car in the alley by the warehouse and walked to the office entrance, he had his usual cheerful smile for the truckman lounging there, waiting for their loads.

John Ingate was as popular as the ordinary employer with his employes. There were not so many as to make it inconvenient for him to know them all personally, and he prided himself on the fact that in John Ingate's Sons, Inc., any employe from office boy up could approach the president personally with compliments and problems. Sometimes it was boresome, always it was tedious, to hold "court," but he would not think of abandoning the tradition.

When he opened the door of his private office, he was surprised to see Eve MacLurie bending over his desk, rearranging papers. "Why—."

"Good morning, Mr Ingate."

"I—I didn't expect you. This is your—."

"Oh, there were some things I left undone yesterday. And I had nothing to do this morning, and—."

He hung up his hat and sat down slowly. "The you're all ready to—."

She nodded with a quaint little smile, and went on with the papers to avoid looking at him.

"I say, what time is it going to be?"

"Two o'clock at the Brick church. We'll be leaving for Chicago at six."

"I suppose you're going to wear a veil and all that. Bridesmaids and—."

"No. It's to be very simple. I'll just wear my traveling suit. My cousin, Madeline Overstreet, will be the bridesmaid. I think Clay is counting on you to be best man."

Something in John Ingate rebelled at the thought of Eve MacLurie being married in any such fashion. She deserved a beflowered church, an organ thundering out Mendelssohn's Spring Song, Rubenstein's Melody in F, the Chopin waltz in A flat, Opus 69, No. 1, Elgar's Salut d'Amour—and of course, the Wedding March; silk-hatted ushers; a troop of bridesmaids; perfume, pews full of staring, whispering women and bored, puzzled incredulous men; angel-voiced choir boys; a solemn minister. Weddings are for brides. There are but three climaxes in a woman's life—her own wedding, the birth of her first baby, the first time one of her children marries.

"I'll tell you," he said impulsively, "you let me arrange things."

A wild thought formed in his head: Why not set the stage, then take her for himself? She loved him, she had admitted that. . . . .

Faintly, from a block away, in Main street, there came to the ears of both of them the sound of tolling bells. It was a funeral, probably, but to John Ingate they were wedding bells.

In the next installment: Clay Wales Makes a Mess of Things.

DOCTOR ON SHIP USES KITCHEN KNIFE TO REMOVE MAN'S APPENDIX

BOSTON — In order that he might get to London and there complete his training in the field of medicine and surgery at the Middlesex hospital, Dr. Walter Bremmer sailed on the Commonwealth-Dominion liner Port Bowen.

The cruise gave him practical education, more practical, perhaps, than he might acquire under the capable tutelage of Sir John Hart, the king's physician.

A few days out of Auckland, William Torrington, member of the crew on the Port Bowen, was stricken with appendicitis. Dr. Bremmer treated him medically, but when the trouble became acute it was apparent an operation would be necessary.

Dr. Bremmer had few surgical instruments with him. But he did have resourcefulness. So he had some of the kitchen knives sharpened and sterilized.

He had a table in the ship's dining room cleared and with chloroform for an anaesthetic he set about his task.

Among the passengers were Miss Alison Barnett and Miss Eugenie Juroulhiac, trained nurses of Boston. They assisted Chief Steward Charles Edwards in applying the anaesthetic. First Officer J. S. Hooker, who had sharpened and sterilized the kitchen knives, acted in the capacity of instrument assistant.

The operation was performed successfully by Dr. Bremmer, who then nursed his patient back to perfect health.

When the ship returned to Boston, exactly three weeks after the operation was performed, Torrington was attending his duties about the ship's kitchen.

People of this country ate nearly $90,000,000 pounds of peanuts last year.

CORRINE GRIFFITH BEHEADED—IN FILM

Shrewd producers! They saved Corrine Griffith to the last. Then they beheaded her. On the last day and the last hour of work on her latest First National picture, "Declasse," now playing at the American theatre, they laid the beautiful star's head on the block and—swish! But by "swish" is meant "cut," and by "cut" is meant merely the technical cut, denoting that the scene ended in a "fade out" before the blade had touched the milk-white neck of the screen heroine.

The scene occurs in a "retrospect," fading in while Miss Griffith as the heroine of "Declasse" looks upon an ancestral portrait and recalls what happened to one of the heroine's forbears who upheld the family motto, "Death before dishonor." Miss Griffith herself apears in this "retrospect" the ancestral martyr.

Floyd Hughes, Clive Brook and Louise Fazenda head the big supporting cast in "Declasse." The picture was adapted from Ethel Barymore's stage success of the same title and hinges on a scandal in London society.

She Could Never Have Done It With Piles!

Bless the American girl who has glorified all the sports! She makes a pretty picture in the water, and is a plucky swimmer, too. Piles are unthinkable for active women. If you have them, you ought to know this simple thing to do!

At any hour or moment that you have the least distress or discomfort from piles, use a simple Pyramid pile suppository—and go happily on your way! The worst hemorrhoids, even bleeding and badly protruding piles respond at once to the soothing suppository applied in perfect privacy. But bear the name in mind; Pyramid is the one every druggist has, usually the only one he will sell his patrons. Pyramid is marvelous. Why suffer another single half-hour with painful piles?

Sixty cents the box, the world around. But for proof, a free box plainly wrapped will be sent those who write Pyramid Drug Co., 200 Pyramid Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

This great advantage

The greatest simplicity ever attained in automobile power-plant design is inherently a part of the powerful sleeve-valve motor of the Willys-Knight Great Six. In each cylinder are two metal sleeves, gliding smoothly up and down, one within the other—working silently, wearlessly, in a constant film of oil—and that is all. 65 to 118 fewer parts—no carbon troubles . . .

Contrast this with the perpetual pounding of metal upon metal in the poppet-valve motor—the coil and recoil of 12 separate springs 1100 times a minute—burned valves, pitted valve seats—all the valve grinding—the endless adjustments—periodic carbon-cleaning. These causes that inevitably weaken and eventually destroy the finest of poppet-valve motors are entirely absent in the Willys-Knight engine—"an engine you'll never wear out."

WIFE DIES; MARRIES MOTHER-IN-LAW; FAMILY NOW IN AN AWFUL MUDDLE

NEW CASTLE, Ind.—There was a wedding the other day at the home of eight-year-old Flora Elibazeth Osborne.

"And now," she ruefully said, "I got more relatives than Rockefeller got dimes. Ain't I even my own aunt!"

It all started when Flora's mother died a year ago and her grandmother—her father's mother-in-law—Mrs. Cora McNulty, came to take care of the house.

The other day Flora's father, Horace Osborne, 32, married 54-year-old Mrs. McNulty. Now the family lineup, so far as has been figured out to date stands like this:

Osborne, having married his mother-in-law, is now his own father-in-law; he's his own brother-in-law; and he's also his own daughter's grandfather.

The new Mrs. Osborne, by virtue of her marriage to her son-in-law, is now her own daughter-in-law; she's her grand-daughter's stepmother, not to meention being her own sister-inlaw.

But little Flora insists she's in the worst muddle, because she's now her grandmother's stepdaughter; she's her own father's grand-daughter; she's a half-sister to her dead mother; she's her father's sister-in-law, also her grandmother's sister-in-law. All of which makes Flora her own aunt.

Jennie Hamilton Names City and Traction Company in Action.

The city of East Liverpool and the Steubenville, East Liverpool and Beaver Valley Traction company were today named in two actions filed in common pleas court by Attorney Ben L. Bennett, of East Liverpool, in behalf of Jennie Hamilton, who seeks $30,000 damages, $15,000 from each defendants.

The plaintiff alleges that she was a passenger on a Beaver-East Liverpool interurban car on September 30, 1924, and that when she alighted at the East Liverpool waiting station, she fell to the pavement because of a depression in the street, and was severely injured. She claims she was confined to her home for three months, and that because of the fall she is still lame, sick and sore, and that her knee joint is stiff.

Negligence in permitting the depression in the street to remain is the cause of the action.

No more RHEUMATISM

IT'S GONE! That awful agony! Rheumatism can't stand the rich, red blood that S. S. S. helps Nature build.

But rheumatism will bring pain and misery to your joints and muscles just as long as you are without plenty of rich, red blood in your system.

It's the red-blood-cells that S. S. S. helps Nature build that drive out of your system the impurities that cause rheumatism. And until you do build up your blood to where it is pure and rich and red, you simply can't get rid of rheumatism.

And S. S. S. is the thing. Red blood conquers rheumatism. Everybody knows that.

S. S. S. means millions of red-blood-cells—means health all over. No more rheumatism. Nights of rest—days of joy, filled with the happiness of accomplishment — made possible by a body brimful of red blooded life, energy and vitality.

That's what the end of rheumatism means—that's what S. S. S. brings to you. Get S. S. S. from your druggist. The larger bottle is more economical.

PROSPERITY IS BROUGHT TO IDAHO BY KING POTATO

Farmers Clear Off Their Mortgages, Buy Additional Land, and Even Purchase Banks With Profits.

Boise, Idaho.—There's a new king in the agricultural field. King Potato of Idaho has taken his place alongside King Cotton of the South, King Corn of the Middle West, King Wheat of the Dakotas and King Oil of the Southwest.

Idaho never dreamed that such prosperity could come out of a potato patch. On all sides the praises of the tuber are being sung.

In the words of the United States Department of Agriculture, "Potatoes proved to be the mortgage lifters this year." Hundreds of Idaho farmers made enough money in their potato patches this year not only to clear off the mortgage but also to buy the entire farm. In fact, many renter-farmers, after paying the landlords their share of the crop, bought the farms they had been renting and had enough cash left to stock the farms.

In the Upper Snake River valley potatoes are being used as legal tender, according to the Idaho Falls Daily Post. Any business house will accept the potatoes at the rate of $3.50 a sack. And around that section the farmers produced an average of 300 sacks to the acre.

The Twin City Daily Times prints a story of a farmer near that town who owed $8,000 to a bank and was unable to pay it. He had 100 acres planted to potatoes. He begged so hard that the bank renewed his loan until after potato-digging time. After his potatoes were marketed the farmer paid his $8,000 loan at the bank, cleaned up all his other debts and then bought the bank.

George Irle of Buhl planted 50 acres of potatoes. He harvested 17,500 sacks and sold them for $39,375.

James Keel of Twin Falls last spring bought 160 acres of land for $16,000. He put in 40 acres of potatoes and at harvest time dug enough potatoes to pay for the entire farm and had enough left to buy another farm of the same size.

Carlt John of Idaho Falls put in 45 acres of potatoes and sold them for $25,000. Major Moore of Ontario planted one and three-fourths acres and reaped $1,069.70.

Near St. Anthony a newcomer, who didn't believe in potatoes, bought 80 acres of land for $6,000. Neighbors induced him to put in potatoes, but he would only plant them in ten acres. The ten acres netted him enough to pay for the entire farm with enough over to build a house.

Find Tomb of Aztec Emperor Cortez Hanged

Mexico City.—Word from the state of Chiapas, southern Mexico, says the tomb of Cuauhtemoc, the last emperor of Mexico, has been discovered in the mountains, where the memory of the heroic Aztec still is revered. According to the story, the guarding of the tomb has been handed down from generation to generation.

Cuauhtemoc in the summer of 1521 defended Tenochitlan, the ancient capital of Mexico, now the City of Mexico, three months against the attacks of Spanish cavalry, armored infantry and artillery, until the city was battered down and thrown into the ditches to make maneuvering ground for the Spanish cavalry. Even after the fall of the city the Aztecs looked hopefully to Cuauhtemoc for the restoration of native rule, so when Cortez went south in search of new lands to conquer he took Cuauhtemoc with him, fearing to leave him behind.

In the state of Chiapas Cortez accused the Aztec monarch of conspiracy, court-martialed and hanged him to a great cottonwood tree.

Aaron Burr's Well at Base of Skyscraper

New York.—Laborers tearing down the building at 2 Lafayette street, where the 24-story Court Square building will be erected, discovered an enormous well half filled with water near the Duane street side of the plot.

It was a rusty echo of a day when New York city's population was 56,000, when Aaron Burr was as notable a citizen as James J. Walker is today, and when 2 Lafayette street was regarded as far away as Harlem is today. The well was a part of New York city's first water system, built in 1799 by a company, of which Aaron Burr was a leading member.

The pumping engine, enormous and covered with rust, was also found and may be had by anyone proving a legitimate desire for a pumping engine, enormous and covered with rust.

Asks Divorce After He Puts Dead Wife in Well

New Philadelphia, Ohio.—Harvey Haver, forty years old, mail carrier of New Comerstown, near here, filed suit for divorce from his wife, Katherine, six weeks after he said he cut her body down from the rafters of their home and stuffed it into an abandoned well. Two weeks later, he said, he paid a premium on her life insurance.

Haver said he took all the steps he outlined because he was fearful he would be blamed for his wife's death and wanted to fortify the impression she deserted him. Haver declared he and his wife quarreled December 1 and later he found her body suspended from a chain in the basement. He didn't want the public to know, so placed the body in the well, he told the coroner.

SHELBY JACKSON, GENT OF LEISURE, HAS NEVER WORKED AND NEVER WILL

BOSTON — The Man Without a Country couldn't hold a candle to the Man Who Won't Work.

The aristocrat of leisure is Shelby Jackson, of Memphis, Tenn.; also of Liverpool, Paris, Naples, Pekin, Alexandria and other parts.

Pitched from the deck of the freight steamship Clontarf, with 12,000 bales of cotton from Alexandria, the royal rover spoke as follows:

"I won't work. I never worked. First, I was kicked out of Liverpool. I was put aboard a ship bound for China. I was knocked off at Pekin and I signed up with a ship bound for London.

"Time flies and memory fails me, but I have been in scores of ports and on scores of ships and I have never worked.

"The Clontarf picked me up in Alexandria, Egypt. We had a nice trip over. I wouldn't work but got my three square meals a day. I basked in the sunshine on pretty days and slept in my forecastle hammock when the sea was choppy.

"Well, it's up to me to get another free ride."

The United States government paid Captain Charles A. Crowinshield 60 cents a day for Jackson's fare over.

Balkan States Plan To Sign New Pact Pledging Security

CONSTANTINOPLE — The Balkan states—Greece, Bulgaria, Roumania and Jugo-Slavia—encouraged by Great Britain and other powers, are moving in the direction of a treaty of amity and security.

The conclusion of a pact of this kind would, in the opinion of leading European diplomats, go a long way toward assuring peace in a quarter of the world which has been noted in recent years for international quarrels and general political unrest.

Financial considerations are expected to play an important part in negotiations which are now proceeding quietly, as all of the Balkan countries are in need of money and in return for favors of a financial nature they are to be given to understand that peace is now the European watchword and that they will be expected to observe it.

Jugo-Slavia has already made representations to Greece with a view to bringing the Balkan states into a conference, and it is understood here that a meeting of the Prime Ministers of the Balkans may be held shortly at Constantinople.

A law 1,200 years old which stated that if a man committed a theft, and his wife was present, she should be freed, because "she was bound to obey her superior," was quoted in a recent case in England.

MELLON RIVALS COOLIDGE IN NEWS VALUE

His Name Printed Most Next to That of President.

SAVES STORIES

Cabinet Officer Has Sixty Books of Clippings.

WASHINGTON—From the standpoint of news-value and consequently public interest, the name of Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, and one of the world's most wealthy men, exceeds that of any other national figure, barring possibly the president.

This conclusion may be drawn from information obtained by the International News Service, showing that since March, 1921, when Mellon assumed charge of the nation's finances, his name has appeared in at least 25,000 newspaper and magazine articles.

Although Mellon undoubtedly is the most modest and reiring official in Washington, his "scrap book," compiled at the treasury, contains probably 10,000 clippings. In this collection, which already fills over 60 volumes of 100 pages each, are filed news stories, feature articles and editorials, quoting from or referring to the secretary.

Selected References.

Compilers of the book say it contains about one-third of the articles printed in American journals regarding Secretary Mellon's public work.

The clippings are collected from various sources, occasionally a story being selected by Mellon himself from the scrapbook, which in later years may be the basis for an important chapter in the history of America's post-war reconstruction period.

Not every page of the scrap book is flattering to Mellon. Many clippings of editorials condemning the secretary for his alleged connection with the Aluminum Company of America and its relationship to taxes of that corporation are scattered through the scrap book.

Other papers have taken sides with Senator Couzens, of Michigan, in the attacks he launched against Mellon almost immediately after he became a member of the senate.

But probably the most vicious criticism game from a newspaper in the Middle Western Farm Belt. It was printed soon after the oil scandals rocked the capital. Under the caption, "Mellon Is Next," this editorial said:

"Gradually the axe is approaching the neck of Andrew W. Mellon. He can see the block and smell the blood where fell the illustrious heads of Newberry, Fall, Denby, Daugherty and William J. Burns."

However, quoting from this editorial, an eastern newspaper remarked that the axe, if there was one, never fell, and that Mellon has remained to take a most important part in the country's reconstruction.

One magazine, calling attention to Mellon's tax and financial policies in the government remarked that he is the "greatest secretary of the treasury since Alexander Hamilton."

The power of Mellon's name in newspaper articles was never demonstrated more conclusively than recently when the secretary made a number of references to absence of inflation in the stock market transactions, following this with the prediction that America enjoys the outlook for a prosperous New Year.

Within a short time after the story was published New York stock prices bounded and other important indications of the attitude towards Mellon's views on high finance, were evidenced.

Mellon is seldom disturbed over criticism in the public press. He has, however, on a number of occasions retaliated sharply when the treasury's prohibition, tax or other policies have been attacked.

Under Mellon, the treasury has avoided, as a rule, the issuance of statements having a bearing on stock and bond prices, while the stock markets are in session. Virtually all statements of this character for the press are given out after the markets of the country have closed for the day.

CONGRESS FIGHT LOOMS UP STRONG

The fight for the congressional nomination in the Lawrence, Beaver and Butler district in the May primaries is expected to be one of the most hotly contested in the Keystone state, according to political leaders of the three counties, each of which is likely to have a candidate in the field.

Attorney Louis E. Graham, former district attorney of Beaver county, will probably be a candidate. He finished second in the primary fight two years ago. He will be opposed, it is stated, by Rev. C. G. Jordan, of Lawrence county, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of East Liverpool. Butler is expected to have a candidate.

THRIFT may deprive you of some things which now seem necessary, but it pays well for whatever it seems to take away. Investigate our plan.

CHARITY DRIVE PLANNED HERE

Funds Will be Sought in Catholic Diocese.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—The week beginning Sunday, February 28, has been designated by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, D. D., bishop of Cleveland, as "Catholic Charities Corporation Week," during which a membership campaign will be conducted in nearly 100 parishes in Cleveland and its environs. While the primary purpose of the drive will be to secure new members who pay annual dues ranging from $10 to $200, campaign workers will also accept voluntary contributions from those who can not afford to pay a regular annual fee.

This campaign, which is limited to Cuyahoga county, is the first of a series which will cover the entire diocese. The other 13 counties included in the Diocese of Cleveland will be canvassed in succeeding campaigns, which will probably begin early in April, it has been announced from diocesan headquarters in the Guarantee Title building, Cleveland.

With the funds made available through next week's campaign and these that are to follow, the directors of the Catholic Charities Corporation hope to be able to build the second unit of the Parmadale orphanage, which is planned to house the orphan girls of the Diocese. Five hundred orphan boys were moved from their old orphanage to Parmadale last September, but it was impossible to provide new accommodations for the girls, as there were no further funds immediately available. The boys were moved first because their old homes were even worse than those of the girls.
